Black And Reformed Apartheid Liberation And The Calvinist Tradition:

Black and Reformed Allan Aubrey Boesak, 2015-07-14 These essays represent a forceful relentless engagement with the political social economic and theological pillars upon which South African apartheid rested In the renewed struggles against global apartheid Boesak's writings in their theological grounding and with their social and political challenge come across as alive relevant and powerful as they were in the struggle against South African apartheid offering valuable insights and lessons for ongoing justice struggles today Black and Reformed Allan Boesak, 1996 Vocation Douglas J.

Schuurman, 2004 The Protestant doctrine of vocation has had a profound influence on American culture but in recent years central tenets of this doctrine have come under assault Vocation Discerning Our Callings in Life explores current responses to the classic view of vocation and offers a revised statement and application of this doctrine for contemporary North American Christians According to Douglas Schuurman many Christians today find it both strange and difficult to interpret their social economic political and cultural lives as responses to God's calling To renew this biblical perspective Schuurman argues Christians must recover the language meaning and reality of life as vocation and his book helps do just that Developed in dialogue with audiences as diverse as college students industrial workers business leaders church leaders and professional theologians and ethicists the book examines the theological and ethical dimensions of vocation as these have been understood historically and in relation to our modern social setting The Oxford Handbook of Calvin and

Calvinism Bruce Gordon, Carl R. Trueman, 2021 John Calvin was a leader of the European Reformation of the sixteenth century and the influence of his thought remains crucial in our world This collection explores the origins of Calvin's thought and the theological historical and cultural circumstances in which they have evolved from Geneva to our times Creation and Salvation: Dialogue on Abraham Kuyper's Legacy for Contemporary Ecotheology Ernst M. Conradie, 2011-03-21 This volume explores the legacy of the Dutch theologian and statesman Abraham Kuyper for contemporary Christian ecotheology It focuses on Kuyper's understanding of the relationship between creation and salvation It includes essays and responses by contributors from four continents A Protestant Theology of Passion Volker Küster, 2010 Minjung Theology is introduced here through theological biographical sketches of its main representatives They formulated a protestant liberation theology under the South Korean military dictatorship of the 1970s and 80s Their strong emphasis on the suffering of the people minjung led them to the formulation of a genuine theology of the cross in Asia Volker Küster explores the reception of Minjung Theology and raises the question what happened to it during the democratization process and the rise of globalization in the 1990s Interpretations of art works by Minjung artists provide deep insights into these transformation processes Prologue and epilogue abstract from the Korean case and offer a concise theory of contextual theology in an intercultural framework African Theology Today Emmanuel M. Katongole, 2017-05-09 This book brings together twelve essays on a wide and rich range of topics discussions and methodologies in African theology today Even the book's limitations provide an insight into the situation its variety also indicates the absence of comprehensive and sustained discussion flowing from the economic and institutional limitation of Africa where research in theology is often beyond the means of many theologians Then there is the difficulty of staying abreast of continually changing contexts and events in Africa itself For all of these reasons then a compelling introduction to a dynamic analysis and conversation

Christian Faith and Violence 1, 2019-12-30 Volumes 10 and 11 of Studies in Reformed Theology consist of the texts written for the fifth international conference of the International Reformed Theological Institute IRTI which was dedicated to the theme Christian Faith and Violence Specific theological questions were at the core of the discussions e g what does violence imply for the doctrine of God How to deal with biblical stories and commands that often contain an overwhelmingly violent character What about applying christian ethics in situations of violence that we are exposed to What is our calling in situations of oppression and a longing for liberation and justice

