Courage To Lead A Whole School Development Approach:

The Courage to Lead Louise Sterling, Sue Davidoff, 2000 The introduction of outcomes based education has necessitated a change in the leadership structures within schools New education policies have been introduced that are intended to delegate far more authority and responsibility for leadership and management to school leaders than has been the case before This book draws on the Teacher In service Project s experience of working with school leaders who have been engaged in the process of making the adjustment It challenges school leaders to reflect critically on their own approaches to leadership The book offers a learning process rather than merely providing tips or describing facts It is a companion text to The Learning School as it offers a practical application of the theory and principles espoused in that text Education

Management in Early Childhood Development Corinne Meier, 2007 This title presents the management of Early Childhood Development ECD centres for children from birth to nine years old Education Management and

Leadership Anusha Naidu, Thandi Ngcobo, 2008 Education leadership and management have changed dramatically since 1994 with the changes in legislation governing schools The new policies involve the learners educators and parents to a larger extent in terms of managing schools This text looks at these changes and the practical implications of the policies It explores management skills such as communication understanding systems planning and accountability It gives detailed explanations of the new management systems by looking at different aspects of each piece of legislation as well as the way in which it relates to the numerous role players involved in managing a school This book has the advantage of taking into account all aspects of managing the whole school environment in a very practical manner Time is Tight Matt
