All We Know Of Heaven:

All We Know of Heaven Rémy Rougeau, 2002 With careful prose and a tone of humble striving New York Times Book Review this revelatory first novel by a cloistered monk traces a young man's search for wisdom among the inhabitants of a Cistercian monastery In 1973 Paul Seneschal a shy nineteen year old from rural Manitoba takes flight from the world behind the wrought iron gates of St Norbert Abbey Here forty monks grow their own food wake at three in the morning to pray and converse largely through a spare but expressive vocabulary of hand signals Renamed Brother Antoine Paul strives for wisdom and holiness yet life within the cloister can't block out all of humanity's foibles One monk lapses into pyromania another a French Canadian attacks any English speaker who gets too close another resembles a bald Martha Ray We soon see that even in this rarefied realm human folly nestles cheek by jowl with the divine A wise yet refreshingly humorous account of a life of faith ALL WE KNOW OF HEAVEN offers an a fascinating glimpse into a quiet world that very few people know about

Robert Frost and the New England Renaissance George Monteiro, 2021-05-11 A poem is best read in the light of all the other poems ever written So said Robert Frost in instructing readers on how to achieve poetic literacy George Monteiro's newest book follows that dictum to enhance our understanding of Frost's most valuable poems by demonstrating the ways in which they circulate among the constellations of great poems and essays of the New England Renaissance Monteiro reads Frost's own poetry not against all the other poems ever written but in the light of poems and essays by his precursors particularly Emerson Thoreau and Dickinson Familiar poems such as Mending Wall After Apple Picking Birches Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening The Road Not Taken and Mowing as well as lesser known poems such as The Draft Horse The Ax Helve The Bonfire Dust of Snow A Cabin in the Clearing The Cocoon and Pod of the Milkweed are renewed by fresh and original readings that show why and how these poems pay tribute to their distinguished sources Frost's insistence that Emerson and Thoreau were the giants of nineteenth century American letters is confirmed by the many poems variously influenced that derive from them His attitude toward Emily Dickinson however was more complex and sometimes less generous In his twenties he molded his poetry after hers But later after he joined the faculty of Amherst College he found her to be less a benefactor than a competitor Monteiro tells a two stranded tale of attraction imitation and homage countered by competition denigration and grudging acceptance of Dickinson's greatness as a woman poet In a daring move he composes out of Frost's own words and phrases the talk on Emily Dickinson that Frost was never invited to give In showing how Frost's work converses with that of his predecessors Monteiro gives us a new Frost whose poetry is seen as the culmination of an intensely felt New England literary experience

Moreland,2004-01-29 Death and what lies beyond is not something you consider every day But the thought of it raises some intriguing questions Are there good reasons for believing in life after death What is the afterlife like How valid are the reports of near death experiences Do heaven and hell exist And if so how can hell be reconciled with a loving God By sharing the very latest scientific philosophical anthropological ethical and theological evidence on life after death noted Christian scholars Habermas and Moreland present a strong case for immortality with this book They begin by taking up the question of whether life after death is real and what evidence supports its reality They then explore what the afterlife is like and go on to show how having this reality in your future should affect the way you live here and now This book will reassure you that there s no need to fear death as long as you re prepared eternity that follows It s also a great aid in developing a serious biblical rational and even scientific defense for the belief in life beyond the grave Church Book for the Use of Evangelical Lutheran Congregation General Council of
