Valenstein, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1989 Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art & Architecture: Three-Volume Set Jonathan Bloom, Sheila Blair, 2009-05-14 The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture deals with all aspects of Islamic art and architecture ranging from the Middle East to Central Asia to Southeast Asia and Africa The volumes cover all subject areas in Islamic art including artists rulers writers architecture ceramics sculpture metalwork painting calligraphy textiles and more The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture provides unparalleled scope and depth on this rapidly growing area of interest It offers fully updated articles and bibliography as well as more than 500 plans maps diagrams illustrations and colour plates Similar in scope and design to The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts this three volume reference work contains articles of various lengths in alphabetical order The shorter more factual articles none shorter than 50 words are combined with larger multi section articles tracing the development of the art forms in various geographical locations The Routledge Handbook of Archaeology and Globalization Tamar Hodos, 2016-11-18 This unique collection applies globalization concepts to the discipline of archaeology using a wide range of global case studies from a group of international specialists The volume spans from as early as 10 000 cal BP to the modern era analysing the relationship between material culture complex connectivities between communities and groups and cultural change Each contributor considers globalization ideas explicitly to explore the socio cultural connectivities of the past In considering social practices shared between different historic groups and also the expression of their respective identities the papers in this volume illustrate the potential of globalization thinking to bridge the local and global in material culture analysis The Routledge Handbook of Archaeology and Globalization is the first such volume to take a world archaeology approach on a multi period basis in order to bring together the scope of evidence for the significance of material culture in the processes of globalization This work thus also provides a means to understand how material culture can be used to assess the impact of global engagement in our contemporary world As such it will appeal to archaeologists and historians as well as social science researchers interested in the origins of globalization

Science and Civilisation in China Joseph Needham, Rose Kerr, Nigel Wood, 2004

Romantic Writing and the Empire of Signs Karen Fang, 2010-02-02

Nineteenth century periodicals frequently compared themselves to the imperial powers then dissecting the globe and this interest in imperialism can be seen in the exotic motifs that surfaced in works by such late Romantic authors as John Keats Charles Lamb James Hogg Letitia Landon and Lord Byron Karen Fang explores the collaboration of these authors with periodical magazines to show how an interdependent relationship between these visual themes and rhetorical style enabled these authors to model their writing on the imperial project Fang argues that in the decades after Waterloo late Romantic authors used imperial culture to capitalize on the contemporary explosion of periodical magazines This proliferation of post Napoleonic writing often referencing exotic locales both revises longstanding notions about literary orientalism and reveals a remarkable synthesis of Romantic idealism with contemporary cultural materialism that heretofore has not been explored Indeed in interlocking case studies that span the reach of British conquest ranging from Greece China and Egypt to Italy and Tahiti Fang challenges a major convention of periodical publication While periodicals are usually thought to be defined by time this account of the geographic attention exerted by late Romantic authors shows them to be equally concerned with space With its exploration of magazines and imperialism as a context for Romantic writing culture and aesthetics this book will appeal not only to scholars of book history and reading cultures but also to those of nineteenth century British writing and history

The Cambridge History of China Denis Crispin Twitchett, John King Fairbank, 1978

International scholars and sinologists discuss culture economic growth social change political processes and foreign influences in China since the earliest pre dynastic period

Britain's Chinese Eye Elizabeth Chang, 2010-04-20

This book traces the intimate connections between Britain and China throughout the nineteenth century and argues for China s central impact on the British visual imagination Chang brings together an unusual group of primary sources to investigate how nineteenth century Britons looked at and represented Chinese people places and things and how in the process ethnographic geographic and aesthetic representations of China shaped British writers and artists vision of their own lives and experiences For many Britons China was much more than a geographical location it was also a way of seeing and being seen that could be either embraced as creative inspiration or rejected as contagious influence In both cases the idea of China s visual difference stood in negative contrast to Britain s evolving sense of the visual and literary real To better grasp what Romantic and Victorian writers artists and architects were doing at home we must also understand the foreign objects found in their midst and what they were looking at abroad

The Archaeology of Early Colonial Manila Ellen Hsieh, 2025-01-14 A view into the diverse culture of the Philippines in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Although Manila capital city of the Philippines played a critical role in economic and cultural exchanges between the East and the West during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries little is known about what life was like for its residents during this time In this book Ellen Hsieh uses archaeological historical and ethnographic resources to document the ways Manila was transformed by the arrival of Spanish colonists in 1571 and how the city in turn shaped the modern world Manila was uniquely positioned as a crossroads in the networks of Southeast Asia East Asia and Iberia resulting in a hybridized culture where colonial Spanish Indigenous Tagalog and overseas Chinese groups exchanged goods and ideas In The Archaeology of Early Colonial Manila Hsieh analyzes material goods such as ceramics from Intramuros the Spanish walled city and Parian the Chinese quarter and illustrations from the Boxer Codex a Spanish manuscript featuring images of people in the Philippines and surrounding areas to illuminate the diversity of Manila society and to unravel the intricate power dynamics among these ethnic groups Bridging the gap in research between pre Spanish and late colonial periods and amplifying the voices of non elite diasporic and colonized communities often overlooked in historical documents Hsieh provides an important focus on Manila s contributions to world history during a period of intense globalization
