All Things As They Are Recollections Of The Sixties And Beyond:

The Sixties and Beyond Nancy Christie, Stephen J. Heathorn, Michael Gauvreau, 2013-03-07 In the decades following the Second World War North America and Western Europe experienced widespread secularization and dechristianization many scholars have pinpointed the 1960s as a pivotally important period in this decline The Sixties and Beyond examines the scope and significance of dechristianization in the western world between 1945 and 2000 A thematically wide ranging and interdisciplinary collection The Sixties and Beyond uses a framework that compares the social and cultural experiences of North America and Western Europe during this period The internationally based contributors examine the dynamic place of Christianity in both private lives and public discourses and practices by assessing issues such as gender relations family life religious education the changing relationship of church and state and the internal dynamics of religious organizations The Sixties and Beyond is an excellent contribution to the burgeoning scholarship on the 1960s as well as to the history of Christianity in the western world

Spreading the Word Ross Talarico, 1995 Describes a unique approach for eliciting poetry from people of many ages and backgrounds particularly underprivileged urban kids and the elderly The process from dialogue to self expression to publication to public event illuminates the urgency and meaning of releasing the spirit captured in each man and woman and child s experience

Calling Home Janet Zandy, 1990 Working class women are the majority of women in the United States and yet their work and their culture are rarely visible Calling Home is an anthology of writings by and about working class women Over fifty selections represent the ethnic racial and geographic diversity of working class experience This is writing grounded in social history not in the academy Traditional boundaries of genre and periodization collapse in this collection which includes reportage oral histories speeches songs and letters as well as poetry stories and essays The divisions in this collection telling stories bearing witness celebrating solidarity address the distinction of by or about working class women and show the connections between individual identity and collective sensibility in a common history of struggle for economic justice The geography of home identity parents sex motherhood the dominance of the job the overlapping of private and public worlds the promise of solidarity and community are a few of the themes of this book Here is a chorus of working class women s voices Sandra Cisneros Barbara Garson Meridel Le Sueur Tillie Olsen Barbara Smith Endesha I M Holland Mother Jones Nellie Wong Agnes Smedley Bobbie Louise Hawkins Sharon Doubiago Carol Tarlen Hazel Hall Margaret Randall Judy Grahn and many others The aesthetic impulse is shaped by class but not limited to one ruling class What connects these writers is a collective consciousness a class which rejects bondage and lays claim to liberation through all the possibilities of language Calling Home is illustrated with family photographs as well as images of working women by professional photographers

Hearts and Times , 1992 Talarico a poet in Rochester N Y here seeks to distill a literary essence from firstperson histories he collected from Americans representing a wide range of geographical and social backgrounds The verses of these transcribed autobiographical memories each preceded by a prose summary typically concern poignant incidents an important decision in the subject's life or often a never-before-revealed romantic episode The memory project Talarico explains is part of the citizens writing group programs he has organized to foster creative self-expression among children and elderly alike Although Talarico often incorporates a verbatim phrase from the subjects accounts presented to the author or group the sophistication of his verses tends to overshadow the emotions of the men and women who experienced them

Documentary Aesthetics in the Long 1960s in Eastern Europe and Beyond

,2023-12-18 This book is the first to deal with documentary aesthetic practices of the post war period in Eastern Europe in a comparative perspective The contributions examine the specific forms and modes of documentary representations and the role they played in the formation of new aesthetic trends during the cultural political transition of the long 1960s This documentary first hand approach to the world aimed to break up unquestioned ideological structures and expose tabooed truths in order to engender much needed social changes New ways of depicting daily life writing testimony or subjective reportage emerged that still shape cultural debates today

SOUTH PHILLY MEMORIES Samuel Sbraccia,2014-09-30 To me growing up in South Philly was truly a wonderful and great experience I really believe that you must have lived there yourself to really understand exactly what I am saying and why You see to me South Philly is unlike anywhere else and I will try to make you understand why South Philadelphia is a place of living life to the fullest and really appreciating it There were wonderful foods fast cars beautiful girls and really good deals for things that supposedly just happened to drop off the backs of trucks love caring for others and their situations and much more

México Beyond 1968 Jaime M. Pensado,Enrique C. Ochoa,2018-09-18 This book offers a critical look at Mexican activism that expands our understanding of social movements during the Global 1960s Provided by publisher

