Hans, 1990-07-05 This book addresses the ethical aspects of literature by discussing three major American poets Walt Whitman Wallace Stevens and A R Ammons It develops a philosophical framework by which an ethics of literature can be construed and differentiates this view from a purely political criticism on the one hand and a purely disinterested criticism on the other Beginning with Nietzsche s assumption that the world itself is an aesthetic place Hans shows how an ethic is always inevitably implicit in the aesthetic through which a writer constructs his work At the same time he argues that this ethic never tells us how to live our lives it only presents us with a series of constructs through which we can begin to understand the nature of valuing in the everyday world The book also examines some of the reasons why academics have resisted the ethical aspects of literature confronting the two major forces in literary criticism today political writing chiefly feminist and post structuralist chiefly deconstructionist writing The Value s of Literature goes beyond Nietzsche and Derrida s critique of Nietzsche which does not seriously approach the need for positive evaluation of the world It is precisely this positive attempt to weigh the value of things anew to which this book is devoted Said in Fun Philip Henry Welch, 1889 Kellor Michael Kahmann, 2007-04 Kellor He quit the sea to do the only other job he knew how to do to make a living working horses His small stake got him a livery and more trouble than a Cape crossing in winter Clive Portman the wealthiest man in the county controlled everything in the town of Paradise but his daughter Kate See what happens in a story that moves faster than a wind blown prairie grass fire Oriental Philosophy - I am It. Heinz Duthel, 2014-12-10 I never had fear nor doubt Death never came to me I never had father or mother for I was never born Where are my foes for I am All I am the Existence and Knowledge and Bliss Absolute I am It When a man has attained his own freedom how can he be bound by any law No law in this universe can bind him for this universe itself is his He is the whole universe Be free hope for nothing from anyone I am sure if you look back upon your lives you will find that you were always vainly trying to get help from others which never came All the help that has come was from within yourselves Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. The Secret of Meadowbrook Orphanage D. C. Johnson, Ron Rowan, 2012-05 It is said that love is the greatest gift of all but in reality there are two greatest gifts One is love that much we already know to be true However the second greatest gift is that of being a child for it is only as a child that one knows how to truly believe And it is this simple act of believing that has its own special kind of magic as you will see in this story When a child believes there is an energy that feeds everything and everyone around them It feeds even those magical beings who most adults can no longer see nor will they ever see again because they no longer know how to see that which they stopped believing in Sadly enough there are even some children who stop believing Sometimes it takes the energy of other children to awaken their beliefs again and that is also the case in this story So I invite you to reconnect to the magic that each of us once had the magic that children always hold and the magic that will bring you to a place where everything is possible All you have to do is believe
