Blood And Tears Poems For Matthew Shepard:

Blood & Tears Scott Gibson,1999 A collection of commemorative poems written by seventy five poets in memory of Matthew Shepard a gay University of Wyoming student who was murdered in 1998 Blood & Tears Scott Gibson,1999

The Sleep That Changed Everything Lee Ann Brown,2015-05-15 Offering both subtle and immediate pleasures Lee Ann Brown s generous new book extends her unmistakable original voice every bit as Southern as it is avant garde gracious without being naive Abounding in a playfulness of style including songs and ballads the poems in The Sleep That Changed Everything are by turns funny serious insightful and moving Botanical and scientific language are used here as collage elements to chart cycles of desire and emotional transformation Brown is committed to Whitman s idea that we all have many selves thus her work embraces the immediacy of the New York School the personal and literary wildness of the Beats the word play and political astuteness of Language poetry and an eroticism all her own In poems that are both highly literate and plain spoken Brown makes the life of the soul directly available in all its renegade garb

Door in the Mountain: New and Collected Poems, 1965-2003 Jean Valentine,2007-01-02 This National Book Award winning volume presents nearly forty years of the renowned poet s work Between 1965 and 2003 Jean Valentine published nine critically acclaimed collections of poetry including Dream Barker winner of the Yale Younger Poets Award Ordinary Things and The River at Wolf Spare and intensely felt Valentine s poems present experience as only imperfectly graspable This volume gathers together all of Valentine s published poems presenting them alongside a stunning new collection Valentine s poetry is as recognizable as the slant truth of a dream She is a brave unshirking poet who speaks with fire on the great subjects love and death and the soul Her images strange canny visions of the unknown self clang with the authenticity of real experience This is an urgent art that wants to heal what it touches a poetry that wants to tell intimately the whole life

Heroes and Householders Steve Turtell,2012-05 HEROES AND HOUSEHOLDERS pays tribute to Allen Ginsberg Frank O Hara Edward Field Joan Larkin and James Schuyler and documents the life of an ordinary everyday householder in poems critic Marjorie Perloff calls charming and subtle Praise for Steve Turtell His poems are shaped with an economy with a supple control that recalls the lyrics of W B Yeats perfectly solid and down to earth yet floating with a lyric ease This is an impressive collection Edward Field Steve Turtell s poems are refreshingly direct and unpretentious I m moved by their generous humanity their plainspoken hard won truths and the poet s deep relishing of his experiences desired or not His uncommon craft makes it sound almost simple Joan Larkin Steve Turtell s poetic voice is at once funny tender and tough minded His verse is lyrical his subjects both social and sexual His intelligence is grounded by a frank and warm heartedly humane vision and his eye is uncannily perceptive and true Kate Christensen

The Legacies of Matthew Shepard Helis Sikk,Leisa Meyer,2019-01-08 This edited collection explores the deeper contexts and consequences surrounding the murder of Matthew Shepard This young gay man was brutally beaten and left tied to a fence on a chill Wyoming night in October 1998 Found the next morning by two cyclists he was transported to a hospital in Fort Collins Colorado where he died five days later His murder was one of the most publicized and for some most vividly remembered instances of hate crime related violence based on sexual orientation Twenty years after his death Matthew Shepard s story is at a critical turning point memories of his murder and its meanings can either fade into the past or be reinvigorated to make up part of more meaningful investigations into LGBTQ and modern U S history The multidisciplinary contributors to this book blend personal narrative with more conventional academic approaches to offer a 20 year retrospective that re examines the subject of Shepard s murder whilst also bringing to light questions of historical memory rurality race and public policy Each of the disciplines and genres included contributes unique understandings of the murder and responses to it that cannot be articulated solely through traditional academic writing This collection then not only tells the story of Matthew Shepard in the context of 2018 but also provides a compelling view of how and through which means American culture communicates painful histories of violence bias and death

Never by Itself Alone David Grundy, 2024 Through its comprehensive history of post war queer writing in Boston and San Francisco from the 1940s through the 21st century Never By Itself Alone provides a new view of queer history Grundy intertwines analysis of lesbian gay and queer literature of the time centering voices which have not yet before been explored in existing criticism The book elevates the underrepresented work of writers of color and those with gender nonconforming identities underscores the link between activism and literature and insists upon the vital importance of radical accounts of race class and gender in any queer studies worthy of the name

Dying Modern Diana Fuss, 2013-04-12 In Dying Modern one of our foremost literary critics inspires new ways to read write and talk about poetry Diana Fuss does so by identifying three distinct but largely unrecognized voices within the well studied genre of the elegy the dying voice the reviving voice and the surviving voice Through her deft readings of modern poetry Fuss unveils the dramatic within the elegiac the dying diva who relishes a great deathbed scene the speaking corpse who fancies a good haunting and the departing lover who delights in a dramatic exit Focusing primarily on American and British poetry written during the past two centuries Fuss maintains that poetry can still offer genuine ethical compensation even for the deep wounds and shocking banalities of modern death As dying loss and grief become ever more thoroughly obscured from public view the dead start chattering away in verse Through bold original interpretations of little known works as well as canonical poems by writers such as Emily Dickinson Randall Jarrell Elizabeth Bishop Richard Wright and Sylvia Plath Fuss explores modern poetry's fascination with pre and postmortem speech pondering the literary desire to make death speak in the face of its cultural silencing

A Whosoever Church Gary David Comstock, 2001-01-01 This book features interviews with twenty black scholars and religious leaders who speak out from various theological perspectives against institutional prejudice toward gay and lesbian people The interviews are conducted in a conversational format in language that will be accessible and interesting to lay readers

Grabbed Richard Blanco, 2020-10-06 A gender inclusive anthology of poetry and prose that addresses the physical and psychological act of being grabbed or in any way assaulted The MeToo movement the infamous Access Hollywood tape and the depraved and hypocritical actions of celebrities politicians CEOs and other powerful people have caused people all over the nation to speak out in outrage to express allegiance for the victims of these assaults and to raise their voices against a culture that has allowed this behavior to continue for too long The editors asked writers and poets to add to the conversation about what being grabbed means to them in their own experience or in whatever way the word grabbed inspired them What they received are often searing heart rending works ranging in topic from sexual misconduct to racial injustice from an unwanted caress to rape expressed in powerful beautifully crafted prose and poetry The writers represented here some very well known such as Rita Dove Jericho Brown Eileen Miles Ana Menendez and Sapphire as well as some newer voices not yet fully discovered have mined their collective experiences to reveal their most vulnerable moments and in some cases to narrate moments that they have had previously been unwilling or unable to speak of What results is a collection of emotional hard hitting pieces that speak to the aftermath of violation whether mental emotional or physical
