Kleppinger, Laura Reeck, 2018-08-08 Post Migratory Cultures in Postcolonial France offers a critical assessment of the ways in which French writers filmmakers musicians and other artists descended from immigrants from former colonial territories bring their specificity to bear on the bounds and applicability of French republicanism Frenchness and national identity and contemporary cultural production in France Hip-Hop in Europe Sina A. Nitzsche, Walter Grünzweig, 2013 This is the first collection of essays to take a pan European perspective in the study of hip hop How has it traveled to Europe How has it developed in the various cultural contexts How does it reference the American cultures of origin The book's 21 authors and artists provide a comprehensive overview of hip hop cultures in Europe from the fringes to the centers They address hip hop in a variety of contexts such as class ethnicity gender history pedagogy performance and post communism Series Transnational and Transatlantic American Studies Vol 13 The Handbook of Language and Globalization Nikolas Coupland, 2011-07-05 The Handbook of Language and Globalization brings together important new studies of language and discourse in the global era consolidating a vibrant new field of sociolinguistic research The first volume to assemble leading scholarship in this rapidly developing field Features new contributions from 36 internationally known scholars bringing together key research in the field and establishing a benchmark for future research Comprehensive coverage is divided into four sections global multilingualism world languages and language systems global discourse in key domains and genres language values and markets under globalization and language distance and identities Covers an impressive breadth of topics including tourism language teaching social networking terrorism and religion among many others Winner of the British Association for Applied Linguistics book prize 2011 Five Percenter Rap Felicia M. Miyakawa, 2005 Hip hop evangelism a compelling look at a rap subgroup that explores its musical social and political contexts The Facts on File Companion to World Poetry R. Victoria Arana, 2008 The Facts On File Companion to World Poetry 1900 to the Present is a comprehensive introduction to 20th and 21st century world poets and their most famous most distinctive and most influential poems The England No One Cares About George Musgrave, 2024-07-23 An exploration of the much derided English suburbs through rap music There are many different Englands From the much romanticized rolling countryside to the cosmopolitanism of the inner cities embraced by some as progressive multicultural enlightenment and derided by others as the playground of a self righteous metropolitan elite or the disparagingly named left behind communities which post Brexit have so interested political parties and pundits demographers and statisticians But there is also an England no one cares about The England of semi detached houses and clean driveways for multiple cars devotedly washed on Sundays of twitching curtains and Laura Ashley sofas of cul de sacs to nowhere and exaggerated accents of late night drives to petrol stations on A roads fake IDs tested in Harvesters and faded tracksuits and over gelled hair in Toby Carverys of questionable hash from a mate of a mate and two litre bottles of White Lightning from Budgens consumed in a kids playground Much derided Unglamorous ordinary cultural vacuity and small c conservatism A hodgepodge An apparently middling middle of the road middle England of middle class middle mindedness Part poetry anthology part academic study into placemaking and part autoethnography The England No One Cares About innovatively brings together academic discussions of the ethnographic potential of lyrics scholastic representations of suburbia and thematic analysis to explore how rap music can illuminate the experiences of young men growing up in suburbia This takes place by exploring the author s own annotated lyrics from his career as a musician known as Context where he was referred to by the BBC as Middle England s Poet Laureate Global Sufism Francesco Piraino, Mark J. Sedgwick, 2019 An indispensable reader on the many manifestations of Sufi thought practice and belief Franco-Maghrebi Artists of the 2000s Ramona Mielusel, 2018-11-26 In Franco Maghrebi Artists of the 2000s Transnational Narratives and Identities Ramona Mielusel offers an account of the way how young artists writers filmmakers actors singers photographers contemporary migrant artists of Maghrebi origin residing in France during the last twenty years 2000-2016 contest French national identity in their work Mielusel s interest lies in analyzing the impact that these minor artists and their chosen genres have on mainstream cultural productions She argues that constant displacement and changes in political social and cultural contexts have significantly transformed the dynamics that govern the relationship between the center Metropolitan France and the periphery its Others Most importantly she seeks to position their work in the field of transnationalism which has dominated postcolonial studies and cultural studies in the past decade Speech Communities Marcyliena H. Morgan, 2014-02-20 What makes a speech community How do they evolve Speech communities are central to our understanding of how language and interactions occur in society In this book readers will find an overview of the main concepts and critical arguments surrounding how language and communication styles distinguish and identify groups Urban Outcasts Loïc Wacquant, 2013-04-26 Breaking with the exoticizing cast of public discourse and conventional research Urban Outcasts takes the reader inside the black ghetto of Chicago and the deindustrializing banlieue of Paris to discover that urban marginality is not everywhere the same Drawing on a wealth of original field survey and historical data Loïc Wacquant shows that the involution of America s urban core after the 1960s is due not to the emergence of an underclass but to the joint withdrawal of market and state fostered by public policies of racial separation and urban abandonment In European cities by contrast the spread of districts of exclusion does not herald the formation of ghettos It stems from the decomposition of working class territories under the press of mass unemployment the casualization of work and the ethnic mixing of populations hitherto segregated spawning urban formations akin to anti ghettos Comparing the US Black Belt with the French Red Belt demonstrates that state structures and policies play a decisive role in the articulation of class race and place on both sides of the Atlantic It also reveals the crystallization of a new regime of marginality fuelled by the fragmentation of wage labour the retrenchment of the social state and the concentration of dispossessed categories in stigmatized areas bereft of a collective idiom of identity and claims making These defamed districts are not just the residual sinkholes of a bygone economic era but also the incubators of the precarious proletariat emerging under neoliberal capitalism Urban Outcasts sheds new light on the explosive mix of mounting misery stupendous affluence and festering street violence resurging in the big cities of the First

