First of the Few: 5 June - July 1940 Brian Cull,2014-03-26 First of the Few covers air operations during the month or so before the official start of the Battle of Britain 5 June to 9 July 1940 a period normally overlooked The Battle of France commenced 5 June and the handful of RAF Hurricane and Battle squadrons that remained in France were heavily engaged as were Spitfire Hurricane and Blenheims flying in support from the UK Meanwhile the Luftwaffe commenced intermittent nocturnal raids over eastern and north eastern counties of England resulting in the first night actions by RAF Blenheim night fighters In the other direction RAF night bombers were making forays over Germany and the occupied Low Countries During the first week of July Luftwaffe reconnaissance aircraft were overflying the south east coastal areas and harrying shipping in the Channel All of these actions are highlighted in First of the Few many of the RAF aircrews experiencing combat for the first time survived as the first of the few to participate in the forthcoming defence of Britain The scene was thus set for one of the greatest battles in history one that was to save the world from Nazi domination the Battle of Britain

Brothers in Arms Chris Goss,2020-11-13 This vivid account of WWII aerial warfare follows two frontline fighter units locked in deadly combat during the Battle of Britain This is the story of the Air Battle for England as experienced by the men of 609 West Riding Squadron based in southern England and 1 JG53 a Luftwaffe staffel based in northern France Historian Chris Goss presents a day by day blow by blow account that captures the tension of aerial combat the elation of a successful kill the tragedy of seeing a friend shot down and the relief felt by survivors on both sides of the fight We learn of exhausting unrelenting action and days of frustrating weather induced inactivity along with those brief moments of leisure and pleasure grasped from the daily struggle for survival What we also discover is that there was in many regards little difference in the experiences and reactions between the men defending king and country and those fighting for the Führer creating a form of bond derived from those shared experiences of indeed brothers in arms

Fighters Over Malta Brian Cull, Frederick Galea, 2018-08-17 All known combat claims and losses Many personal accounts and memories of the battle Illustrated with new and rarely seen photographs Brian Cull and Frederick Galea's definitive Fighters over Malta Gladiators and Hurricanes 1940-1942 is a highly detailed account of the gallant band of RAF and Commonwealth pilots who flew in defence of Malta between June 1940 and April 1942 when help in the guise of Spitfires finally arrived Most of the Hurricanes which held this tiny outpost of the British Empire in the heart of Axis dominated territory had been flown from the decks of aircraft carriers or from bases in North Africa while a handful of fighter pilots arrived by Sunderland flying boats or other aircraft in transit from the UK via Gibraltar Many of these pilots were inexperienced and quickly paid the supreme price particularly when Messerschmitt Bf 109 pilots of the elite 7 JG26 arrived in Sicily in early 1941 and later in the year when JG53 made their presence felt Important personal diaries and journals have come to light and these have been widely quoted to provide the atmospheric background and thoughts and hopes of Hurricane pilots who defended Malta Not all diarists survived but their impressions provide a fitting tribute to their courage aspirations and fears Much of the early period of the air defence of Malta is enhanced by the personal experiences of Flt Lt then Sgt Plt James Pickering AFC who flew Hurricanes with 261 Squadron
