Black Africa Masks Sculpture And Jewelry:

Black Africa Laure Meyer, 2007 This magnificently illustrated book covers each medium or craft in turn and examines in a clear and accessible manner the entire range of Black African art from aesthetic and ethnological points of view Masks and Masking Gary Edson, 2015-07-11 For at least 20 000 years masking has been a mark of cultural evolution and an indication of magical religious sophistication in society This book provides a comprehensive understanding of the mask as a powerful cultural phenomenon a means by which human groupings attempted to communicate their dignity and sense of purpose as well as establish a continuum between the natural and supernatural worlds It addresses the distinctive environments within which masks flourished and analyzes the mask as a manifestation of art ethnology and anthropology

Traditional African Art Avner Shakarov, Lyubov Senatorova, 2015-07-06 The art of sub Saharan Africa reveals the marvelous achievements of unknown artists over thousands of years Their aesthetic ideal finds form in wood ivory fabric bronze and iron This illustrated study of traditional African art includes pieces from Western Sudan the Congolese Basin the Guinea coast Gabon the Democratic Republic of Congo and East and South Africa Each piece is characterized by its own traditions and artistic forms The earliest works date from the beginning of the first millennium the most recent from the early 20th century Unique and rare examples are documented many heretofore virtually unknown Shamanism Gary

Edson, 2014-04-14 The ancient practice of shamanism touches many cultures and spiritual philosophies This book offers an in depth look at the beliefs and practices centered on the shaman a person believed to have powers to heal and communicate with the spirit world It explores shamanism and its associated myths artifacts and legends as a communally endorsed acknowledgment of the supernatural or spirit world that evolved in the Neolithic Period and continues to appeal today The work is heavily illustrated featuring more than 90 of the author's drawings of masks fetishes carvings and ongon and 40 rare photographs of shamans medicine men and women and healers Faces of Your Soul Elise Dirlam Ching, Kaleo

Ching, 2014-01-14 In Faces of Your Soul Elise Dirlam Ching and Kaleo Ching combine art and archetypes meditation and acupuncture guided imagery journaling and many different creative processes in a collage of healing knowledge and wisdom The authors start by stressing the balance of complementary opposites left brain right brain challenge comfort practicality the sacred as crucial to beginning the journey Then through guided imagery they lead readers through subconscious realms to connect with archetypal sources of inner wisdom This process frees the creative and healing spirit connecting explorers with the body's instinctive intelligence which expresses itself through the creation of art Central to this process is a detailed description of maskmaking including how to work with a partner to mold each other's gauze mask balanced with self explorations of the inner experience of this event Poetry personal stories photographs and a gallery of Kaleo Ching's evocative totemic masks expand the reader's experience of this richly resonant journey to self Continent of Mothers,

Continent of Hope Torild Skard, 2003-06-14 Cutting through the Western media's stereotype picture of Africa as a continent wracked only by civil conflict and AIDS Torild Skard has written an engrossing introduction to a continent in change Based on her extensive travels through the region Skard combines eyewitness accounts lively description and deeply informed insight to portray the human reality of Africa today With honesty cultural sensitivity and a commitment especially to women she frankly describes the social health and other problems experienced by its people but also the sources of hope for the future represented by courageous individuals community level projects and programs being implemented in the region

African Arts ,2008 African Ethnonyms Daniel P. Biebuyck,Susan Kelliher,Linda McRae,1996 A reference of some 2 500 names of specific African ethnic groups Emphasis is on the art of sub Saharan Africa with art broadly interpreted to include ornamental design architecture textiles and body adornment as well as the traditional arts of masks and sculpture Organized alphabetically entries list countries where groups are located and language name A secondary index lists groups by country and provides notes on historical colonial occupation languages and print resources For librarians museum scholars and researchers in art history anthropology linguistics and African studies Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Africa, Art and Ritual Daphne Lane Beneke,Adam Mekler,2000 Summon My Ehi To Ugbine Okpame Oronsaye,2024-06-28 The Edo people of the Midwestern region of Nigeria believe every living thing has an Ehi mystical or spirit twin The Ehi ensures that the uhimwen self predestination of the lifespan of an entity on earth is adhered to precisely as the entity had avowed the day it was created by the supreme creator God The Edo perceive the Ehi as a guide guard and witness to the earthly journey of the entity Ugbine is a small town located a few kilometres west of Benin City and was thrust into the limelight of European history by an incident which took place there on January 4 1897 Summon My Ehi To Ugbine is the story of the events that led to the defeat and destruction of a clandestine and unauthorised British invasion force on January 4 1897 at Ugbine a small town a few kilometres west of Benin City Mr J R Phillips acting Consul General of the Niger Coast Protectorate led the invasion force This defeat and destruction of the British invasion force which became universally known as the Benin Massacre gave the British government the much needed excuse to invade Benin City earlier than was planned To justify the invasion of Benin City the British government embarked on a disinformation campaign that the destruction of the invasion force was an unprovoked killing of seven unarmed British envoys and traders on a peaceful mission to Benin City by a group of Benin chiefs The story is neither a history reference book nor a critique of any publication of the Ugbine incident Neither is it my personal nor an Edo view of the events 1892 1896 that led to the incident the subsequent invasion plundering and razing of Benin City and the reign of terror the British unleashed on the Edo people from 1897 to 1899 Also it is not an expose of these events because those who consciously or unconsciously initiated orchestrated and executed this tragic and painful chapter of the history of Benin recorded and told the story long ago For 127 years except for three writers historians and art historians including internationally renowned publications have retold this story based on the British government disinformation template Sadly they retold the story each with a different flavour of the events shamelessly prejudiced and massively distorted Summon My Ehi To Ugbine is a let the truth be heard story And nothing more

