redevelopment in American cities is neither easy nor quick It takes a delicate alignment of goals power leadership and sustained advocacy on the part of many Rebuilding the American City highlights 15 urban design and planning projects in the U S that have been catalysts for their downtowns yet were implemented during the tumultuous start of the 21st century The book presents five paradigms for redevelopment and a range of perspectives on the complexities successes and challenges inherent to rebuilding American cities today Rebuilding the American City is essential reading for practitioners and students in urban design planning and public policy looking for diverse models of urban transformation to create resilient urban cores

The Adaptive Reuse Handbook Robert W. Burchell, David Listokin, 1981 The dynamics of change in the uses and occupancy characteristics of cities has caught urban managers off guard The abandonment of central city realty in many locations is a fact which cannot be overlooked Yet within this reality there are the seeds of hope not of return to things past but to a series of new constructive efforts Bridging the gap between the city and or neighborhood of yesterday and the potentials of tomorrow requires a firm grasp of all the many required tools in terms of legal physical and strategic planning It is to these necessities that this handbook is dedicated The Adaptive Reuse Handbook is a basic urban revitalization manual for city managers zoning administrators urban planners architects lay planning zoning board members and interested citizens The handbook consists of procedures to gain control of and positively reemploy abandoned urban real estate This is the non architectural side of surplus property conversion the legal and administrative procedures necessary to garner structures and land and prepare them for reuse This book is divided into four sections planning inventory property control property management and disposition and physical revitalization Each section presents procedures and field experience to deal with a particular urban revitalization activity property inventory abandonment early warning systems reuse planning interim permanent property control tax sale foreclosure property management property disposition and physical revitalization This is a must have reference work for anyone in the field of urban studies Departments of Veterans Affairs and Housing and Urban Development, and Independent Agencies Appropriations for 2000: Consumer Product Safety Commission United States. Harmer, 2005-01-11 It is easier to identify the problems in our world than the solutions And yet in many cases there are solutions at hand What is lacking is the will to apply them In the heart of this book Harmer identifies several problems endemic poverty homelessness domestic violence and inadequate health care In each case the significant causes of the current problem are juxtaposed with an analysis of failed strategies which continue to be fostered in spite of their failure She then reviews alternative approaches strategies that work which are actually being used and which involve the whole community The Compassionate Community is a wise and inspiring book that cuts through ideological polarities and political impasses and provides hope for a different future in this new millennium It includes a helpful resource list of community organizations many of them profiled here

People Power U.S. Office of Consumer Affairs. Consumer Information Division,1980 Abstract A resource book is presented for community groups and individual citizens on consumer action projects related to food housing energy and health Successful local projects are described in each category A section on basic tools provides guidelines for organizing a community project and obtaining necessary resources Appendices contain organization names and addresses and other resource materials How can the federal government assist state and local programs to protect citizens and communities against drug-related violence United States. Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs. Subcommittee on Housing and Urban Affairs,1989 Coming Home to New Orleans Karl F. Seidman,2013-04-25 Coming Home to New Orleans documents grassroots rebuilding efforts in New Orleans neighborhoods after hurricane Katrina and draws lessons on their contribution to the post disaster recovery of cities The book begins with two chapters that address Katrina s impact and the planning and public sector recovery policies that set the context for neighborhood recovery Rebuilding narratives for six New Orleans neighborhoods are then presented and analyzed In the heavily flooded Broadmoor and Village de L Est neighborhoods residents coalesced around communitywide initiatives one through a neighborhood association and the second under church leadership to help homeowners return and restore housing get key public facilities and businesses rebuilt and create new community based organizations and civic capacity A comparison of four adjacent neighborhoods in the center of the city show how differing socioeconomic conditions geography government policies and neighborhood capacity created varied recovery trajectories The concluding chapter argues that grassroots and neighborhood scale initiatives can make important contributions to city recovery in four areas repopulation restoring complete neighborhoods with key services and amenities rebuilding parts of the small business economy and enhancing recovery capacity It also calls for more balanced investments and policies to rebuild rental and owner occupied housing and more deliberate collaboration with community based organizations to undertake and implement recovery plans and proposes changes to federal disaster recovery policies and programs to leverage the contribution of grassroots rebuilding and more support for city recovery Rebuilding Sustainable Communities for Children and their Families after Disasters Adenrele Awotona,2009-12-14 Disasters impose enormous misery on children the most vulnerable members of the community Records show that two million children have died as a direct consequence of armed conflict over the past decade Globally millions more have suffered death disease and dislocation as a result of such natural disasters as earthquakes droughts and floods And even when emergency relief is available permanent human damage remains all too often families fall apart women are assaulted and degraded and children are left to take care of themselves In November 2008 the Center for Rebuilding Sustainable Communities after Disasters at the University of Massachusetts Boston USA hosted an international conference to examine how to reconstruct sustainable communities that would be safe and secure for children and their families after disasters This volume collects some of the papers that were presented at the conference It is remarkable for the sheer assortment of topics covered These include the role of gender equality in alleviating poverty and assisting children their families and their communities after disasters war and child soldiers lessons from Hurricane Katrina and the Tsunami the nature of psychosocial resilience and its significance for managing mass emergencies disasters and terrorism and the promotion of human dignity in the creation of sustainable environments that empower families in the aftermath of disasters CRM,2005 Neighborhood Reinvestment Corporation United States.
