Pfaff, 1988-01-26 An invaluable work on black African cinema has at last appeared in English Francoise Pfaff s volume synthesizes relevant information devoid of hagiography about twenty five sub Saharan African filmmakers according a separate chapter consisting of a biography filmography and thematic analyses of individual films to each Varying critical viewpoints are brought to bear from both African and non African perspectives The author has gone beyond translation and compilation to explore the decades of black African cinema within the historical context of the continent s problematic emancipation Twenty Five Black African Filmmakers offers enormous insight along with valuable data heretofore unavailable in English Cineaste Black African motion pictures emerged in the 1960s at the height of the sociopolitical upheavals experienced by many nations in the transition from colonialism to independence Working mostly with minimal budgets and limited distribution opportunities African filmmakers nevertheless have been consistent prizewinners at international film festivals Francoise Pfaff introduces this developing artistic tradition to American readers with her informative and highly readable guide to the work of twenty five Black African directors Black African Cinema Nwachukwu Frank Ukadike, 1989

Black African Cinema Nwachukwu Frank Ukadike, 1991 Guide to African Cinema Sharon A. Russell, 1998-02-18 Intended as a guide to the filmmakers and films of the African cinema this reference book also provides the framework for understanding the history and development of African film with respect to its situation in world cinema The goals and achievements of African film are studied with respect to the forces that impact it such as colonialism and racism The importance of the creative efforts of African filmmakers and the diversity of their approaches to cinema are explored Examined as well are the views of Africa presented by European colonial filmmakers views often contested in contemporary African film The listings include critical analysis bio bibliography and filmographies Both Saharan and sub Saharan films are included As an important reference to African film the information outlined is valuable due to the current lack of researched data on African cinema in part as a result of postcolonial attitudes on production and distribution The book concentrates on films and directors who work toward defining a unique African perspective without compromising thematic concerns due to commercial considerations The research detailed in this text should encourage a wider appreciation of the film work being done in Africa especially to those without the benefit of access to specialized libraries and collections Questioning

Harrow,1999 This collection of essays deals directly and compellingly with contemporary issues in African cinema In particular they address key aspects of post colonialism and feminism the two major topics of interest in current criticism of African films but coverage is also given to spectatorship national identity ethnography patriarchy and the creation of key film industries in developing countries

