All I Ever Needed To Know I Learned On My Mission:

All I Ever Needed to Know I Learned on My Mission Jeff Skousen, 2018-09-20 Many future Latter day Saint missionaries have been told in general terms what to expect in the mission field but they have rarely been able to comprehend the day to day rigors they will face until now At last comes a book that moves beyond the usual missionary advice to give specific examples of experiences that await many missionaries in the mission field Each chapter relates a story about a specific principle or gospel doctrine with a scriptural basis and moral at the end of the chapter With amusing and revealing anecdotes Jeff Skousen has crafted an entertaining guide that tackles various subjects such as obtaining a testimony dealing with anti Mormon literature handling ministers of diverse faiths and helping investigators through times of tragedy or doubt In the same mode as All I Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten every chapter is loaded with insights that will touch both the heart and mind of those preparing to serve a mission and those who already have The
