Black Americans and the Evangelization of Africa, 1877-1900 Walter L. Williams, 1982 Black Americans and the Evangelization of Africa, 1877-1900 Walter L. Williams, 1982-01-01 African Americans and Africa Nemata Amelia Blyden, 2019-05-28 An introduction to the complex relationship between African Americans and the African continent What is an African American and how does this identity relate to the African continent Rising immigration levels globalization and the United States first African American president have all sparked new dialogue around the question This book provides an introduction to the relationship between African Americans and Africa from the era of slavery to the present mapping several overlapping diasporas The diversity of African American identities through relationships with region ethnicity slavery and immigration are all examined to investigate questions fundamental to the study of African American history and culture

The Black Church in the African American Experience C. Eric Lincoln, Lawrence H. Mamiya, 1990-11-07 A nongovernmental survey of urban and rural churches of black communities based on a ten year study Afro-American Life, Profiles of African-American Missionaries Robert J. Stevens, Brian Johnson, 2012-06-26 Profiles History and Culture, 1985 of African American Missionaries features the lives and ministries of the great African Americans who have gone to the world with the message of Christ It is a collection of stories sharing the ministries of several African American missionary pioneers from the 1700s to the present dealing with all the social and ministry issues that they had to face here and abroad Readers will be inspired by the dedication and commitment of these great African Americans as they lived out God's great commission to go into all the world and make disciples of all people It will inspire and challenge all readers to greater personal involvement in God s worldwide mission Africans on African-Americans Yekutiel Gershoni, 2016-07-27 Between the end of the nineteenth century and the outbreak of World War 2 Africans displaced by colonial rule created an African American myth a myth which aggrandized the life and attainments of African Americans despite full knowledge of the discrimination to which they were subjected The myth provided Africans in all parts of the continent with much needed succour and underpinned various religious educational political and social models based on the experience of African Americans whereby Africans sought to better their own lives Black Liberation George M. Fredrickson, 1995 This text offers an account of how blacks in the United States and South Africa came to grips with the challenge of white supremacy New Directions in American Religious History Harry S. Stout, D. G. Hart, 1998-01-01 The eighteen essays collected in this book had their origin in a conference of the same title held at the Wingspread Conference Center in October of 1993 Some of the most distinguished scholars in the field were invited to reflect on their specialities in American religious history in ways that summarized where the field is and where it ought to move in the decades to come Organized according to four general ways of looking at religious history places and regions universal themes transformative events and marginal groups and ethno cultural outsiders the essays address a wide range of topics including Puritanism religion and the Civil War Protestantism and economic behavior gender and sexuality in American Protestantism and the contemporary de Christianization of American culture Featuring contributions from David D Hall Donald G Matthews Allen C Guelzo Gordon S Wood Daniel Walker Howe Robert Wuthnow Jon Butler David A Hollinger and others this thought provoking and up to date collection will interest anyone involved in the study of American religion and history Complicating Categories: Gender, Class, Race and Ethnicity Eileen Boris, Angelique Janssens, 1999 This volume focuses on complicating central concepts in the understanding of economic and social history class gender race and ethnicity Only recently have historians begun to ask how gender race and ethnicity as categories of analysis change narratives of class formation and working class experience While all three concepts refer to systems of inequality it remains unclear how these systems of difference relate to each other Despite a growing body of empirical literature authors more often connect dyads rather than consider historical phenomenan from the tryad of class race and gender This volume highlights attempts to write a richer history that complicates categories suggesting how class gender race and or ethnicity combine across a wide range of economic and social landscapes A Long Reconstruction Paul William Harris, 2022 After slavery was abolished how far would white America go toward including African Americans as full participants in the country's institutions The Methodist Episcopal Church the northern branch of the denomination created in an 1844 schism faced a unique challenge when they went south in the wake of the Civil War A Long Reconstruction details the denomination s journey with unification and justice Decades after political Reconstruction ended in 1877 the Church's Black members and their white allies kept up a struggle against racial caste but they encountered numerous disappointments as the Church like the country as a whole sought to restore unity among whites by downplaying issues of race Black Baptists and African Missions Sandy Dwayne Martin, 1989 Traces the origins and developments of black Baptist interest in the Southern states and their efforts to evangelize West Africa in particular and also considers this activity as an example of the use of religious themes by black Americans in order to give their disadvantaged conditions meanings and to suggest avenues and principles for their own liberation Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR Critical Readings in the History of Christian Mission Martha Frederiks, Dorottya Nagy, 2021-06-22 booknews com This selection of texts introduces students and researchers to the multi and interdisciplinary field of mission history It apprises them with current discussions insights and theories The four parts of this book acquaint the readers with methodological considerations and recurring themes in the academic study of the history of mission Part one revolves around methods part two documents approaches while parts three and four consist of thematic clusters such as mission and language medical mission mission and education women and mission mission and politics and mission and art The text selection represents a wide variety of disciplines authors and backgrounds The texts were chosen because they address the complexities involved in studying the history of Christian mission Critical Readings in the History of Christian Mission is suitable for course work and other educational purposes This Far By Faith Judith Weisenfeld, Richard