Using Art Media in Psychotherapy Michelle L. Dean, 2016-01-22 Using Art Media in Psychotherapy makes a thoughtful and contextual argument for using graphic art materials in psychotherapy providing historical context for art materials and their uses and incorporating them with contemporary practices and theories Written with an analytic focus many of the psychological references nod to Jung and post Jungian thought with keen attention to image and to symbolic function This book jettisons the idea of reductionist cookbook approaches and instead provides an integrated and contextual understanding of the origins of each art form as well as an insightful use for each in its application in mental health healing practices Using Art Media in Psychotherapy gives clinicians and students alike the tools they need to offer psychologically minded and clinically astute choices that honor their clients

Africana Anthony Appiah, Henry Louis Gates (Jr.),2005 Ninety years after W E B Du Bois first articulated the need for the equivalent of a black Encyclopedia Britannica Kwame Anthony Appiah and Henry Louis Gates Jr realized his vision by publishing Africana The Encyclopedia of the African and African American Experience in 1999 This new greatly expanded edition of the original work broadens the foundation provided by Africana Including more than one million new words Africana has been completely updated and revised New entries on African kingdoms have been added bibliographies now accompany most articles and the encyclopedia s coverage of the African diaspora in Latin America and the Caribbean has been expanded transforming the set into the most authoritative research and scholarly reference set on the African experience ever created More than 4 000 articles cover prominent individuals events trends places political movements art forms business and trade religion ethnic groups organizations and countries on both sides of the Atlantic African American history and culture in the present day United States receive a strong emphasis but African American history and culture throughout the rest of the Americas and their origins in African itself have an equally strong presence The articles that make up Africana cover subjects ranging from affirmative action to zydeco and span over four million years from the earliest known hominids to Sean Diddy Combs With entries ranging from the African ethnic groups to members of the Congressional Black Caucus Africana Second Edition conveys the history and scope of cultural expression of people of African descent with unprecedented depth Continuum Encyclopedia of Native Art Hope B. Werness, 2003-01-01 This lavishly produced volume is the first reference work to focus on the symbols meaning and significance of art in native or indigenous cultures Seashore Man & African Eve Third Edition Denis Montgomery, 2017-03-08 This third revised edition is a thorough exploration of the evolution of mankind in Africa Latest facts and speculations have been reviewed and narrated with the author's insights and commentary This is an inclusive study with an emphasis on the need to examine the seashore as a vital part of our ancestral story It is surely high time to end the narrow vision of excluding African Indian Ocean seashores from five million years of hominin evolution

ECHOES OF ANCIENT AFRICAN VALUES Joseph A. Bailey, II, M.D., F.A.C.S., 2005-07-18 Ancient Africans perhaps around 5500 BC established a tradition based upon truth goodness beauty and other immaterial and intangible aspects of things of worth Believing all of God's creations were forever linked they focused on having good relations with and behaviors toward fellow human beings and with nature both for the purpose of reaching a heaven afterlife Out of these concepts arose the sense of community including the practice of no person being left behind Echoes of Ancient African Values discusses who Ancient Africans were as a people their genius and creative ways of thinking their philosophical and spiritual foundations and their world shaping achievements Unfortunately peoples throughout the world have failed to realize or acknowledge the fact that Ancient Africans have produced the most brilliant civilization and culture the world has ever known This applies whether the measure is by significance greatness or numbers The fashioning of such brilliance inside high morals not only transcended space and time but also designed sublime echoes A major premise of this book is that these echoes were extremely instrumental in enabling Ancient African slaves to survive their hellish situation as well as having ongoingly contributed to the recovery of Black Americans from the effects of slavery Numerous examples are given Otherwise what is stressed to all peoples in the world is that Ancient African Values contain workable answers for solving every type of problem concerning humanity
