The Blue Lady of Coffin Hall Carolyn Keene, 2022-01-04 Nancy and her boyfriend Ned visit Coffin Hall to research the library's rumored ghost but when a fire breaks out and Ned is blamed it is up to Nancy to find the true culprit THE LADIES' COMPANION, 1869 A Contemporary History of Women's Sport, Part One Jean Williams, 2014-04-24 This book is an historical survey of women's sport from 1850-1960. It looks at some of the more recent methodological approaches to writing sports history and raises questions about how the history of women's sport has so far been shaped by academic writers. Questions explored in this text include: What are the fresh perspectives and newly available sources for the historian of women's sport? How do these take forward established debates on women's place in sporting culture and what novel approaches do they suggest? How can our appreciation of fashion, travel, food and medical history be advanced by looking at women's involvement in sport? How can we use some of the current ideas and methodologies in the recent literature on the history and sociology of sport in order to look afresh at women's participation? Jean Williams's original research on these topics and more will be a useful resource for scholars in the fields of sports, women's studies, history and sociology. A History of the World in 80 Lost Women Katie Nelson, 2025-03-13 A fresh informative and entertaining pop history of the world told through the biographies of 70 fascinating women you've never heard of but should have. Godey's Lady's Book, 1858 Godey's Lady's Book, and Ladies' American Magazine, 1878 Health Insurance Plans Other Than Blue Cross Or Blue Shield Plans Or Insurance Companies, 1970 Survey Louis S. Reed, 1971 LIFE, 1966-11-04 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century. It now lives on at LIFE.com, the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet. Users can browse, search and view photos of today's people and events. They have free access to share print and post images for personal use. Once Upon a Blue Dot Cesar Fernando Lumba, 2015-11-06 What was it like for the former American colony, the islands of the Philippines, waking up one day in September 1972 and all the democratic institutions had ceased functioning, replaced by a military dictatorship? What was it like for the men and women, especially the women who had the misfortune of being on the dictator Marcos's vaunted list of enemies and subversives? And what was it like when the Marcos dictatorship finally crumbled, laid waste by a housewife who had acted as a giant killer seeking to break the shackles that had bound the Filipino people hand and foot and in the process finding restitution for the murder of her husband? And how sweet was the sweet bird of revenge to borrow from playwright Tennessee Williams when a posse was formed to hunt down the soldiers responsible for the torture and rape of the captured enemies of the state? This is an epic story of the struggle between good and evil. It is also the story of two friends, Gus Liloan and Vic Lucero. Liloan, a man stranded in a foreign land, unable to return to his country where a police state awaited him, should have gotten his wish as circumstances changed, but he could not find the will to abandon America, partly because he realized that he had already found a new home. But his dream of going home would not die. It had been merely shelved in a remote corner of his soul Vic Lucero one of the soldiers charged with the interrogation and torture of political prisoners during the Marcos dictatorship went into hiding and incognito ownership of a piggery after the dictatorship unraveled