Newman, 2014-04-23 This Far By Faith brings together a collection of essays on the religious identities and experiences of African American women Spanning from the period of slavery to the present the essays profile American figures such as Sojourner Truth Harriet Tubman and Willie Mae Ford Smith exploring the role that religious institutions and impulses played in their lives North American Foreign Missions, 1810-1914 Wilbert R. Shenk, 2004 The year 1810 marks the start of the North American foreign missions movement a movement begun with typical American enthusiasm and vigor but in need of practical grounding This volume explores important facets of the development of North American foreign missions paying particular attention to the role agencies like the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions ABCFM played in shaping the theology theory and policy of evangelistic activities overseas Written by leading experts on missions and religious history this volume is distinguished by its focus on key events taking place at the home base rather than on happenings in the foreign mission field In doing so these insightful studies shed light on important yet neglected topics including the impact of debates about slavery on foreign missions the emergence of distinctive mission strategies for women the role of the social gospel as a missionary ideology and the contribution of foreign missions to the creation of a global evangelical network Contributors Alvyn AustinRuth Compton Brouwer Wendy J Diechmann Edwards Janet F Fishburn Paul Harris David W Kling Charles A Maxfield III Susan Wilds McArver John F Piper Jr Dana L Robert Richard Lee Rogers Wilbert R Shenk Carol Ann Vaughn bThis excellent volume will command widespread attention not only for its display of scholarly expertise but for the fresh and revealing light it throws on the principal landmarks and major themes in the history of missionary expansion overseas b Andrew Porter Kingbs College London Staging Race Karen Sotiropoulos, 2009-07-01 Drawing on black newspapers and commentary of the period Sotiropoulos shows how black performers and composers participated in politically charged debate about the role of the expressive arts in the struggle for equality They used America s new businesses of entertainment as vehicles for their creativity and as spheres for political engagement This Worldwide Struggle Sarah Azaransky, 2017 This work argues that the U S Civil Rights movement was part of a global wave of anti colonial and independence movements It reveals the international roots of the U S Civil Rights movement in the 1930s through the 1950s tracing the links between Gandhi and King Provided by the publisher Protestants Abroad David A. Hollinger, 2019-06-11 Between the 1890s and the Vietnam era many thousands of American Protestant missionaries were sent to live throughout the non European world They expected to change the people they encountered but those foreign people ended up transforming the missionaries Their experience abroad made many of these missionaries and their children critical of racism imperialism and religious orthodoxy When they returned home they brought new liberal values back to their own society Protestants Abroad reveals the untold story of how these missionary connected individuals left an enduring mark on American public life as writers diplomats academics church officials publishers foundation executives and social activists United States and Africa Relations, 1400s to the Present Toyin Falola, Raphael Chijioke Njoku, 2020-09-01 A comprehensive history of the relationship between Africa and the United States Toyin Falola and Raphael Njoku reexamine the history of the relationship between Africa and the United States from the dawn of the trans Atlantic slave trade to the present Their broad interdisciplinary book follows the relationship s evolution tracking African American emancipation the rise of African diasporas in the Americas the Back to Africa movement the founding of Sierra Leone and Liberia the presence of American missionaries in Africa the development of blues and jazz music the presidency of Barack Obama and more

The Cost of Unity Lawrence A. Q. Burnley, 2008 This work focuses on African Americans and the Disciples of Christ Like other Protestant organizations in the United States the Christian Church was involved in the establishment of schools for African Americans in the South in the years following the end of the Civil War The most widely read books offering an interpretation of the history of this church tend to relegate the role of black people to passive recipients of white benevolence and largesse in this process of education reform This book examines the agency of African Americans in the founding of educational institutions for blacks associated with the Christian Church The philosophical discourse within the Christian Church concerning the purpose type and control of these schools is examined as well as the prevailing racial assumptions and attitudes that informed each of these areas The author argues that African Americans within the Christian Church played an active role both in cooperating with Disciples mission agencies and acting independent of these agencies in the conceptualization and founding of schools for their communities In addition contrary to Disciples reformers claim of being motivated by their desire to elevate the Negro race the nearly exclusive application of the industrial model of education in schools established by the Disciples of Christ mission agencies for African Americans reflects an intentional effort by whites within this movement to encumber African American efforts to achieve socioeconomic and political advancement autonomy and self determination Finally the conservative approach to schooling for African Americans was largely the result of northern Disciples acquiescence to the demands of Southern members of the church for the sake of maintaining unity within the national church
