All The Rivers Run:

All the Rivers Run into the Sea Kathleen Stauffer, 2011-04-27 Karens love of the water started as a child when her family visited Lake Itasca the very beginning of the Mississippi River As a child she understood that we come from God and we return to God much like a river and its source With all its twists and turns a river is fascinating yet unpredictable like life From the book We all meet someone in life who affects us for the rest of our life whether we want them to or not For me it was Bill then it was Martin then it was Dan and then it was ____ You see how it goes We find ourselves longing for someone or something that is not Is it because we do not know how to love Karens story may cause you to reconsider what love really is Ecclesiastes 1 7 All the rivers run into the sea yet the sea is not full unto the place from whence the rivers come thither they return again

Commentary on Ecclesiastes contains nearly 700 pages of commentary What if Charles Spurgeon helped you prepare next Sunday s sermon Or what if you could talk over your preaching with Joseph Parker Richard Baxter Henry Ward Beecher and H P Liddon Do you think it would make a difference to get the input of some of the greatest preachers who ever lived That s precisely what Joseph Exell had in mind when he put together the massive series of volumes called The Biblical Illustrator In what can only be called a Herculean feat he spent years gathering preaching notes and sermon outlines from the very best preachers of his day in the late 1800s and early 1900s and he did it covering every book of the Bible And it is amazingly comprehensive Exell approached his task by taking every verse in the Bible and seeking to discover how it has been preached in the past Though there is plenty of exegetical material here this is not primarily a commentary This series is for preachers teachers Bible students and anyone else looking for penetrating pastoral insights from some of the all time greats of the faith