Theologizing in Black Celucien L. Joseph, 2020-04-15 Theologizing in Black is a creative and rigorous comparative study on black theological musings and liberative intellectual contemplations engaging the theological ethics and anthropology of both continental African theologians Tanzania Kenya Democratic Republic of the Congo and black theologians in the African Diaspora Haiti Trinidad Jamaica Antigua and Barbuda United States Using the pluralist approach to religion promoted by the philosopher of religion and theologian John Hick the book is also an attempt to bridge an important gap in the comparative study of religion Africana Studies and Liberation theology both in Africa and its diaspora The book provides an analytical framework and intellectual critique of white Christian theologians who deliberately disengage with and exclude black and Africana theologians in their theological writings and conversations From this vantage point Africana critical theology is said to be a theology of contestation as it seeks to deconstruct white supremacy in the theological enterprise This book not only articulates a rhetoric of protest about the misrepresentation and underrepresentation of the humanity of African and black people in white theological imagination it also enunciates a positive image of black humanity and congruently promulgates a constructive representation of blackness The paramount goal of Africana theological anthropology and ethics is the preservation of life and promotion of human dignity and the sheer acknowledgement that the African people and people of African descent are bearers of the image of God

Embracing the Other Grace Ji-Sun Kim, 2015-10-21 An innovative Asian feminist perspective on God s Spirit We live in a time of great racial strife and global conflict How do we work toward healing reconciliation and justice among all people regardless of race or gender In Embracing the Other Grace Ji Sun Kim demonstrates that it is possible only through God s Spirit Working from a feminist Asian perspective Kim develops a new constructive global pneumatology that works toward gender and racial ethnic justice She draws on concepts from Asian and indigenous cultures to reimagine the divine as Spirit God who is restoring shalom in the world Through the power of Spirit God Kim says our brokenness is healed and we can truly love and embrace the Other