African Cinema: Manifesto and Practice for Cultural Decolonization Michael T. Martin,2023-08-08 Challenging established views and assumptions about traditions and practices of filmmaking in the African diaspora this three volume set offers readers a researched critique on black film Volume One of this landmark series on African cinema draws together foundational scholarship on its history and evolution Beginning with the ideological project of colonial film to legitimize the economic exploitation and cultural hegemony of the African continent during imperial rule to its counter historical formation and theorization It comprises essays by film scholars and filmmakers alike among them Roy Armes Med Hondo Frid Boughedir Haile Gerima Oliver Barlet Teshome Gabriel and David Murphy including three distinct dossiers a timeline of key dates in the history of African cinema a comprehensive chronicle and account of the contributions by African women in cinema and a homage and overview of Ousmane Semb ne the Father of African cinema      Focus on African Films Françoise Pfaff,2004-07-13 Focus on African Films offers pluralistic perspectives on filmmaking across Africa highlighting the distinct thematic stylistic and socioeconomic circumstances of African film production      Africa on Film Kenneth M. Cameron,1994 On African cinema      A Companion to African Cinema Kenneth W. Harrow,Carmela Garritano,2018-12-27 An authoritative guide to African cinema with contributions from a team of experts on the topic A Companion to African Cinema offers an overview of critical approaches to African cinema With contributions from an international panel of experts the Companion approaches the topic through the lens of cultural studies contemporary transformations in the world order the rise of globalization film production distribution and exhibition This volume represents a new approach to African cinema criticism that once stressed the sociological and sociopolitical aspects of a film The text explores a wide range of broad topics including cinematic economics video movies life in cinematic urban Africa reframing human rights as well as more targeted topics such as the linguistic domestication of Indian films in the Hausa language and the importance of female African filmmakers and their successes in overcoming limitations caused by gender inequality The book also highlights a comparative perspective of African videoscapes of Southern Nigeria Ethiopia and C te d Ivoire and explores the rise of Nairobi based Female Filmmakers This important resource Puts the focus on critical analyses that take into account manifestations of the political changes brought by neocolonialism and the waning of the cold war Explores Examines the urgent questions raised by commercial video about globalization Addresses issues such as funding the acquisition of adequate production technologies and apparatuses and the development of adequately trained actors Written for film students and scholars A Companion to African Cinema offers a look at new critical approaches to African cinema      Gender Terrains in African Cinema Dominica Dipio,2019-04-12 Gender Terrains in African Cinema reflects on a body of canonical African filmmakers who address a trajectory of pertinent social issues Dipio analyses gender relations around three categories of female characters the girl child the young woman and the elderly woman and their male counterparts Although gender remains the focal point in this lucid and fascinating text Dipio engages attention in her discussion of African feminism in relation to Western feminism With its broad appeal to African humanities Gender Terrains in African Cinema stands as a unique and radical contribution to the field of African film studies which until now has suffered from a paucity of scholarship      Cinemas of the Black Diaspora Michael T. Martin,1995 This is a study of the cinematic traditions and film practices in the black Diaspora With contributions by film scholars film critics and film makers from Europe North America and the Third World this diverse collection provides a critical reading of film making in the black Diaspora that challenges the assumptions of colonialist and ethnocentrist discourses about Third World Hollywood and European cinemas Cinemas of the Black Diaspora examines the impact on film making of Western culture capitalist production and distribution methods and colonialism and the continuing neo colonial status of the people and countries in which film making is practiced Organised in three parts the study first explores cinema in the black Diaspora along cultural and political lines analysing the works of a radical and aesthetically alternative cinema The book proceeds to group black cinemas by geographical sites including Africa the Caribbean and South America Europe and North America to provide global context for comparative and case study analyses Finally three important manifestoes document the political and economic concerns and counter hegemonic institutional organising efforts of black and Third World film makers from the 1970s to the early 1990s Cinemas of the Black Diaspora should serve as a valuable basic reference and research tool for the study of world cinema While celebrating the diversity innovativeness and fecundity of film making in different regions of the world this important collection also explicates the historical importance of film making as a cultural form and political practice Encountering Modernity Keyan G. Tomaselli,2006 Black African Literature in English, 1997-1999 Bernth Lindfors,2003 This volume lists the work produced on anglophone black African literature between 1997 and 1999 This bibliographic work is a continuation of the highly acclaimed earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors Containing about 10 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books periodical articles papers in edited collections and selective coverage of other relevant sources Symbolic Narratives/African Cinema June Givanni,2019-07-25 In the conference Africa and the History of Cinematic Ideas held in London in 1995 film makers cultural theorists and critics gathered to debate a range of issues Views were exchanged on such topics as imperialism and the problems of distribution Awakening African Women Ginette Curry,2004 The book is a comparative analysis of recent films by African male and female filmmakers and literary works by female African authors from Senegal Mali the Ivory Coast Nigeria Togo and Burkina Faso The films are Finzan Cheikh Oumar Sissoko 1990 Women with Open Eyes Anne Laure Folly 1994 and Faces of Women Desire Ecare 1985 In addition the manuscript includes the study of Women are Different Flora Nwapa 1986 Double Yoke Buchi Emecheta 1983 and So Long a Letter Mariama Ba 1980 Curry analyzes the homogeneous themes such as oppression sabotage cultural alienation exploitation sexual bargaining and the changing dynamics of sexual relationships that appear through these productions She concludes that African women continue to undergo a metamorphosis This transformation is the result of a blend of traditionally African and European influences Modernist terms such as oefeminism and oewomanism intended to capture the emerging African women as subjects and not objects of study are avoided In so doing a theoretical approach is used based on the author TM s own experiences in West Africa Then building from that premise Curry analyzes the novels and films within this context to either prove or disprove her theories Enthusiasts without past experiences in the area of African literature and African films and also students and scholars in African studies specifically in comparative literature anthropology women TM s studies sociology African history film studies and social studies will all find this book of great interest In raising the issues that West African women face this book as the title suggests aims to awaken other African women and indeed a western readership to the fast changing lives of women in Africa Georgina Holmes in African Research and Documentation No 102 2007 Colonial Cinema in Africa Glenn Reynolds, 2015-06-08 In recent decades historians and film scholars have intensified their study of colonial cinema in Africa Yet the vastness of the continent the number of European powers involved and irregular record keeping has made uncovering the connections between imagery imperialism and indigenous peoples difficult This volume takes up the challenge tracing production and exhibition patterns to show how motion pictures were introduced on the continent during the Scramble for Africa and the subsequent era of consolidation The author describes how early actualities expeditionary footage ethnographic documentaries and missionary films were made in the African interior and examines the rise of mass black spectatorship While Africans in the first two decades of the 20th century were sidelined as cinema consumers because of colonial restrictions social and political changes in the subsequent interwar period wrought by large scale mining in southern Africa led to a rethinking of colonial film policy by missionaries mining concerns and colonial officials By World War II cinema had come to black Africa