The Front of Beyond and Other Curious Tales Peter Edwards,2005 A doorway to a strange parallel world that looks surprisingly and rather disappointingly like our own A historian seeking evidence of ESP in Victorian London stumbles on a group who condemn him as a man who knows too much to a ghastly fate And a man who discovers his mother is older than he thought Much older It's all here in these sixteen stories ranging from the macabre to the downright zany Written over a period of twenty years these curious tales reflect one man's love of the sci fi and horror worlds From the moment he picked up a lurid copy of Princess of Mars the author was hooked There's a spoof of the EC genre where zombies talk dirty and a tip of the hat to the Weekly World News There are gruesome stories that dredge up ancient magic from darker times And there are tales of glittering starships and heroes with laser guns dangling from the hip This is the world where science and fantasy mingle a world where the spaceship lands by the haunted castle

Beyond Death's Door Gerald Wheeler,2009 People have been trying to comprehend death for millennia nearly every culture known to humanity has put forth some theory of what happens to a person after life But who knows what really happens Not one of us alive today has experience death firsthand Although the Bible has much to say on the subject of death there are several conflicting views of the afterlife Which one is actually biblical And which view does science support Beyond

Death's Door examines the Bible and science for the truth about the afterlife and discovers that one of the first lies told humanity has been taught as gospel truth for thousands of years The Golden Age of Yorkshire Steam and Beyond Peter Hadfield, 2021-01-18 The Golden Age of Yorkshire Steam and Beyond includes a wealth of unique memories and experiences from a collection of railway enthusiasts who in their youth were fascinated by the steam locomotives that ruled the rails Discover what it was like growing up in York and experiencing the sights and sounds of the giants of the former LNER system including A4s A3s A2s A1s and V2s along with the Jubilees the Royal Scots and Black Fives of the former LMS system and the BR Standards Explore life on the footplate of the engines allocated to Royston shed right up to the end of steam Read about the push and pull service that ran from Cudworth Barnsley Cudworth across the iconic Oaks Viaduct as well as the Barnsley Doncaster and York Doncaster Darlington journeys Memories of Leeds Normanton Doncaster Wath and Penistone are also included in addition to shed layout drawings of Royston Doncaster and York Providing a fascinating insight into a railway system now long gone the book is designed to ignite the memories of anyone who enjoyed the thrill of trainspotting during the 1950s and early 1960s when steam was still king before the rapid introduction of diesel and electric traction led to the complete elimination of steam from the rail network in 1968 with the exception of Flying Scotsman The 1970s saw the return of steam on the mainline with steam specials powered by preserved locomotives The Partition of the Indian Subcontinent (1947) and Beyond Chhanda Chatterjee, 2023-03-24 The book is a comprehensive study of border related issues arising from the 1947 Partition of India It looks at various cases of border disputes and affrays such as disputes related to the incorporation of princely states like Kashmir and Jaunpur the agitation for the creation of new political entities post partition reconstruction of Punjab and old pre partition Punjabi leaders losing their relevance the Kamtapuri movement Khasi and Mizo and Chin dissatisfactions as well as the secession of East Pakistan in 1971 An important contribution to the study of borders the volume will be useful for students and researchers of modern Indian history colonial India Partition studies borderland studies refugee studies minority studies political science film studies postcolonial studies and South Asian studies Conflicted Memories Konrad H. Jarausch, Thomas Lindenberger, 2007-05-01 Despite the growing interest in general European history the European dimension is surprisingly absent from the writing of contemporary history In most countries the historiography on the 20th century continues to be dominated by national perspectives Although there is cross national work on specific topics such as occupation or resistance transnational conceptions and narratives of contemporary European history have yet to be worked out This volume focuses on the development of a shared conception of recent European history that will be required as an underpinning for further economic and political integration so as to make lasting cooperation on the old continent possible It tries to overcome the traditional national framing that ironically persists just at a time when organized efforts to transform Europe from an object of debate to an actual subject have some chance of succeeding in making it into a polity in its own right The 60s Communes Timothy Miller, 2015-02-01 The greatest wave of communal living in American history crested in the tumultuous 1960s era including the early 1970s To the fascination and amusement of more decorous citizens hundreds of thousands of mostly young dreamers set out to build a new culture apart from the established society Widely believed by the larger public to be sinks of drug ridden sexual immorality the communes both intrigued and repelled the American people The intentional communities of the 1960s era were far more diverse than the stereotype of the hippie commune would suggest A great many of them were religious in basis stressing spiritual seeking and disciplined lifestyles Others were founded on secular visions of a better society Hundreds of them became so stable that they survive today This book surveys the broad sweep of this great social yearning from the first portents of a new type of communitarianism in the early 1960s through the waning of the movement in the mid 1970s Based on more than five hundred interviews conducted for the 60s Communes Project among other sources it preserves a colorful and vigorous episode in American history The book includes an extensive directory of active and non active communes complete with dates of origin and dissolution

On Becoming a Democracy Chabini Manganyi, 2021-11-15 This collection of essays analyses and illustrates some of most poignant and difficult problems facing South Africa in the near future The authors in this book make an original contribution to the discussion and cut through the rather sterile claim that South Africa's circumstances are exceptional

