All Consuming Images:

All Consuming Images Stuart Ewen, 1988-11 Depicts the evolution of an increasingly style conscious society from the time when style was an exclusive prerogative of aristocratic elites to today when it fascinates millions All Consuming Images Stuart Ewen, 1999 All Consuming Images Stuart Ewen, 1999 A provocative compelling and entertaining look at how the power of images dominates every aspect of our lives A Diversity of Women Joy Parr, 1995-01-01 Our perception of women's roles has changed dramatically since 1945 In this collection Joy Parr has brought together ten studies from a variety of disciplines examining changing ideas about women Mariana Valverde writes about teenage girls in the immediate postwar years and finds that stereotypes of a supposedly simple secure politically quiescent and sexually conformist life do not really hold Joy Parr follows women shoppers of the early 1950s in their sometimes comical encounters with male designers manufacturers and retailers in search of the tools and totems of modernity for their homes Increasingly these homes were in suburban subdivisions whose pleasures and possibilities for women Veronica Strong Boag reconsiders Joan Sangster reminds us that wage earning mothers were numerous in the fifties and sixties and through a juxtaposition of their own stories with contemporary studies tells much about these self denying women's lives Franca Iacovetta discusses the experiences of immigrant and refugee women in northwestern and south central Ontario experiences that were interpreted through their starkly different European wartime memories Based upon her work among the rural women of southwestern Ontario Nora Cebotarev charts the changes that transformed farm families and finances from the sixties to the eighties Ester Reiter compares the recollections of women who had worked together during the 1960s in an auto parts plant in the Niagara Peninsula with contemporary newspaper accounts of a strike and leads us into a complex narrative of gender and militancy Nancy Adamson reconsiders the diversity of feminist organizing within the province over the decades since second wave feminism began she tracks the different needs and paths that brought women to the women's liberation movement and the ways in which their feminist analysis arose from their experience as community activists Linda Cardinal writes about Franco Ontarian women charting the ways in which feminist activists challenged and were challenged as they worked with traditional farm and church based women's groups in northern and eastern Ontario Marlene Brant Castellano and Janice Hill introduce us to four aboriginal women Edna Manitowabi Jeannette Corbiere Lavell Sylvia Maracle and Emily Faries whose work has been to reclaim and build upon the knowledge and responsibilities long entrusted to the women of Ontario's First Nations Disturbing Pleasures Henry A. Giroux, 2012-11-12 In Disturbing Pleasures Henry Giroux demonstrates how his well known theories of education critical pedagogy and popular culture can be put to use in the classroom and in other cultural settings Adding an entirely new dimension to his thinking about the cultural sites at which pedagogical practice takes place Giroux illustrates how professors school teachers and other cultural workers can appropriate what he refers to as a pedagogy of cultural studies Inventing the Modern Artist Sarah Burns, 1996-01-01 Describes how late Victorian culture encouraged the evolution of art as a career discussing such inventions as art therapy and bohemianism and exploring artists complicated and confused gender roles Awakening Youth Discipleship Brian J. Mahan, Michael Warren, David F. White, 2008-01-01 Youth ministry has increasingly lost touch with its origins in the way of Jesus and the social practices intrinsic to Christian discipleship and has instead substituted layers of Jesus talk middle class values fun and games and doses of warm fellow feeling Awakening Youth Discipleship articulates the history of this domestication of youth and ministry Mahan Warren and White tell a story of the ways in which our society has colluded to shape a domesticated adolescence The authors believe a Christian response to this challenge must be multilevel addressing the problem at three levels society church and individual The authors propose reclaiming practices of discernment that both engage congregations in social awareness and involve individuals in discerning fuller vocational opportunities than those allowed by popular cultural norms

