Blind Man Can See How Much I Love You Stories:

A Blind Man Can See How Much I Love You Amy Bloom, 2013-03-28 In these stories we meet more of Amy Bloom's irresistible characters: a woman recovering from cancer while her best friend and husband face their loneliness and a new friendship; a mother coming to know that her wonderful little girl is a boy; a man and his stepmother in a complicated dance of memory, anger, and forgiveness. These are stories on the frontiers of emotions: stories about the uncertain gestures of love, the betrayals of the flesh, and the surprises of the heart. Connectedness or the lack of it is the theme of nearly all the stories. They are small masterpieces. Sunday Times. American Women Writers Sarah Anne Johnson, 2004 Sena Jeter Naslund describes the origins of Ahab's Wife in a vision and a voice. Ann Patchett mourns the ways in which the reality of a novel may fail to live up to her conception of it. Andrea Barrett, a winner of the National Book Award and the recipient of a MacArthur Fellowship, nevertheless characterizes herself as a very clumsy writer in her early drafts. The seventeen women interviewed by Sarah Anne Johnson are some of the most popular and accomplished writers at work today: award winners, critically acclaimed, popular with book clubs. Steeped in a thorough knowledge of each writer's work, Johnson's questions range from technical issues of craft to the nurturing of fictional ideas to the daily practice of writing. The authors offer insights into their own works that will delight their fans and also provide practical advice that will be cherished by aspiring writers. From Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni's reflections on her experience of immigration to Lois Ann Yamanaka's insights on the question of a character's voice, these interviews combine the personal with the professional experience of the writing life. Zeolla,2016 Christians claim the Bible is the Word of God that it is absolutely reliable in all that it teaches But to put such confidence in the Bible requires that we have the correct books in the Bible But do we This subject is very important and complicated so complicated it took three volumes to fully cover it Volume One studied the books included in the Old Testament OT and considered other books that could have been included but were not Volume Two covered the books included in the New Testament NT This third and final volume will consider other writings which are not in the NT They are of three types The first type is the writings of the Apostolic Fathers These are Church leaders and writers of the late first to mid second centuries Most were direct disciples of the apostles and some of their writings were seriously considered for inclusion in the NT It will be explained why this was so and why these writings were eventually rejected The second and third types are apocryphal books This term originally meant hidden but now means extra canonical meaning the books are not considered to be inspired by God and thus are outside of the canon list of authoritative books of Scripture These books are divided into two types ones that are mostly orthodox in their theology and ones that are heretical or Gnostic Among these apocryphal books are some that have received much publicity of late The media has been abuzz in recent years about books like the Gospel of Thomas the Gospel of Judas and the Gospel of Jesus Wife It is said these books present a radical new viewpoint of Christianity and are more reliable than the NT books In addition the conception many people have of early Christian history often comes from apocryphal books and not from NT books For instance at Christmastime the manner in which nativity scenes are displayed comes more from apocryphal infancy gospels than from the NT Gospels Therefore many people today will find a discussion of these books to be of interest
