Summary of Susan Cain's Bittersweet Everest Media,2022-04-25T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 The author learned that we have up to twenty seven different emotions but we can t tell a good story about so many different characters We need to narrow it down and pick one emotion as the main protagonist 2 The story of how Sadness was created is a perfect example of how the Pixar team works together to create a better film They were originally going to place a dark and gloomy character at the center of the movie but Dacher Keltner a influential University of California Berkeley psychology professor explained that Sadness triggers compassion 3 Dacher Keltner who is known for his work with positive psychology is a born high reactive person He is warm and caring and he radiates happiness But he also has a deep sadness at the core of who he is 4 Keltner s parents were both very passionate and this caused a lot of drama in their family Keltner on the other hand had a more scientific temperament and decided to study human emotions when he grew up A Bittersweet Victory Daniel Cotton,2014-06-30 You can t outrun the dead and you can t trust the living as the zombie apocalypse rages on in the third book in the series Life is a winding road full of twists and turns one can never be truly prepared for all the unexpected bumps and bends that loom ahead or the pitfalls that derail us from our path Vida Calavera is about to learn this first hand when an evening out with her friends turns into a waking nightmare All of her plans and aspirations for the future will be dashed in an instant her world will crumble down around her as the dead rise up Unable to get home she is lost vulnerable to whatever may lurk around the next turn Vida is heading straight into danger with death on her heels but who she trusts with her life just might be the one who takes it