Beyond the Stars: Themes and ideologies in American popular film Paul Loukides, Linda K. Fuller, 1990 The third of five volumes of new scholarship on American movie conventions The 19 essays explore cinematic representations of such material items as food weapons clothing tools technology and art and literature Not illustrated No index Paper edition unseen 13 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

PENTHOUSE MEMORIES Graham Armitage, 2012-01-15 Graham Armitage was born in Scarborough grew up in Scarborough and as he says Mis spent my youth and teenage years in the town A fair amount of those teenage years were taken up in attending a night club called the Penthouse which graced St Nicholas Street in the centre of the town for around ten years mainly during the 1970s For Graham and for many others of that era the club represented not merely somewhere to go at the weekend but also an attitude of mind and a way of life This as well as enabling him and many others to attend an excellent club which punched well above its weight by regularly putting on some of the best rock and folk music to be found anywhere in the country at that time In fact many bands of those days were spotted elsewhere and were asked to play at the Penthouse when they were growing and many then went on to much greater fame country and in some cases world wide

Beyond White Picket Fences Catherine Simpson Bueker, 2025-09-12 Wellesley Massachusetts has long been considered the archetypal New England WASP community However as new groups moved in over the 20th and 21st centuries Wellesley has undergone slow but consistent change transforming into a more demographically diverse and multilayered town In Beyond White Picket Fences sociologist Catherine Simpson Bueker explores how Wellesley has been shaped and continues to be shaped by its diversity Drawing on interviews archival data and participant observations Bueker examines how Italian Jewish and Chinese newcomers influenced and were influenced by the established Wellesley community. She examines the ways in which immigrant and ethnic groups assimilate, retain their cultural backgrounds, and respond to discrimination, sometimes simultaneously and in doing so alter the mainstream. Some new residents responded to Wellesley by assimilating to it. They developed relationships with long-term resident neighbors, volunteered in their children's schools, and ran for elected positions. In adapting themselves to their new community, however, they also influenced it by virtue of their distinct cultural backgrounds. Other new residents worked to preserve their cultures by establishing ethnic-specific organizations, lobbying to have new holidays incorporated into the calendar, and hewing to their own ethnic culinary traditions. Their efforts also influenced the established community. When newcomers attempted to retain their culture by requesting ethnic-specific food items be stocked at the local grocery store, opening ethnic restaurants, or renting space for a new organization, for example, they impacted the established community. New individuals and groups also responded to experiences of hostility and discrimination. Italian residents fought against attempts at school redistricting targeting them in the 1930s. Jewish residents pushed back against housing discrimination in the 1950s and 1960s, and Chinese residents responded to anti-Asian incidents in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020. These groups had to engage with the larger community to rectify these injustices. Some of the changes in Wellesley have come about with little recognition or response; others have been met with resistance and anger. Whether the changes are subtle or obvious, and whether new groups are embraced or resisted, the whole town is altered in an ongoing process as new groups continue to move to and settle in Wellesley. Beyond White Picket Fences is a timely and compelling examination of the ways newcomers become part of and shape American communities. Care Alumni

Memories, Christmas TV Memories Herbie J. Pilato, 2024-10-15 For most of us, fond memories of the Christmas season are inseparable from TV's holiday presentations. The world loves everything from iconic cartoons like How the Grinch Stole Christmas and A Charlie Brown Christmas to the ground-breaking Julia sitcom segment I'm Dreaming of a Black Christmas, Christmas in Rockefeller Center, and the 1992 TV remake of Christmas in Connecticut directed by Arnold Schwarzenegger. Christmas TV Memories: Nostalgic Holiday Favorites of the Small Screen embraces it all, offering a tinsel-decked trapeze down memory lane and chronicling animated classics, variety shows made for TV, features, and holiday-specific episodes of series like The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet and The Mary Tyler Moore Show. With a foreword by best-selling Free to Be You and Me author and That Girl star Marlo Thomas, along with commentary from other celebrities, historical quotes, and insights from entertainment journalists and archivists, Christmas TV Memories serves as the go-to companion to the small screen's most cherished holiday programs. Beyond the Rhetoric Ronald Ziffer, 2008-10-09 The author, Ronald Ziffer, has been an active member of Alcoholics Anonymous since March of 1987. He has been deeply involved in all levels of the AA program while doing a great deal of service in the AA community. The book is a true reflection of Ron's journey through countless meetings and fellowship acquaintances during his first twenty years in the program. It is an accurate representation of the thoughts feelings and perceptions of his consummate AA experience While some may find him somewhat controversial they certainly can not denounce the courage and fortitude it took to break his anonymity and write this book
