Sarath, 2017-10-11 Examines key theoretical aspects of the emerging field of second person contemplative education A first of its kind this book maps out current academic approaches in higher education to second person contemplative education which addresses contemplative experience from an intersubjective perspective Until recently contemplative studies has emphasized a predominantly first person standpoint but the expansion and embrace of second person methods provides a distinctive learning context in which collective wisdom and shared learning can begin to emerge from dialogue among students and groups in the classroom The contributors to this volume leading researchers and practitioners from a variety of institutions and departments examine the theoretical and philosophical foundations of second person contemplative approaches to instruction pedagogy and curricula across various scholarly disciplines In Praise of Retreat Kirsteen MacLeod, 2021-03-30 For readers of Walden Wild

Pilgrim at Tinker's Creek A Book of Silence A Gift from the Sea and other celebrations of the inner adventure An utterly engaging dive into our modern ways of retreat where we go why we're drawn and how it's urgent From pilgrim paths to forest cabins and from rented hermitages to arts temples and quiet havens for yoga and meditation In Praise of Retreat explores the pleasures and powers of this ancient practice for modern people Kirsteen MacLeod draws on the history of retreat and personal experiences to reveal the many ways readers can step back from society to reconnect with their deepest selves and to their loftiest aspirations in life In the 21st century disengaging even briefly is seen by many as self-indulgent unproductive and antisocial Yet to retreat is as basic a human need as being social and everyone can benefit whether it's for a weekend a month or a lifetime Retreat is an uncertain adventure with as many peaks and valleys as any mountain expedition except we head inward to recharge and find fresh energy and brave new ideas to bring back into our everyday lives
