Reframing Western Comics in

Translation Nicolas Martinez, 2023-11-20 This book adopts an intermedial translational and transnational approach to the study of the Western genre in European Francophone comics and their English and Spanish translations offering an innovative form of analysis with potential applications in future research on the translation of comics Martinez takes the application of Bourdieu's work on the sociology of culture to translation studies to explore the role of diverse social agents in shaping the products processes and reception of translations of Western comics The book focuses on Jean Michel Charlier and Jean Giraud's iconic Blueberry Western comic book series as a lens through which to examine agency and sociocultural norms that influence translations and the degrees to which cartoonists editors translators and censors frame the genre on a global scale The volume both extends the borders of translation studies research beyond interlingual translation and showcases the study of comics and graphic narratives as an area of inquiry in its own right within the field This book will be of interest to scholars in translation studies comics studies visual culture and cultural studies European Comics in English Translation Randall William Scott, 2002 European comic authors produced a steady stream of comic material throughout the twentieth century but gained the world's notice in 1975 when the French magazine Metal Hurlant was founded A new generation of artists and writers had begun Soon publishers were producing translations of the new comics into other languages including English and comics creators everywhere were inspired to innovation This is a reference work arranged by artist or writer to European comics from the last quarter of the twentieth century that have been translated from any European language into English It contains a variety of material from the innocent imperialism of Herge's Tintin to the sadistic murder for hire in Bernet's Torpedo Albums by a single creator or artist and writer team of European origin are the focus comics in periodicals and anthologies with multiple contributors are excluded Each entry provides a plot abstract and various notes about the original comic An author index provides brief biographical information There is a comprehensive general index The Comic Book Western Christopher Conway, Antoinette Sol, 2022-06 The Comic Book Western explores

Weiner, 2008-09-18 This work provides an extensive guide for students fans and collectors of Marvel Comics Focusing on Marvel's mainstream comics the author provides a detailed description of each comic along with a bibliographic citation listing the publication's title writers artists publisher ISBN if available and a plot synopsis One appendix provides a comprehensive alphabetical index of Marvel and Marvel related publications to 2005 while two other appendices provide selected lists of Marvel related game books and unpublished Marvel titles Masters of the Ninth Art

Matthew Screech, 2005-01-01 In English speaking countries Francophone comic strips like Hergé's Les Aventures de Tin Tin and Goscinny and Uderzo's Les Aventures d'Asterix are viewed and marketed as children's literature But in Belgium and

France their respective countries of origin such strips known as bandes dessinées are considered a genuine art form or more specifically the ninth art But what accounts for the drastic difference in the way such comics are received In Masters of the Ninth Art Matthew Screech explores that difference in the reception and reputation of bandes dessinées Along with in depth looks at Tin Tin and Asterix Screech considers other major comics artists such as Jacques Tardi Jean Giraud and Moebius assessing in the process their role in Francophone literary and artistic culture Illustrated with images from the artists discussed Masters of the Ninth Art will appeal to students of European popular culture literature and graphic art