Modernist America Richard Pells, 2011-03-29 America's global cultural impact is largely seen as one sided with critics claiming that it has undermined other countries languages and traditions But contrary to popular belief the cultural relationship between the United States and the world has been reciprocal says Richard Pells The United States not only plays a large role in shaping international entertainment and tastes it is also a consumer of foreign intellectual and artistic influences Pells reveals how the American artists novelists composers jazz musicians and filmmakers who were part of the Modernist movement were greatly influenced by outside ideas and techniques People across the globe found familiarities in American entertainment resulting in a universal culture that has dominated the twentieth and twenty first centuries and fulfilled the aim of the Modernist movement to make the modern world seem more intelligible Modernist America brilliantly explains why George Gershwin's music Cole Porter's lyrics Jackson Pollock's paintings Bob Fosse's choreography Marlon Brando's acting and Orson Welles's storytelling were so influential and why these and other artists and entertainers simultaneously represent both an American and a modern global culture The Politics of the Superficial Brett Ommen, 2016-06-30 The Politics of the Superficial argues that the increasing volume of visually communicative surfaces in public life contributes to a very particular form of public imagination and political activity Masculinity and Irish

Popular Culture Conn Holohan, Tony Tracy, 2015-12-30 Masculinity and Irish Popular Culture Tiger's Tales is an interdisciplinary collection of essays by established and emerging scholars analysing the shifting representations of Irish men across a range of popular culture forms in the period of the Celtic Tiger and beyond Gendering Modern Japanese History Barbara Molony, Kathleen Uno, 2020-05-11 In the past quarter century gender has emerged as a lively area of inquiry for historians and other scholars and gender analysis has suggested important revisions of the master narratives of national histories the dominant often celebratory tales of the successes of a nation and its leaders Although modern Japanese history has not yet been restructured by a foregrounding of gender historians of Japan have begun to embrace gender as an analytic category The sixteen chapters in this volume treat men as well as women theories of sexuality as well as gender prescriptions and same sex as well as heterosexual relations in the period from 1868 to the present All of them take the position that history is gendered that is historians invariably perhaps unconsciously construct a gendered notion of past events people and ideas Together these essays construct a history informed by the idea that gender matters because it was part of the experience of people and because it often has been a central feature in the construction of modern ideologies discourses and institutions Separately each chapter examines how Japanese have gendered their ideas institutions and society

Modern Times Mica Nava, Alan O'Shea, 2013-04-15 Confronting the contemporary poststructuralist debate from the perspective of cultural of cultural historiography this book presents an historical study of race and ethnicity Specifically it provides an account both theoretical and applied of the combination of sexual racial and ethnic underpinning and shaping the experiences of English men and women in various colonies in the nineteenth century Although accessible for the student the book will be received seriously by both theorists and historians

The Construction of Authorship Martha Woodmansee, Peter Jaszi, 1994 What is an author What is a text At a time when the definition of text is expanding and the technology whereby texts are produced and disseminated is changing at an explosive rate the ways authorship is defined and rights conferred upon authors must also be reconsidered This volume argues that contemporary copyright law rooted as it is in a nineteenth century Romantic understanding of the author as a solitary creative genius may be inapposite to the realities of cultural production Drawing together distinguished scholars from literature law and the social sciences the volume explores the social and cultural construction of authorship as a step toward redefining notions of authorship and copyright for today's world These essays illustrating cultural studies in action are aggressively interdisciplinary and wide ranging in topic and approach Questions of collective and collaborative authorship in both contemporary and early modern contexts are addressed Other topics include moral theory and authorship copyright and the balance between competing interests of authors and the public problems of international copyright musical sampling and its impact on fair use doctrine cinematic authorship quotation and libel alternative views of authorship as exemplified by nineteenth century women's clubs and by the Renaissance commonplace book authorship in relation to broadcast media and to the teaching of writing and the material dimension of authorship as demonstrated by Milton's publishing contract Contributors Rosemary J Coombe Margreta de Grazia Marvin D Lugo John Feather N N Feltes Ann Ruggles Gere Peter Jaszi Gerhard Joseph Peter Lindenbaum Andrea A Lunsford and Lisa Ede Jeffrey A Masten Thomas Pfau Monroe E Price and Malla Pollack Mark Rose Marlon B Ross David Sanjek Thomas Streeter Jim Swan Max W Thomas Martha Woodmansee Alfred C Yen

Consumption, Identity and Style Alan Tomlinson, 2006-05-18 First Published in 1990 This is a book about the meaning of our lives as consumers It is about leisure lifestyle and markets in today's consumer culture In 1986 one measure of people's use of time in Britain identified television watching as the major activity for both men and women outside paid employment and sleeping

