

courage

There is of course the courage of a single flower
Pushing its form thru concrete
If only to be trampled into dust

What is worth speaking
If seeking is death?
Does meaning become Meaningless?

Summoning up the voice
To do the will of the soul
To explore the far reaches of my wonder
I make the choice to speak

Is it so simple
That it's easy to overlook
That living is poetry
And poetry nothing less

Accidental Feminism Swetha S. Ballakrishnen, 2021-01-12 Exploring the unintentional production of seemingly feminist outcomes In India elite law firms offer a surprising oasis for women within a hostile predominantly male industry Less than 10 percent of the country's lawyers are female but women in the most prestigious firms are significantly represented both at entry and partnership Elite workspaces are notorious for being unfriendly to new actors so what allows for aberration in certain workspaces Drawing from observations and interviews with more than 130

elite professionals Accidental Feminism examines how a range of underlying mechanisms gendered socialization and essentialism family structures and dynamics and firm and regulatory histories afford certain professionals egalitarian outcomes that are not available to their local and global peers Juxtaposing findings on the legal profession with those on elite consulting firms Swethaa Ballakrishnen reveals that parity arises not from a commitment to create feminist organizations but from structural factors that incidentally come together to do gender differently Simultaneously their research offers notes of caution while conditional convergence may create equality in ways that more targeted endeavors fail to achieve accidental developments are hard to replicate and are in this case buttressed by embedded inequalities Ballakrishnen examines whether gender parity produced without institutional sanction should still be considered feminist In offering new ways to think about equality movements and outcomes Accidental Feminism forces readers to critically consider the work of intention in progress narratives

Between Hopes and Dreams Charles Lobaito, 2011-09-12 In The Distance between Hopes and Dreams author Charles Lobaito presents a collection of poetry that embodies and explores the human spirit. We all wish to be great and we all dream beyond the heights of our imagination. The verses contained here examine those wishes and dreams, their conception and their accomplishment. Each poem in this volume offers a journey, a literary awakening into the places we know and beyond. The collection combines three books of poetry into one volume. Perception of the Navigator focuses on seizing one's destiny. The Epiphany Maker explores the abstract and the discovery of fate. Notebooks from the Past reflects on life in its search for peace. From love to war, hope to promise, history to time, freedom to knowledge, the verses in this collection share honest, witty, and philosophical considerations of life at the dawn of the twenty-first century. The Distance between Hopes and Dreams seeks to bring out the poet and dreamer in all of us. If Dreams Were Keys, There'd Be No Locks. Door I: If dreams were keys, there'd be no locks. All prisons empty, true love run amok. Fat angels would smile with rifles and socks. To target the banana strawberry heart. Door II: Without any locks, lions would hunt like beasts to pounce, thus reinvent pun. Or breed like citizens for sport and court. Under the vanilla paper bag sun. Poems Egbert Willard Fowler, 1905 Amethyst Eyes
