

ALL IN A NIGHT'S WORK

A beautiful young woman, clad only in a bath towel, is seen running from the hotel suite of multimillionaire Colonel Ryder, founder of a New York publishing empire. Hours later, the elderly gentleman is found - dead- with a smile on his face. And the speculation as to who put it there (and how much it might cost to keep her quiet) leads to hilarious romantic complications for Dean Martin and Shirley Maclaine.

Katie Robbins, a researcher in Ryder's publishing company, is the innocent young lady under the infamous towel. She finds herself in hot water when Ryder's nephew and heir, Tony Ryder, and his board of directors assume that Katie will attempt to turn a profit from Ryder's compromising demise. But blackmail hasn't entered Katie's mind - as Tony discovers when he romances her to save the company from scandal and falls head over heels in love.
