 change of the political landscape also challenged religious communities as many new religious movements NRMs emerged to satisfy the spiritual needs of local people in overcoming the hardship of transition This book presents the unique case of a native Korean NRM which successfully survived transformed and was transmitted even into contemporary society Among Donghak later called Cheondogyo Daejonggyo and Wonbulgyo the history of Daesoon Jinrihoe derived from the Jeungsan movement is explored here in the context of functionalism even though the perspectives of religious philosophy and personal experiences are also regarded for the receptive and syncretic relationship with other groups The book offers significant
