Black Apostles Afro American Clergy Confront The Twentieth Century:

Ebony, 1978-10 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Afro-American Life, History and Culture, 1985 Black Religious Intellectuals Clarence Taylor, 2013-04-15 Professor Clarence Taylor sheds some much needed light on the rich intellectual and political tradition that lies in the black religious community From the Pentecostalism of Bishop Smallwood Williams and the flamboyant leadership of the Reverend Al Sharpton to the radical Presbyterianism of Milton Arthur Galamison and the controversial and mass mobilization by Minister Louis Farrakhan black religious leaders have figured prominently in the struggle for social equality in America The Black Church in the African American Experience C. Eric Lincoln, Lawrence H. Mamiya, 1990-11-07 A nongovernmental survey of urban and rural churches of black communities based on a ten year study African-American Religious Leaders Nathan Aaseng, 2014-05-14 Religion and spirituality have been key elements of African American life since the earliest days of the slave trade The Dictionary of Pan-African Pentecostalism, Volume One Estrela Y. Alexander, 2018-06-22 This volume is the first in a series of volumes surveying the important names movements and institutions that have been significant in forging black renewal movements in various contexts worldwide In this volume the entries cover the more than 150 identifiable Holiness Pentecostal Charismatic Neo Pentecostal and quasi Pentecostal bodies within the United States and Canada In addition the dictionary contains entries on the important people places events and theological and secular issues that shaped these groups over their histories some of which go back more than a century This and subsequent volumes will be invaluable tools for students and scholars of the history of Pentecostalism The Spiritual Churches of New Orleans Claude F. Jacobs, Andrew J. Kaslow, 2001 The New Orleans Spiritual churches constitute a distinctive African American belief system Influenced by Catholicism Pentecostalism Spiritualism and Voodoo the group is a New World syncretic faith similar to Espiritismo Santer a and Umbanda The Spiritual Churches of New Orleans combines a historical account of the emergence of this religion with careful ethnographic description of current congregations At the same time text and photographs eloquently convey the ecstasy at the heart of the Spiritual experience The Spiritual churches began in the 1920s as a women s movement Men later assumed leadership in an effort to legitimate the group within the New Orleans religious community and form associations with Spiritual churches elsewhere in the United States Unlike earlier researchers who treated practices in the churches as expressions of black folk traditions the authors see Spiritual ritual not as based on magic but as the way the sacred is acted out within an African American aesthetic During worship members may be filled by the Holy Spirit as in Pentecostal churches or entertain spirits or spirit guides as in Spiritualism or Voodoo Prophecy and healing are presented as the markers of this faith and the Native American figure Black Hawk as a major symbol of empowerment Based on extensive interviews with church members years of participant observation and careful research in documentary sources this book achieves rigorous conceptual clarity in a

Hopkins,Edward P.

Antonio,2012-07-26 This volume discusses normative theological categories from a black perspective and argues that there is no major Christian doctrine on which black theology has not commented Part One explores introductory questions such as what have been the historical and social factors fostering a black theology and what are some of the internal factors key to its growth Part Two examines major doctrines which have been important for black theology in terms of clarifying key intellectual foci common to the study of religion The final part discusses black theology as a world wide development constituted by interdisciplinary approaches The volume has an important role in bringing Christian thought into confrontation with one of the central challenges of modernity namely the problem of race and racism This Companion puts theological themes in conversation with issues of ethnicity gender social analysis politics and class and is ideal for undergraduate and graduate students

Saints in Exile Cheryl J. Sanders,1999-03-25 Saints in Exile studies from an insider s perspective the worship practices and social ethics of the African American family of Holiness Pentecostal and Apostolic churches known collectively as the Sanctified Church Cheryl Sanders identifies the theme of exile both as an idea and an experience as the key to understanding the dialectical nature of African American religious and intellectual life that W E B Du Bois called double conscious Sanders s saints in exile are a people who see themselves as in the world but not of it their marginalized status is both self imposed and involuntary a consequence of racism sexism and other forms of elitism When joined with the biblical tropes of homecoming and reconciliation the concept of exile serves as a vital vantage point from which to identify critique and remedy the continued alienation of blacks women and the poor in the United States Sanders s interpretive approach clarifies many paradoxical features of black existence especially the peculiar interplay of the sacred and the secular in African American song speech and dance She particularly scrutinizes gospel music a product of the Sanctified worship tradition that has had a significant influence on popular culture Saints in Exile goes further than any previous study in illuminating the African American experience it will be welcomed by scholars and students of American religion African American studies and American History For the Freedom of Her Race Lisa G. Materson,2009-03-15

Grounded in the rich history of Chicago politics For the Freedom of Her Race tells a wide ranging story about black women s involvement in southern midwestern and national politics Examining the oppressive decades between the end of Reconstruction in 1877 and the election of Franklin Delano Roosevelt in 1932 a period that is often described as the nadir of black life in America Lisa Materson shows that as African American women migrated beyond the reach of southern white supremacists they became active voters canvassers suffragists campaigners and lobbyists mobilizing to gain a voice in national party politics and elect representatives who would push for the enforcement of the Reconstruction Amendments in the South
