Kelly, 1955 Nine Lives Susan Sheridan, 2011 In the decades after World War II the literary scene in Australia flourished local writers garnered international renown and local publishers sought and produced more Australian books The traditional view of this postwar period is of successful male writers with women still confined to the domestic sphere In Nine Lives Susan Sheridan rewrites the pages of history to foreground the women writers who contributed equally to this literary renaissance Sheridan traces the early careers of nine Australian women writers born between 1915 and 1925 who each achieved success between the mid 1940s and 1970s Judith Wright and Thea Astley published quickly to resounding critical acclaim while Gwen Harwood's frustration with chauvinistic literary editors prompted her pseudonymous poetry Fiction writers Elizabeth Jolley Amy Witting and Jessica Anderson remained unpublished until they were middle aged Rosemary Dobson Dorothy Hewett and Dorothy Auchterlonie Green started strongly as poets in the 1940s but either reduced their output or fell silent for the next twenty years Sheridan considers why their careers developed differently from the careers of their male counterparts and how they balanced marriage family and writing This illuminating group biography offers a fresh perspective on mid twentieth century Australian literature and the women writers who helped to shape it The English Physitian [sic] Enlarged; with Three Hundred, Sixty and Nine Medicines, Made of English Herbs, that Were Not in Any Impression Untill This, Etc Nicholas Culpeper, 1684 Songs for the Master Martin Weiss, 2007-02 This volume is both a free verse offering in poetry and lyrics of love and gratitude to God and a personal journal of the authors varied experiences as a Christian Scenes from the Revolution Kim Wiltshire, Billy Cowan, 2018-09-20 Political theatre thrives on turbulence By turning the political issues of the day into a potent dramatic art form its practitioners hold up a mirror to our society with the power to shock discomfit and entertain Scenes from the Revolution is a celebration of fifty years of political theatre in Britain Including lost scripts from companies including Broadside Mobile Workers Theatre The Women s Theatre Group and The General Will with incisive commentary from contemporary political theatre makers the book asks the essential questions What can be learnt from our rich history of political theatre And how might contemporary practitioners apply these approaches to our current politically troubled world Beginning with a short history of pre 1968 political theatre covering Brecht Joan Littlewood and Ewan McColl the editors move on to explore agit prop working class theatre theatre in education theatre and race women s theatre and LGBTQ theatre Featuring many of the leading voices in the field then and now Scenes from the Revolution is a must read for anyone interested in politics in the arts Wounds of Love Frank Graziano, 2004-01-15 The Peruvian mystic St Rose of Lima Isabel Flores y Oliva 1586 1617 was canonized in 1671 as the first saint of the New World and remains the object of widespread devotion today In this engrossing new study Frank Graziano uses the example of St Rose to explore the meaning of female mysticism and the way in which saints are products of their cultures Virginitly austerity eucharistic devotion incessant mortification and mystical marriage to Christ characterized the devotional regimen that structured St Rose s entire life Many of her mystical practices echo the symptoms of such modern psychological disorders as masochism depression hysteria and anorexia nervosa Graziano offers a sophisticated argument not only for the origins and meaning of these behaviors in Rose s case but also for the reason her culture venerated them as signs of sanctity In the process he explores a wide range of themes from the idea of suffering as an expression of love to the assimilation of childhood trauma through religious repetition Graziano also offers a penetrating analysis of the politics of Rose s canonization He finds that her mystical union with God bypassing the institutional channels of sacrament and priestly mediation was inherently subversive to the bureaucratized Church Canonization was a cooptation by which Rose s competing claim to Christ was integrated into the Catholic canon The book concludes with a fascinating exploration of mystical eroticism with its intense experiences of vision and ecstasy The eroticized suffering of many mystics is shown to be very human in origin the mystic s wounded love is projected onto a God conceived to accommodate it Wounds of Love is based on a decade of research in archives rare books and an extraordinary range of secondary sources Introducing an innovative method that integrates history cultural studies psychoanalysis and clinical psychology this compelling work offers a bold new interpretation of female mysticism
