Argentine filmmaking from the mid 1990s to the present has enjoyed worldwide success New Argentine Cinema explores this cinema in order to discover the elements that have made for this success in relation to the country s profound political social and cultural crisis during the same period Jens Andermann shows how the most recent wave of films differs markedly from the Argentine cinema of the preceding decade following the end of the dictatorship in 1983 Studying films by Lisandro Alonso Albertina Carri Lucrecia Martel Raul Perrone Martin Rejtman and Pablo Trapero among others he identifies a shift in aesthetic sensibilities between these directors and those of the previous generation as well as a profound change in the way films are being made and their relation to the audiovisual field at large In combining close comparative analyses with a review of the changing models of production editing actorship and location Andermann uncovers the ways in which Argentine films have managed to construct a complex multilayered account of their own present as shot through or perforated by the still unresolved legacies of the past The R & B Indies Bob McGrath,2007 Schwann opus ,1998
