Inventing Authenticity Carrie Helms Tippen, 2018-08-12 In Inventing Authenticity Carrie Helms Tippen examines the rhetorical power of storytelling in cookbooks to fortify notions of southernness Tippen brings to the table her ongoing hunt for recipe cards and evaluates a wealth of cookbooks with titles like Y all Come Over and Bless Your Heart and famous cookbooks such as Sean Brock s Heritage and Edward Lee s Smoke and Pickles She examines her own southern history grounding it all in a thorough understanding of the relevant literature The result is a deft and entertaining dive into the territory of southern cuisine black eyed peas and cornbread fried chicken and fried okra pound cake and peach cobbler and a look at and beyond southern food tropes that reveals much about tradition identity and the yearning for authenticity Tippen discusses the act of cooking as a way to perform and therefore reinforce the identity associated with a recipe and the complexities inherent in attempts to portray the foodways of a region marked by a sometimes distasteful history Inventing Authenticity meets this challenge head on delving into problems of cultural appropriation and representations of race thorny questions about authorship and more The commonplace but deceptively complex southern cookbook can sustain our sense of where we come from and who we are or who we think we are History of Natto and Its Relatives (1405-2012) William Shurtleff,Akiko Aoyagi,2012 The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture (Volume 1 of 2) (EasyRead Large Bold Edition) , Canadian Books in Print. Perception Marvin Griffin,2019-08-29 A jarring alluring and magnanimous compilation of think pieces that penetrate the mind and reverberate deeply throughout the soul From Perception s outset Griffin unapologetically confronts uncomfortable constructs like race racism social stratification religion and sexuality and challenges the reader to use metacognition as a tool for self evaluation reconciliation and holistic growth Griffin uses a sophisticated fearless and unbounded approach to seamlessly weave together and deconstruct topics like freedom love suppression oppression and depression as well The book does a phenomenal job highlighting how in depth personal ideologies and knowledge impact the way individuals navigate the world as well as how their emotions manifest throughout divergent parts of their journeys In the book Griffin often cautions readers about life s frailties and uncertainties and encourages them to develop empathy and humility toward themselves and others for the betterment of society His uncanny literary methodology creates a perfect storm of illusion and disillusionment for readers to grapple with as they digest the sobering juxtapositions of emancipation discrimination and racial injustice in twenty first century America These troubling truths yet refreshing realities are sure to evoke a combination of inner turmoil and remorse social and spiritual connectedness personal stewardship and revelation a robust call to action for psychological transformation Metaphorically the book Perception is the type of thrill seeking emotional roller coaster ride that will not only leave you reeling emphatically with incalculable plot twisting curiosity it will literally alter your perceptions hearts mindsets and dispositions as well

Cooking Lessons Sherrie A. Inness,2001-08-07 Meatloaf fried chicken Jell O cake because foods are so very common we rarely think about them much in depth The authors of Cooking Lessons however believe that food is deserving of our critical scrutiny and that such analysis yields many important lessons about American society and its values This book explores the relationship between food and gender Contributors draw from diverse sources both contemporary and historical and look at women from various cultural backgrounds including Hispanic traditional southern White and African American Each chapter focuses on a certain food teasing out its cultural meanings and showing its effect on women s identity and lives For example food has often offered women a traditional way to gain power and influence in their households and larger communities For women without access to other forms of creative expression preparing a superior cake or batch of fried chicken was a traditional way to display their talent in an acceptable venue On the other hand foods and the stereotypes attached to them have also been used to keep women and men too from different races ethnicities and social classes in their place
