independent minded people should certainly rise again Southern Living No Taste Like Home Editors of Southern Living Magazine,2013-10-08 There s no region of the country more cherished and unique when it comes to food than the South Southerners celebrate our food traditions They are totems of our collective identity Our grits our fried chicken our sweet tea our butterbeans our biscuits These are powerful symbols of not just of Southern tastes but also of Southern values of the kind of simple honest to goodness home cooking prepared with generosity of spirit and served up with generosity of ladle These recipes are what distinguish and bind Southern culture No Taste Like Home embraces the cultural identity of towns large and small all throughout the South and provides readers with recipes stories and highlights of all the unique regional flavors from the Heartland of Dixie to Cajun Country from The Coastal South to Bluegrass Bourbon and BBQ Country and all points in between Organized geographically the cookbook focuses on each of 6 regions in the South Every chapter will include highlights of specific towns and contain essays describing literally the flavor of the place The highlighted towns will offer multiple recipes as well as musings from notable locals and locally famous chefs Just some of the recurring editorial features include a travelogue introduction discussing regional specialties and folklore Standout recipes from local chefs and almost famous home cooks Musings from locals about their town Hometown Flavor features on Southern iconic ingredients that are commonly used in the regional cuisine What We re Craving features highlighting a local restaurant or town specific dish that locals crave when they re not at home Local Know how features of insider secrets from the locals from how to pick the freshest produce to the best way to prepare their own recipes The Countryside Ideal Michael Bunce,2005-10-26 God made the country man made the town William Cowper s words written two centuries ago underline an idealisation of rural life and landscape which persists to this day What are the main historical processes and ideas underlying the continuing attachment to the countryside How have these shaped popular values and lifestyles influenced artistic expression defined attitudes to nature country life and 8andscape and affected the development of both rural and urban landscapes What are the consequences for society and the environment These are the central questions addressed in this book The Countryside Ideal draws together diverse images of landscape to explore this preoccupation with place culture and representation in the West

Inventing Authenticity Carrie Helms Tippen,2018-08-12 In Inventing Authenticity Carrie Helms Tippen examines the rhetorical power of storytelling in cookbooks to fortify notions of southernness Tippen brings to the table her ongoing hunt for recipe cards and evaluates a wealth of cookbooks with titles like Y all Come Over and Bless Your Heart and famous cookbooks such as Sean Brock s Heritage and Edward Lee s Smoke and Pickles She examines her own southern history grounding it all in a thorough understanding of the relevant literature The result is a deft and entertaining dive into the territory of southern cuisine black eyed peas and cornbread fried chicken and fried okra pound cake and peach cobbler and a look at and beyond southern food tropes that reveals much about tradition identity and the yearning for authenticity Tippen discusses the act of cooking as a way to perform and therefore reinforce the identity associated with a recipe and the complexities inherent in attempts to portray the foodways of a region marked by a sometimes distasteful history Inventing Authenticity meets this challenge head on delving into problems of cultural appropriation and representations of race thorny questions about authorship and more The commonplace but deceptively complex southern cookbook can sustain our sense of where we come from and who we are or who we think we are The Cookbook Library Anne Willan, Mark Cherniavsky, 2012-03-03 This gorgeously illustrated volume began as notes on the collection of cookbooks and culinary images gathered by renowned cookbook author Anne Willan and her husband Mark Cherniavsky From the spiced sauces of medieval times to the massive roasts and rago ts of Louis XIV s court to elegant eighteenth century chilled desserts The Cookbook Library draws from renowned cookbook author Anne Willan s and her husband Mark Cherniavsky s antiquarian cookbook library to guide readers through four centuries of European and early American cuisine As the authors taste their way through the centuries describing how each cookbook reflects its time Willan illuminates culinary crosscurrents among the cuisines of England France Italy Germany and Spain A deeply personal labor of love The Cookbook Library traces the history of the recipe and includes some of their favorites Catalog of Copyright Entries.
