Mary Ann or Ginger Barry Rothman, 2012-12-06 Mary Ann or Ginger Tonya or Lara Betty or Veronica For boys on their way to manhood or for men on their way back to boyhood such complex choices in women have for centuries caused men to scratch their heads and wonder who is better the bad girl the good girl or a mix of both In his entertaining memoir professed admirer of bad girls Barry Rothman recounts his romantic adventures over the past fifty years while exploring both the humorous and serious sides of relationships and sharing words of wisdom along the way Rothman was five when he had his first serious brush with a member of the opposite sex After he kissed a girls hand in the kindergarten cloakroom one day he caused a scandal of great proportions More importantly however he purposely propelled himself into the complex world of male female interactions From the stripper to the scary geisha and from the street urchin to a string of ballet dancers Rothman unveils all the secrets of his lengthy and fervent journey to find a soul mate Mary Ann or Ginger reveals an inside glimpse of one mans foray into the often complex world of dating as he alluringly reflects on his amorous choices

Videoland Daniel Herbert, 2014-01-24 Videoland offers a comprehensive view of the tangible phase of consumer video when Americans largely accessed movies as material commodities at video rental stores Video stores served as a vital locus of movie culture from the early 1980s until the early 2000s changing the way Americans socialized around movies and collectively made movies meaningful When films became tangible as magnetic tapes and plastic discs movie culture flowed out from the theater and the living room entered the public retail space and became conflated with shopping and salesmanship In this process video stores served as a crucial embodiment of movie culture s historical move toward increased flexibility adaptability and customization In addition to charting the historical rise and fall of the rental industry Herbert explores the architectural design of video stores the social dynamics of retail encounters the video distribution industry the proliferation of video recommendation guides and the often surprising persistence of the video store as an adaptable social space of consumer culture Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork cultural geography and archival research Videoland provides a wide ranging exploration of the pivotal role video stores played in the history of motion pictures and is a must read for students and scholars of media history computation fundamentally interdisciplinary it mobilizes carnegie mellon university's computational strengths critically towards design architecture and other creative disciplines computational design generative design primer - Jan 28 2023

web computational design computational design is not any one algorithm or off the shelf process you can utilize rather we describe it as an approach whereby a designer defines a series of instructions rules and relationships that precisely identify the steps necessary to achieve a proposed design and its resulting data or geometry crucially computational design arts design architecture unsw sydney - Apr 30 2023

web computational design uses digital technologies to enhance and optimise design processes through algorithms and cutting edge technologies computational designers develop creative technical and aesthetic solutions to solve challenges of the 21st century why study computational design at unsw computational design the future of how we make things is - Jun 01 2023 web sep 4 2018 while designers traditionally rely on intuition and experience to solve design problems computational design is a new design methodology that can literally produce hundreds or thousands of design permutations to find the absolute best solution to a problem the shifting roles of humans and computers computational design in architecture defining parametric - Dec 27 2022 web jun 1 2020 this paper discusses computational design cd and proposes an improved and sound taxonomy for a set of key cd terms namely parametric generative and algorithmic design based on an extensive literature review from which different definitions by various authors were collected analyzed and compared previousarticlein issue introduction to computational design subsets challenges in - Feb 26 2023 web dec 3 2021 computational design cd is not just automating existing traditional processes or tedious tasks it is about shifting the way we think and design cd systems can be grouped into three main categories
