Blueprint For A Country Turnaround:

Blueprint for a Country Turnaround Herve De Jordy,1992      The New Innovators Roger Voyer,Patti Ryan,1994-01-01 What is technological innovation Most people believe it s a flash of genius but innovation the ability to transform an idea into a marketable product process or service has underlying principles With the globalization of the world economy and rapid technological change many people believe that innovation is a key generator of economic growth This book explores in detail how the innovation process works how ideas are successfully translated into marketable products The 14 companies profiled illustrate the different stages of the innovation process each firm s risks and choices management strategies and outlook for the future are discussed The New Innovators is a penetrating study of Canadian businesses rising to the challenge of the global business environment      International Turnaround Management B. Arpi,2016-04-13 The role of a Turnaround Manager is to save companies from a seriously unprofitable situation This may follow a merger take over restructure or as a result of adverse market conditions or mismanagement A first class Turnaround Manager is more than a short term company doctor he or she redefines the company s business mission and restructures it for long term survival This book shows how to do this It includes practical advice from experienced Turnaround Managers real life examples of best practice and an objective guide to the principles involved in this increasingly important role      Journal of Small Business and Entrepreneurship ,1994-04      Optimum ,1997      OECD Working Papers ,1996      Stabilization, Growth, and Distribution Thomas J. Courchene,John Deutsch Institute for the Study of Economic Policy,1994 This second volume in the Bell Canada Papers on Economic and Public Policy focuses on stabilization issues growth and innovation and labour markets The essays explore linkages among macro stabilization policy economic growth innovation activity and distribution

Turnaround William Bratton,Peter Knobler,2009-03-04 When Bill Bratton was sworn in as New York City s police commissioner in 1994 he made what many considered a bold promise The NYPD would fight crime in every borough and win It seemed foolhardy even everybody knows you can t win the war on crime But Bratton delivered In an extraordinary twenty seven months serious crime in New York City went down by 33 percent the murder rate was cut in half and Bill Bratton was heralded as the most charismatic and respected law enforcement official in America In this outspoken account of his news making career Bratton reveals how his cutting edge policing strategies brought about the historic reduction in crime Bratton s success made national news and landed him on the cover of Time It also landed him in political hot water Bratton earned such positive press that before he d completed his first week on the job the administration of New York s media hungry mayor Rudolph Giuliani threatened to fire him Bratton gives a vivid behind the scenes look at the sizzle and substance and he pulls no punches describing the personalities who really run the city Bratton grew up in a working class Boston neighborhood always dreaming of being a cop As a young officer under Robert di Grazia Boston s progressive police commissioner he got a ground level view of real police reform and also saw what happens when an outspoken dynamic reform minded police commissioner starts to outshine an ambitious mayor He was soon in the forefront of the community policing movement and a rising star in the profession Bratton had turned around four major police departments when he accepted the number one police job in America When Bratton arrived at the NYPD New York s Finest were almost hiding they had given up on preventing crime and were trying only to respond to it Narcotics Vice Auto Theft and the Gun Squads all worked banker s hours while the competition the bad guys worked around the clock Bratton changed that He brought talent to the top and instilled pride in the force he listened to the people in the neighborhoods and to the cops on the street Bratton and his dream team created Compstat a combination of computer statistics analysis and an unwavering demand for accountability Cops were called on the carpet and crime began to drop With Bratton on the job New York City was turned around Today New York s plummeting crime rate and improved quality of life remain a national success story Bratton is directly responsible and his strategies are being studied and implemented by police forces across the country and around the world In Turnaround Bratton shows how the war on crime can be won once and for all

