Bleu Sang Art:

The Nikopol Trilogy Enki Bilal, 2016-04-12 The year is 2025 and Herakles Nikopol has returned to Earth following a 30 year exile in cryostasis The Paris he lands in however is not the one he left In his absence the Gods of Egypt have returned to reassert their dominance over the human race One God in particular the renegade Horus has great plans he can only carry out with the help unwilling though it may be of Nikopol himself Together they embark on a wild adventure that involves politics intrigue love and a brutal blood soaked hockey game This brand new collected edition of The Nikopol Trilogy presents in full the brilliance humor and stunning artwork of Enki Bilal s iconic masterpiece Enki Bilal was born in the former Yugoslavia in 1951 His Belgrade childhood during the reign of Tito was instrumental in setting the tone and geopolitical themes he developed during his collaborations with Pierre Christin in particular and in his solo work The Art of the

Text Susan R Harrow, 2013-09-15 The Art of the Text contributes to the fast developing dialogue between textual studies and visual culture studies It focuses on the processes through which writers think and readers respond visually and in essays by researchers in literature screen and visual studies the volume explores the visibility of the literary and non literary text with a sustained focus on French material of the later nineteenth and twentieth centuries Visuality is appraised here not as a state but as a set of processes of adaptation resistance negotiation and transformation By reading visually the contributors here reactivate the visual textual relations of canonical texts from Romanticism to Naturalism Surrealism to high Modernism from film to fan literature television to picture language

This volume is of particular relevance to literary and filmic translators to translation theorists and to anyone with an interest in translation as an art Throughout the majority of essays in the volume translation is projected as a complex creative task and not as an exercise in simply re encoding the meaning of a source text The received superiority of the original is ultimately questioned here The customary binary divide between original and translation or copy and between author and translator is forcefully challenged as cinematic and literary translation is presented as an essentially creative process Whether highlighting specific author related problems or whether focusing on the broader issues of the ethics of translation of cultural transmissibility or of obsolescence the general thrust of these essays seeks to demonstrate the authorial credentials of the translator Despite the cogent counter arguments advanced by a minority of the contributors the dominant discourse here is one which replaces the stereotypical virtually anonymous translator with a high profile creative figure