The Vanishing Word Arthur W. Hunt III, 2013-09-01 Is image everything For many people in our culture image and images are everything

Americans spend hours watching television but rarely finish a good book Words are quickly losing their appeal Arthur Hunt sees this trend as a direct assault on Christianity He warns that by exalting imagery we risk becoming mindless pagans Our thirst for images has dulled our minds so that we lack the biblical and mental defenses we need to resist pagan influences What about paganism Hunt contends that it never died in modern Western culture image based media just brought it to the surface again Sex violence and celebrity worship abound in our culture driving a mass media frenzy reminiscent of pagan idolatry This book is a clear warning that the church is being cut off from its word based heritage and that we are open to abuse by those who exploit the image but neglect the Word Thoughtful readers will find this a challenging call to be critical about the images bombarding our sense and to affirm that the Word is everything Unmaking Mimesis Elin

Diamond,2003-09-02 Through a series of provocative readings of theatre theory and feminist performance Diamond demonstrates the continuing force of feminism and mimesis in critical thinking today The Body in Psychotherapy Don Hanlon Johnson,Ian J. Grand,1998-05-01 The Body in Psychotherapy explores the life of the body as a basis of psychological understanding Its chapters describe the use of movement awareness exercises and bodily imagination in work with various populations and life situations It chronicles somatic work with childhood trauma political torture and life transitions such as aging the loss of parents and the emergence of a sense of self The Body in Psychotherapy is the third in a groundbreaking series that provides a theoretical and practical context for the emerging field of Somatics The first and second book of the series are Bone Breath and Gesture and Groundworks Demokratia Josiah Ober,Charles Hedrick,1996-11-17 This book is the result of a long and fruitful conversation among practitioners of two very different fields ancient history and political theory The topic of the conversation is classical Greek democracy and its contemporary relevance The nineteen contributors remain diverse in their political commitments and in their analytic approaches but all have engaged deeply with Greek texts with normative and historical concerns and with each others arguments The issues and tensions examined here are basic to both history and political theory revolution versus stability freedom and equality law and popular sovereignty cultural ideals and social practice While the authors are sharply critical of many aspects of Athenian society culture and government they are united by a conviction that classical Athenian democracy has once again become a centrally important subject for political debate The contributors are Benjamin R Barber Alan Boegehold Paul Cartledge Susan Guettel Cole W Robert Connor Carol Dougherty J Peter Euben Mogens H Hansen Victor D Hanson Carnes Lord Philip Brook Manville Ian Morris Martin Ostwald Kurt Raaflaub Jennifer Tolbert Roberts Barry S Strauss Robert W Wallace Sheldon S Wolin and Ellen Meiksins Wood

Mediating American Autobiography Sean Ross Meehan,2008 The emergence of photography in the mid nineteenth century transformed ideas about how the self and nature could be pictured Although the autobiographical potential of photography seems self evident today Sean Meehan takes us back to the birth of the medium when some of America s preeminent authors began to think about photography s implications for the representation of identity and the nature of autobiographical writing Both photography and autobiography involve a tension between disclosing and concealing their means of production a chemical process for one the writing process for the other Meehan examines how four major authors Ralph Waldo Emerson Henry David Thoreau Frederick Douglass and Walt Whitman were well aware of this tension and explored it in their work By examining the implications of early photography in their writings he shows how each engaged the new visual medium how photography mediated their conceptions of self representation and how their appropriation of photographic thinking created a new kind of autobiography Examining the metonymic nature of photography Meehan explores how the new medium influenced conceptions of visual and verbal representation He intertwines these four writers reflections on photography in Emerson s Representative Men Thoreau s journals Douglass s narratives of slavery and Whitman s Specimen Days with theories of photography as expounded by its inventors and observers from Louis Daguerre and William Talbot in Europe to Oliver Wendell Holmes and Marcus Root in America As the first book to focus on the emergence of this new visual medium during the American Renaissance Mediating American Autobiography shows us what photography means for American literature in general and for the genre most closely linked to it in particular Because the engagement of these writers with photography has been neglected in previous scholarship Meehan s work provocatively bridges the study of two media and illuminates an important aspect of American thought and culture at the dawn of the technological era