World By specifying the different causal paths and experiential forms assumed by relegation in the American and the French metropolis this book offers indispensable tools for rethinking urban marginality and for reinvigorating the public debate over social inequality and citizenship at century's dawn Global Englishes and Transcultural Flows Alastair

Pennycook, 2006-12-07 The English language is spreading across the world and so too is hip hop culture both are being altered developed reinterpreted reclaimed This timely book explores the relationship between global Englishes the spread and use of diverse forms of English within processes of globalization and transcultural flows the movements changes and reuses of cultural forms in disparate contexts This wide ranging study focuses on the ways English is embedded in other linguistic contexts including those of East Asia Australia West Africa and the Pacific Islands Drawing on transgressive and performative theory Pennycook looks at how global Englishes transcultural flows and pedagogy are interconnected in ways that oblige us to rethink language and culture within the contemporary world Global Englishes and Transcultural Flows is a valuable resource to applied linguists sociolinguists and students on cultural studies English language studies TEFL and TESOL courses Envisioning Social Justice in Contemporary German Culture Jill E. Twark, Axel Hildebrandt, 2015 Explores how contemporary German language literary dramatic filmic musical and street artists are grappling in their works with social justice issues that affect Germany and the wider world Barbarians at the Gate Patricia Donaher, 2020-05-15 The study of language attitudes is the investigation of beliefs expressed about the nature of language and its diverse usages how these attitudes came to exist and persist and how these attitudes shape social action and policy Language attitude studies have illuminated our understanding of racial issues social and economic stratification cultural stereotypes educational issues folk linguistics and more recently popular culture This volume is an examination of four intersections in language attitudes research Authority Affiliation Authenticity and Accommodation In each section the contributors introduce new dimensions to the study of language attitudes while providing examples of the ways in which the study of language attitudes can continue to inform and shape our understanding of language diversity Protest Music in France Barbara Lebrun, 2016-04-08

Barbara Lebrun traces the evolution of protest music in France since 1981 exploring the contradictions that emerge when artists who take their musical production and political commitment seriously cross over to the mainstream becoming profitable and consensual Contestation is understood as a discourse shaped by the assumptions and practices of artists producers the media and audiences for whom it makes sense to reject politically reactionary ideas and the dominant taste for commercial pop Placing music in its economic historical and ideological context however reveals the fragility and instability of these oppositions The book firstly concentrates on music production in France the relationships between independent labels major companies and the state's cultural policies This section provides the material background for understanding the development of rock alternatif France's self-styled subversive genre of the 1980s and explains the specificity of a protest music culture in late twentieth century France in relation to the genre's tradition in the West The second part looks at representations of a protest identity in relation to discourses of national identity focusing on two 1990s sub genres The first chanson n o r aliste contests modernity through the use of acoustic instruments but its nostalgic protest raises questions about the artists real engagement with the present The second rock m tis borrows from North African and Latino rhythms and challenges the neutral Frenchness of the Republic while advocating multiculturalism in problematic ways A discussion of Manu Chao s career a French artist who has achieved success abroad also allows an exploration of the relationship between transnationalism and anti globalization politics Finally the book examines the audiences of French protest music and considers festivals as places of non mainstream identity negotiation Based on first hand interviews this section highlights the vocabulary of emotions that audiences use to make sense of an alternative performance unveiling the contradictions that underpin their self definition as participants in a protest culture The book contributes to debates on the cultural production of resistance and the representation of post colonial identities uncovering the social constructedness of the discourse of protest in France It pays attention to its nation specific character while offering a wider reflection on the fluidity of subversive identities with potential applications across a range of Western music practices From Toussaint to Tupac

Michael Oliver West, William G. Martin, Fanon Che Wilkins, 2009 Transcending geographic and cultural lines From Toussaint to Tupac is an ambitious collection of essays exploring black internationalism and its implications for a black consciousness At its core black internationalism is a struggle against oppre

Linguistic Landscape Elana Shohamy, Durk Gorter, 2008-05-15 In this comprehensive and pioneering volume language scholars from around the world examine the linguistic landscape from multiple perspectives theoretical methodological and critical Written by widely recognized experts the articles in Linguistic Landscape analyze linguistic landscapes in a range of international contexts Dozens of photographs illustrate the use of language in the environment the words and images displayed and exposed in public spaces Suitable for graduate or advanced undergraduate students in applied linguistics sociolinguistics and language policy studies Linguistic Landscape is a vital contribution to a burgeoning field

Postcolonial France Paul Silverstein, 2018-05-20 France is a bellwether for the postcolonial anxieties and populist politics emerging across the world today This book explores the dynamics and dilemmas of the present moment of crisis and hope in France through an exploration of recent moral panics Taking stock of the tensions as they have emerged over the last quarter of a century Paul Silverstein looks at urban racial violence female Islamic dress and male public prayer anti system gangster rap and sporting performances in and around which debates over France s multicultural future have arisen It traces these conflicts to the unresolved tensions of an imperial project the present day effects of which are still felt by many Despite the barriers which include neo nationalist racism and Islamophobia French citizens of various backgrounds have found ways to build flourishing lives Silverstein shows how they have responded to urban marginalisation police violence and institutional discrimination in remarkably creative ways
