All Heaven In A Rage:

The Ethics of Environmental Concern Robin Attfield, 2011-03-15 First published in 1983 The Ethics of Environmental Concern has become a classic in the relatively new field of environmental ethics Examining traditional attitudes toward nature and the degree to which these attitudes enable us to cope with modern ecological problems Robin Attfield looks particularly at the Judeo Christian heritage of belief in humankind's dominion the tradition of stewardship and the more recent belief in progress to determine the extent to which these attitudes underlie ecological problems and how far they embody resources adequate for combating such problems He then examines concerns of applied ethics and considers our obligations to future generations the value of life and the moral standing and significance of nonhumans Simultaneously he offers and defends a theory of moral principles appropriate for dealing with such concerns as pollution scarce natural resources population growth and the conservation and preservation of the environment The second edition includes a new preface and introduction as well as a bibliographic essay and an updated list of references incorporating relevant scholarship since the publication of the first edition

The History of Opposition to Blood Sports in Twentieth Century England Michael Tichelar, 2016-12 An interdisciplinary social history this book examines the major pressures and influences that brought about the growth of opposition to hunting in twentieth century England Based on a range of cultural social literary and political sources drawn from history sociology geography psychology and anthropology Opposition to Blood Sports in Twentieth Century England accounts for the change in our relationship with non human animals Shedding light on the manner in which this resulted in the growth in opposition to hunting and other blood sports it will appeal to those in social sciences and historians with interests in human animal relations

Heaven's Rage Tiffany Craig Brown, 2010-05-10 When four women suffer at the hands of one man the results are deadly Heaven's Rage has the usual components of a mystery novel the crime of murder a gruff but loveable protagonist and an assortment of suspects yet it presents a unique theme as it takes readers back in time to tell the stories of four women who loved one man and who are now suspects in his murder Homicide Detective Ian Buchanan is assigned to the murder investigation of Richard Tate a retired military helicopter pilot He quickly determines the victim's three former wives and college girlfriend all had motive and opportunity to commit the crime As each of these women takes us through her volatile relationship with Tate the detective finds himself sympathizing with his suspects rather than the victim GINA RODRIGUEZ is a career naval officer determined to break through the invisible barriers of a male dominated military It's 1989 and along comes Dick Tate to charm her through a whirlwind romance which leads to an explosive relationship with a drunken and abusive husband MEG MCALLISTAR is devoted to her son but manages to get away one night a week to party at a nearby naval base During one of those evenings in 1982 she meets the recently divorced Dick Tate Two years later they marry As Dick's bitter resentment of his first wife grows Meg is subjected to his frequent fits of rage JORDAN CAMPBELL is just completing her Army training when she meets Dick Tate a young pilot trainee Their brief romance is threatened when they each receive orders to opposite sides of the country prompting them to wed quickly Shortly thereafter Jordan discovers she s pregnant and is discharged from the Army COLLEEN MORGAN and Dick Tate are both members of their college swim team After dating for a couple of months Dick is becoming serious but his chameleon like moods trouble her and she decides to end the relationship ABOUT THE AUTHOR Tiffany Craig Brown is the daughter of a military officer who spent her early years traveling the world Some of her first memories include bathing beneath waterfalls in the African Bush After a brief stint in the Army she worked in corporate marketing and communications for more than twenty years Tiffany resides in Sacramento with her husband Tim and is currently working on her next novel

Animal Advocacy and Englishwomen, 1780-1900 Moira Ferguson,2025-10-01 Animal Advocacy and Englishwomen 1780 1900 focuses on women writers and their struggle to protect animals from abuse in the transition from preindustrial to Victorian society Looking critically at the work of Sarah Trimmer Susanna Watts Elizabeth Heyrick Anna Sewell and Frances Power Cobb Moira Ferguson explores the links between Britain s evolving self definition and the debate over the humane treatment of animals Ferguson contends that animal advocacy writing during this period provided a means for women to register their moral outrage over national problems extending far beyond those of animal abuse effectively allowing them to achieve a public voice as citizens The writers in question represent multiple genres time frames and political approaches Taken together their productive lives span more than a century They are ideologically divided on animal protection and their political identities range from conservative Anglican Tories to radical reformers Through their plural discourses on animal advocacy these women actively participated in an ongoing humanitarian struggle that forged a connection between Englishness and kindness to animals intensifying as industry and empire advanced and effectively linked gender with national identity and self definition Their concerns resonate in a global as well as a national context cruelty to animals emerges as a metaphor for imperial predation In this sense the writings constitute a gendered response to an evolving colonial discourse about others Moira Ferguson is James E Ryan Professor of English and Women s Literature University of Nebraska Her books include Subject to Others Colonial Slavery 1670 1834 Colonialism and Gender Relations from Mary Wollstonecraft to Jamaica Kincaid East Caribbean Connections and The History of Mary Prince A West Indian Slave Related by Herself
