Tower's Third Reader David Bates Tower, 1849 The Gradual Reader David Bates Tower, 1852 The Worcester Talisman, 1828 Talk about Books! Liz Knowles, Martha Smith, 2003-07-30 Book clubs literature circles and reading groups are great ways to promote literacy and books to young readers This new guide provides everything you need to run a dynamic no fuss book discussion group with elementary and middle school students Featuring 15 titles of diverse genres it offers discussion topics and activity ideas for some of the best new reads for kids Brought to you by the authors of the highly acclaimed Reading Rules Motivating Teens to Read this guide is an outstanding resource for starting and running a stellar literary discussion group whether it's in a school public library or community center Grades 4 8 Church in the Wild Brett Malcolm Grainger, 2019-05-13 A religious studies scholar argues that in antebellum America evangelicals not Transcendentalists connected ordinary Americans with their spiritual roots in the natural world We have long credited Emerson and his fellow Transcendentalists with revolutionizing religious life in America and introducing a new appreciation of nature Breaking with Protestant orthodoxy these New Englanders claimed that God could be found not in church but in forest fields and streams Their spiritual nonconformity had thrilling implications but never traveled far beyond their circle In this essential reconsideration of American faith in the years leading up to the Civil War Brett Malcolm Grainger argues that it was not the Transcendentalists but the evangelical revivalists who transformed the everyday religious life of Americans and spiritualized the natural environment Evangelical Christianity won believers from the rural South to the industrial North this was the true popular religion of the antebellum years Revivalists went to the woods not to free themselves from the constraints of Christianity but to renew their ties to God Evangelical Christianity provided a sense of enchantment for those alienated by a rapidly industrializing world In forested camp meetings and riverside baptisms in private contemplation and public water cures in electrotherapy and mesmerism American evangelicals communed with nature God and one another A distinctive spirituality emerged pairing personal piety with a mystical relation to nature As Church in the Wild reveals the revivalist attitude toward nature and the material world which echoed that of Catholicism spread like wildfire among Christians of all backgrounds during the years leading up to the Civil War Understanding Diversity Through Novels and Picture Books Liz Knowles, Martha Smith, 2007-05-30 Understanding Diversity Through Novels and Picture Books goes beyond the usual multicultural lists and looks at the wide expanse of the diversity of cultures and lifestyles impacting children's lives in America today and identifies good books to have in library collections for them to read. Included are annotated titles with discussion questions from all of the identified cultures and subcultures and annotated teacher/librarian resources, print and Web-based, as well as an excellent list of topical annotated journal articles. Grades 4-8. Knowles and Smith examine current research on diversity and multiculturalism. They move away from the traditional aspects of multicultural education—food, fashion, folktales, festivals, and famous people—to a focus on novels and picture books and realistic fiction to show children with diversity issues that there are others in similar positions. The issue of authenticity—whether the author of the book should be of that culture or merely familiar with the culture—is discussed. Topics include Ethnicities: Asian, Latino, Hispanic, African, Black, Native American, White, European; Bi/Multiracial; Exceptionalities; Ageism; Socioeconomic Status; Sexual Orientation; Gender; and Religion. The authors provide this valuable resource for libraries, schools, and communities that wish to utilize literature to help diverse students walk in the shoes of others and to match books to children and young adults to heighten understanding and acceptance. Grades 4-8.
