Blue Like Jazz:

Blue Like Jazz Donald Miller, 2012-04 Presents a collection of essays that expore the author s experiences and opinions on Christian spirituality Blue Like Jazz: Movie Edition Donald Miller, 2012-04-09 The runaway New York Times bestseller that became a cornerstone of Christian nonfiction Blue Like Jazz is a fresh and original perspective on life love and redemption I never liked jazz music because jazz music doesn t resolve Sometimes you have to watch somebody love something before you can love it yourself It is as if they are showing you the way I used to not like God because God didn t resolve But that was before any of this happened Donald Miller was raised in a strict Texas denomination where he was only vaguely familiar with a distant God When he grew older he ran all the way to the least religious university in the US Rice College in Portland Oregon Still God pursued him When he came to know Jesus he pursued the Christian life with great zeal However within a few years he had a successful ministry that ultimately left him feeling empty burned out and once again far away from God In this intimate non judgmental and soul searching account Miller describes his remarkable journey with and back to the infinitely loving God helping you discover how the Christian faith is still relevant in a postmodern culture learn how to have a genuine encounter with a God who is real and enjoy a renewed sense of passion for your life Blue Like Jazz is a gentle honest resource for those curious about the Christian faith or new to it and offers a fresh and original perspective on life love and redemption Besides the Bible Dan Gibson, Jordan Green, John Pattison, 2012-01-04 How do you decide what to read Dan Gibson Jordan Green and John Pattison have created this tool to make your choices easier Besides the Bible is a guide to the wide array of great books that they believe every Christian should read the ones that matter to the church and the world Written Aforetime David Dunlap, 2008-12-29 The Routledge Companion to Religion and Popular Culture John C. Branded Faith Rajkumar Dixit, 2010-06-07 Christianity may be the greatest story ever told but in Western culture it is losing ground against the powerful forces of secularization In examining the root causes of this cultural shift does the church have anything to learn from secular society and the business sector For decades the church has resisted the idea of using business methodologies in the religious sphere Yet a closer look reveals that most church hierarchies have borrowed much of their organizational structure from the business sector But the church is not alone in its borrowing Today the lines between the church and the business sector are blurred as both entities influence each other interchangeably In Branded Faith Rajkumar Dixit enters an engaging and intellectually stimulating analysis of what the church can learn from the business practices of marketing branding and contextualization Using examples drawn from widely recognized companies such as Nike Starbucks Coca Cola and Subway Dixit systematically builds a case for the power of a story and emphasizes the importance of seeking culturally relevant ways to spread it Those who care deeply about sharing Christianity powerfully and effectively will find in Branded Faith a thoughtful presentation of ideas on how to maintain the integrity of the gospel while exploring fresh methods of communicating the good news to a postmodern society