Legal Aspects of Business Transactions and Investment in the Far East Dennis Campbell, Arthur Wolff, 1989-06-06 Despite the harmonizing effect of TRIPS and intellectual property law in general technology transfer remains firmly rooted in domestic contract law and public policy However similarities in legal culture across many national borders keep this problem to a minimum until we approach the technologically advanced countries of East Asia For practitioners worldwide working with technology transfer in this culturally heterogeneous part of the world Legal Rules of Technology Transfer in Asia is a godsend For each of nine significant technology market jurisdictions the PRC Taiwan Japan Korea Vietnam Thailand Malaysia Singapore and Indonesia this nuts and bolts approach to the applicable national rules provides all necessary legal information and guidance Country chapters by local authorities are structured to cover the following essential factors government policy on technological research and transfer intellectual property system licensing agreements registration and notification dispute resolution tax considerations transfer of patents choice of law questions franchising publicity and merchandising and anti trust rules Two introductory chapters provide a much needed perspective on technology transfer in the context of the world trade regime as it especially affects East Asia with an emphasis on the trend to clarify and strengthen anti trust rules A concluding chapter surveys the market anthropology of the region and offers an expert assessment of the probable future development of technology transfer trade in the region

The Report: Brunei Darussalam 2014 Oxford Business Group,2014-12-04 Following its successful chairmanship of ASEAN in 2013 Brunei Darussalam will look to continue its role as a regional leader in areas ranging from defence to commerce The increased focus on diversification and the growth of several industries bode well for the economy and the coming years are expected to see Brunei Darussalam further bolster its position within ASEAN and the international economy Commanding the second highest GDP per capita among all ASEAN member nations at 39 700 in 2013 Brunei Darussalam remains one of the most advanced economies in the South east Asia region Historically the hydrocarbons industry has dominated the Bruneian economy and allowed the country to amass considerable wealth However the nation is making an earnest effort to diversify its economy to ensure future economic stability and sustainability Thanks in large part to the efforts of the Brunei Economic Development Board the nation has successfully brought in several major international investments in recent years including a multi purpose defence and aviation training centre The Sultanate is also targeting growth in bio industry through investments in research and development as well as expanding the global reach of its halal food industry The Blueprint Adam Schrager,2016-05-25 Through the microcosm of Colorado s stunning political transformation this is an inside look at the rapidly changing business of campaigns and elections The techniques pioneered in Colorado have been recognized by both parties and pundits as the future of American politics The Wages of Globalism H. W. Brands,1997 One episode dominates the memory of Lyndon Johnson s presidency the Vietnam War The war has so darkened Johnson s reputation that it is difficult for many to recall his policies in a positive light especially his foreign policy Now historian H W Brands offers a fresh look at Johnson s handling of international relations putting Vietnam in the context of the many crises he confronted and the outdated policies of global containment he was expected to uphold The result is a fascinating portrait of a master politician at work maneuvering through a series of successes that made his ultimate failure in Vietnam all the more tragic In The Wages of Globalism Brands conducts a witty and insightful tour through LBJ's foreign policy a tour that begins in Washington runs through Santa Domingo Nicosia and Jakarta and ends in Saigon He opens with a thoughtful portrayal of the tense often fruitful relationship between the domineering Johnson and his advisers Dean Rusk Robert McNamara George Ball Clark Clifford Walt Rostow as he picked up Kennedy's legacy and sought to make it his own Leaving Vietnam for the end Brands presents the various crises with all the force the White House felt at the time the Dominican intervention India impending famine and war with Pakistan the coup against Sukarno in Indonesia France's departure from NATO's unified command the threat of fighting between Greece and Turkey over Cyprus the Six Day War and the worry that Germany might acquire nuclear weapons In each Brands captures the uncertainty in Washington and the conflicting advice that Johnson received The picture that emerges is remarkably positive revealing the president's ability to pick his way through fierce complexities He forcefully stopped a war over Cyprus handled de Gaulle with equanimity and skill and over the objections of all his advisers intentionally delayed shipping grain to famine threatened India creating a real momentum for agricultural reform in that country that ultimately led to self sufficiency Only in Vietnam did Johnson's sure balance of determination and judgment break down worried about his domestic program and the need to stand firm against aggression he let his determination run away with him In 1947 H W Brands writes Truman made a bad bargain with history By the time Johnson inherited the White House it had become painfully clear that America was no longer supreme in the world able to prop up the status quo worldwide In this fascinating behind the scenes account Brands shows how skillfully Johnson steered the nation into the new era until in Southeast Asia politics and his own personality led him into the ultimate trap of the Truman Doctrine
