Stokes, 2004-01-05 Abby Quinn McDougall is a Southern lady whose once picturesque small town life seems to be shrinking Widowed at fifty and burdened by the care of an ailing mother and a cantankerous teenaged daughter Abby wishes her life were simpler and her responsibilities fewer Abby's daughter Neal Grace devastated by the loss of her doting father and the illness of her beloved grandmother wishes for change for the chance to break free from other people's expectations And Abby's mother Edith wishes only to be liberated from life itself But wishes often backfire As their wishes begin to come true the Quinn women start to wonder Could it be that their old life wasn't so bad after all Is it possible that the answer to their deepest longings has been right in front of them all along Opening Hearts by Opening Minds Connie Wineland, 2007-06-01 This book is for Christian readers of fiction who might experience difficulty trying to make an informed choice beyond what is being published by evangelical presses Marketed to a specific target audience evangelical fiction oftentimes leaves a reader with a strong emotional response but lacks the literary depth or the breadth of subject that could inspire life changing spiritual growth With this premise at the heart of her book Connie Wineland includes her own story of conversion to Christianity by way of reading fiction During her late twenties and early thirties particularly while in graduate school Wineland became immersed in literary and rhetorical studies while also practicing an Eastern form of religion as well as Native American spirituality However despite all her training in literary theory her readings in Romantic Victorian modern and postmodern literature which she explains as well as her personal interest in mythology and world religions kept her questioning the existence of God and the possible nature of God Then as a relatively new convert to Christianity she faced several challenges at a small Christian college where she taught literature and writing courses Eventually wanting to reach beyond the academic community Wineland began a local Christian readers group which she ran for four years She includes in this book resources and materials such as sample syllabi and study guide questions useful Web addresses and plenty of how to information for starting and running your own book club Also included is an extensive list of annotated titles of recommended reading to get anyone started
