Blue Stone Other Poems

T. Bose, Paul Tiessen

Blue Stone Other Poems:

Blue Stone & Other Poems Neva Herrington, 1986

Her BMW and Other Poems Neva Herrington, 2007

Writing on Napkins at the Sunshine Club Kevin Cantwell, 2011 Writing on Napkins at the Sunshine Club includes a poet laureate of Georgia and of the United States and the poet who read at President Clinton's second inauguration. The oldest was born in 1905 and the two youngest in that ominous year of American history 1968. The Pulitzer-winning Stanley Kunitz wrote a famous poem about the Indian Mounds. Miller Williams, father of the Grammy-winning Lucinda Williams, lived in Macon in the early 1960s and became a friend of Flannery O'Connor. In the late 1970s, soon after his Mercer days, David Bottoms writes the poems for Shooting Rats at the Bibb County Dump and wins the Walt Whitman Award. Jud Mitcham wins the Devins Award for his first book Somewhere in Ecclesiastes and Seaborn Jones is doing his stint with Mister Rogers Neighborhood and would later connect in San Francisco to one of the last pure lines of surrealism in American expression. Several poets came out of Macon or arrived in Macon soon after. Between Mercer University and Macon State College, the activity of poetry in Macon thrived. Adrienne Bond wrote her seminal poems and started up the Georgia Poetry Circuit. Judith Ortiz Cofer passed through Macon State at the brink of her position at the University of Georgia and in American letters as an important artistic spokesperson for women's experience. From Bruce Beasley and his hybrid poetics to Stephen Bluestone and his learned craft in the lyric poem, this book presents a selection for all students of Southern Literature, some of the best poems of other poets too, like Anya Silver, Amanda Pecor, Marjorie Becker, and the late Reginald Shepherd, who was as well known at his early death as any poet of his generation. Many of these poets studied with and knew the important poets of their time. The poems nevertheless speak for themselves.

Gebir, Count Julian, and Other Poems Walter Savage

Landor, 1831

The Poetry of Raymond Carver Sandra Lee Kleppe, 2016-02-24 Best known as one of the great short story writers of the twentieth century, Raymond Carver also published several volumes of poetry and considered himself as much a poet as a fiction writer. Sandra Lee Kleppe combines comparative analysis with an in-depth examination of Carver's poems, making a case for the quality of Carver's poetic output and showing the central role Carver's pursuit of poetry played in his career as a writer. Carver constructed his own organic literary system of autopoetics, a concept connected to a paradigm shift in our understanding of the interrelatedness of biological and cultural systems. This idea is seen as informing Carver's entire production, and a distinguishing feature of Kleppe's book is its contextualization of Carver's poetry within the complex literary and scientific systems that influenced his development as a writer. Kleppe addresses the common themes and intertextual links between Carver's poetry and short story careers, situates Carver's poetry within the love poem tradition, explores the connections between neurology and poetic memories, and examines Carver's use of the elegy genre within the context of his terminal illness. Tellingly, Carver's poetry, which has aroused slight interest among literary scholars, is frequently taught to medical students. This testimony to the interdisciplinary implications of Carver's work suggests the appropriateness of Kleppe's culminating discussion of Carver's work as a bridge between the fields of literature and medicine

The Select Poetry of Sir Walter Scott Walter Scott, 1833      Entering the Real World: VCCA Poets on Mt. San Angelo

Editor Margaret B. Ingraham, Editor Andrea Carter Brown, 2011-10-17 Entering the Real World VCCA Poets on Mt. San Angelo edited by Margaret B. Ingraham and Andrea Carter Brown is a labor of love by poets who have been to VCCA and by the Fellows Council to celebrate VCCA's 40th Anniversary. It contains over sixty previously published poems by VCCA Fellows all written about or inspired by their residencies at VCCA. The poets are from throughout the United States, around the world, and across the decades. Kelly Cherry, Poet Laureate of Virginia, describes Entering the Real World as this splendid, intriguing anthology. Editor Margaret B. Ingraham writes: "This anthology is at once a work of literary merit, a celebratory offering, and an historical record of a hallowed place."

Greek and Latin Poetry of Late Antiquity Berenice Verhelst, Tine Scheijnen, 2022-06-30 Although Greek and Latin poetry from late antiquity each poses similar questions and problems, a real dialogue between scholars on both sides is even now conspicuously absent. A lack of evidence impedes discussion of whether there was direct interaction between the two language traditions. This volume, however, starts from the premise that direct interaction should never be a prerequisite for a meaningful comparative and contextualising analysis of both late antique poetic traditions. A team of leading and emerging scholars sheds new light on literary developments that can be or have been regarded as typical of the period and on the poetic and aesthetic ideals that affected individual works, which are both classicizing and unclassical in similar and diverging ways. This innovative exploration of the possibilities created by a bilingual focus should stimulate further explorations in future research.
