Black Cherries:

Black Cherries Grace Stone Coates, 2003-01-01 In this series of linked stories the child narrator Veve cannot fathom all the mysteries of her family's life together but by watching and listening she pieces together a painful past Played out against the backdrop of rural hardship and deprivation on the family's Kansas farm the secret in her father's previous life eventually explains his harsh treatment of the three older children and her mother's bitterness over his countless misunderstandings and slights When originally published in 1931 a reviewer of Black Cherries commented that there is a sharpness about all impressions in the book a keenness of sensuous and spiritual apprehension that leaves brilliant after images with the reader Another described the series of sketches as exquisite in texture and so faithful to the childish mind that one derives a warm impression of the imagined young narrator Grace Stone Coates 1881-1976 spent most of her life in the tiny ranching community of Martinsdale in southwestern Montana During a seven year period twenty of Coates's short stories were cited in the annual Best American Short Stories as Distinctive or Honor Roll stories and John Updike chose Coates's Wild Plums for inclusion in Best American Short Stories of the Century Coates also published two collections of poetry Cyclopedia of Hardy Fruits U. Hedrick, 2008-12 U P Hedrick's 1922 volume provides detailed descriptions of hardy fruits grown in North America WineSpeak Bernard Klem, 2009-07-01 If you read wine reviews you're already either amused or confused by the soaring language wine writers often use to describe what they're smelling and tasting But do you always know what they mean Have you ever sipped a complex white and sensed what's so colorfully described as a peacock's tail Have you ever savored a full bodied red only to detect the ripe acrid smell of a horse stall If not you're in for a treat because these terms and thousands more are all here to amuse dismay enlighten inspire puzzle and utterly shock you Welcome to the rich linguistic universe of wine speak a world where words and wine intersect in an uncontrolled riot of language guaranteed to keep you entertained for hours The author a lifelong lover of both wine and words has compiled and organized this unique thesaurus of 36 975 wine tasting descriptors into 20 special collections extracted from 27 categories so you can locate exactly the right term or phrase to express yourself clearly or to understand others May your path across the galaxy of wine be paved only with labels from the very best bottles on earth Or much more cautiously with wines that could introduce you to angel pee citronella eastern European fruit soup Godzilla iodine ladies underwear mustard gas old running shoes rawhide hot tar roads bubblegum sweaty saddles crushed ants kitchen drains or even turpentine Handbook of Edible Weeds James A.
