Aboriginal Child Welfare, Self-Government and the Rights of Indigenous Children Sonia Harris-Short,2016-03-16 This volume addresses the contentious and topical issue of aboriginal self government over child welfare Using case studies from Australia and Canada it discusses aboriginal child welfare in historical and comparative perspectives and critically examines recent legal reforms and changes in the design management and delivery of child welfare services aimed at securing the decolonization of aboriginal children and families Within this context the author identifies the limitations of reconciling the conflicting demands of self determination and sovereignty and suggests that international law can provide more nuanced and culturally sensitive solutions Referring to the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child it is argued that the effective decolonization of aboriginal child welfare requires a journey well beyond the single issue of child welfare to the heart of the debate over self government self determination and sovereignty in both national and international law
