Blue Curry:

The Pineapple from Domestication to Commodification Victoria Avery, Melissa Calaresu, 2025-10-15 The pineapple's discovery by European colonisers in the late fifteenth century and its remarkable global trajectory from an early modern object of rarity, desire and horticultural innovation to a cheap canned consumable and fair trade logo today is a story of modern globalisation. The Pineapple from Domestication to Commodification is a wide-ranging interdisciplinary volume intended to provoke timely debate and generate radical rethinking of an overly familiar fruit with associations from luxury to kitsch. It deliberately problematizes the pineapple by investigating understudied tensions between its representational power and the historical and political contexts of its worldwide production and consumption. This connects the global and local at the heart of contemporary debates about the nature and origins of our food. It will have cross-disciplinary appeal for scholars of politics, economics, history, plant sciences, food and material culture as well as for broader audiences interested in food, gardening, the environment and visual arts. BLUE CURRY, 2004-04-29

Perfect connection to STEM. Beyond Representation in Contemporary Caribbean Art Carlos Garrido Castellano, 2019-05-03 Beyond Representation in Contemporary Caribbean Art offers an innovative and systematic analysis of contemporary Caribbean art practices in the Francophone, Anglophone and Hispanic Caribbean. Focusing on a broad range of artistic projects, the book assesses the potential of visual creativity to outline a unique approach to Caribbean visual practices based on individual and collective agency. House of Horrors Agnieszka Kotwasińska, 2023-06-15 This is a study of tumultuous transformations of kinship and intimate relationships in American horror fiction over the last three decades. Twelve contemporary novels by ten women writers and two whose work has been identified as women's fiction are grouped into four main thematic clusters: haunted houses, monsters, vampires and hauntings, but it is social scripts and concerns linked directly to intimacy and family life that structure the entire volume. By drawing attention to how the most intimate of all social relationships—the family—supports and replicates social hierarchies, exclusions and struggles for dominance, the book problematizes the source of horror. The consideration of horror narratives through the lens of familial intimacies makes it possible to rethink genre boundaries, to question the efficacy of certain genre tropes and to consider the contribution of such