Toward an African Theology of Fraternal Solidarity Ikenna Ugochukwu

Okafor,2014-09-29 In this book Ikenna Okafor tackles an interesting and timely topic and demonstrates competence and maturity in developing his insight into Igbo humanism to make liberation theology from an African perspective into a theology of solidarity and fraternity With a good narrative style Okafor critiques the Latin American liberation theological project And inspired by the hermeneutical implications of UBE NAWANNE the evangelical positioning of material poverty and pathos for the poor as defining Christian discipleship is persuasively presented The potent nwanne idiom guides his critical evaluation of the social teachings and praxis of the Catholic Church In fact it is clear that Okafor embarked on a subject matter that is of theological moment and has creative pastoral implications for the Church of Nigeria the Churches of Africa and the World Church Sober, Strict, and Scriptural: Collective Memories of John Calvin, 1800-2000 ,2009-04-24 Calvinism s influence and reputation have received ample scholarly attention But how John Calvin himself his person character and deeds was remembered commemorated and memorialized is a question few historians have addressed Focussing on the nineteenth and twentieth centuries this volume aims to open up the subject with chapters on Calvin s monumentalization in statues and museums his appearance in novels children s books and travel writing his iconic function for Hungarian nationalists and Presbyterian missionaries to China his reputation among Mormons and freethinkers and his rivalry with Michael Servetus in French Protestant memory The result is a fresh contribution to the field of religious memory studies and an invitation to further comparative research Contributors include R Bryan Bademan Patrick Cabanel R Scott Clark Thomas J Davis Stephen S Francis Joe B Fulton Botond Ga l Stefan Laube Johan de Niet Herman Paul James Rigney Mich le Sacquin Jonathan Seitz Robert Vosloo Bart Wallet and Valentine Zuber Reshaping Protestantism in a Global Context Volker Küster,2009 The regional contributions from Africa and Asia show how the old European made denominational differences fade in the light of African Instituted Churches or Pentecostalism Reshaping Protestantism is not a backward oriented project of reconstructing the original but makes use of the inner protestant pluralism to cope with globalization and changing religious landscapes Who reads through the different articles can only come to the conclusion Yes there is a contribution to be expected from mainline Protestantism in all its variety Hermeneutics Anthony C. Thiselton,2009-10-09 Anthony Thiselton here brings together his encyclopedic knowledge of hermeneutics and his nearly four decades of teaching on the subject to provide a splendid interdisciplinary textbook After a thorough historical overview of hermeneutics Thiselton moves into modern times with extensive analysis of scholarship from the mid twentieth century including liberation and feminist theologies reader response and reception theory and postmodernism No other text on hermeneutics covers the range of writers and subjects discussed in Thiselton s Hermeneutics The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Latino/a Theology Orlando O. Espin,2015-09-08 Latino a Theology The one volume Companion to Latino a Theology presents a systematic survey of the past present and future of Latino a theology introducing readers to this significant US theological movement Contributors to the Companion include many established scholars of the highest caliber together with some new and exciting voices within the various theological disciplines A mixture of Catholic Protestant and Evangelical scholars they discuss the publications and contributions of theologians who reflect from and participate in the faith and realities of US Latino a communities Providing unparalleled breadth and depth in the discussion of the key issues each chapter begins with a summary of the theological publications and thought within Latino a theology and then proceeds to develop a constructive contribution on the topic This invaluable and unique Companion edited by one of the foremost Latino theologians currently working and writing in the field is fully ecumenical comprehensive and wholly representative of the wide range of ecclesial and theological traditions It will become both an important resource for scholars and an unparalleled introduction to the entire discipline The Ground Has Shifted Walter Earl Fluker,2016-11-08 An exuberant thought provoking assessment of the dilemmas facing black churches examining their historic role in today s cultural landscape Publishers Weekly starred review In The Ground Has Shifted Walter Earl Fluker discusses the historical and current role of the Black church and argues that the older race based language and metaphors of religious discourse have outlived their utility He offers instead a larger global vision for the Black church that focuses on young Black men and other disenfranchised groups who have been left behind in a world of globalized capital Lyrically written with an emphasis on the dynamic and fluid movement of life itself Fluker argues that the church must find new ways to use race as an emancipatory instrument if it is to remain central in Black life He points the way for a new generation of church leaders scholars and activists to reclaim the Black church s historical identity and to turn to the task of infusing character civility and a sense of community among its congregants Honorable Mention Theology and Religious Studies PROSE Award African Witchcraft and Otherness Elias Kifon Bongmba,2001-05-16 A bold work of African philosophy and theology that brings together witchcraft and the philosophy of Levinas Richard Kearney's Anatheistic Wager Pierre Drouot,2018-04-23 Philosopher Blaise Pascal famously insisted that it was better to wager belief in God than to risk eternal damnation More recently Richard Kearney has offered a wager of his own the anatheistic wager or return to God after the death of God In this volume an international group of contributors consider what Kearney s spiritual wager means They question what is at stake with such a wager and what anatheism demands of the self and of others The essays explore the dynamics of religious anatheistic performativity its demarcations and limits and its motives A recent interview with Kearney focuses on crucial questions about philosophy theology and religious commitment As a whole this volume interprets and challenges Kearney s philosophy of religion and its radical impact on contemporary views of God Jesus in Global Contexts Priscilla Pope-Levison,John R. Levison,1992-01-01 Liberator ancestor cosmic Christ and Black Messiah These are just some of the ways that Jesus is viewed in the world This rare book provides a global tour of the Christologies emerging in Latin America Asia and Africa and those of North American feminist and African American theologies Bibliography Indexes The Stolen Bible Gerald O. West,2016-08-09 The Stolen Bible tells the story of how Southern Africans have interacted with the Bible from its arrival in Dutch imperial ships in the mid 1600s through to contemporary post apartheid South Africa The Stolen Bible emphasises African agency and distinguishes between African receptions of the Bible and African receptions of missionary colonial Christianity Through a series of detailed historical geographical and hermeneutical case studies the book analyses Southern African receptions of the Bible including the earliest African encounters with the Bible the translation of the Bible into an African language the appropriation of the Bible by African Independent Churches the use of the Bible in the Black liberation struggle and the ways in which the Bible is embodied in the lives of ordinary Africans
