All My Trials Lord Selections From Womens Slave Narratives:

All My Trials, Lord Mary Young, 1995 Dictated or written by former women slaves these narratives describe the suffering endured by the women and their struggles for freedom All Things Altered Marilyn Mayer Culpepper, 2014-09-18 Few readers of Margaret Mitchell's Gone with the Wind remained unmoved by how the strong-willed Scarlett O'Hara tried to rebuild Tara after the Civil War ended This book examines the problems that Southern women faced during the Reconstruction Era in Part I as mothers, wives, daughters or sisters of men burdened with financial difficulties and the radical Republican regime and in Part II with specific illustrations of their tribulations through the letters and diaries of five different women A lonely widow with young children Sally Randle Perry is struggling to get her life back together following the death of her husband in the war Virginia Caroline Smith Aiken a wife and mother born into affluence and security struggles to emerge from the financial and psychological problems of the postwar world Susan Darden also a wife and mother details the uncertainties and frustrations of her life in Fayette, Mississippi Jo Gillis tells the sad tale of a young mother straining to cope with the depressed circumstances enveloping most ministers in the aftermath of the war As the wife of a Methodist Episcopal minister in the Alabama Conference she sacrifices herself into an early grave in an attempt to further her husband's career Inability to collect a debt three times that of the 10,000 debt her father owed brought Anna Clayton Logan her eleven brothers and sisters and her parents face to face with starvation Mother Wit Malaika B. Horne, PhD, 2018-01-04 Mother Wit By Malaika B Horne PhD This book describes in a vivid and poignant manner the remarkable ability of a mid-twentieth-century Black woman living under conditions of Apartheid as practiced in the United States to overcome harsh and even grotesque societal obstacles and succeed in rearing six children That each of them went on to excel in their chosen fields is worthy of serious contemplation In addition the reader is provided insight and illumination on still-taboo topics such as colorism and intra-group violence that engender and nourish self-hate among many in the African American Community Moreover the author's penchant for candor is coupled with a constructive theme of hope and faith in the future William M Harvey PhD psychologist This is not just an evocative at times heart-rending portrait of an African American mother but as well a colorful depiction of a Mississippi cum St Louis family grappling with Jim Crow In well-written prose worthy of a cinema production this book is an instant classic meriting a place on the top shelf alongside Toni Morrison Alice Walker and Richard Wright Gerald Charles Horne PhD University of Houston A moving tribute to a devoted mother whose determination, dedication and strong character allowed her family to breach barriers of race, class and economic want to achieve measurable success Dr Horne's story of a loving mother with a keen intelligence who sacrificed all for her children is touching, inspiring and above all instructive Gwen Moore, curator, Missouri History Museum Mother Wit is a love letter first to Horne's visionary mother Flora and then to the story of imperfect people making their way together in an even more horribly imperfect world This is a story of color, of cruelty, of family and of coming to understand Horne has written the kind of family history that tells the reader much more than the surface of the story The lives of her characters family members across several generations are built upon the context of racism and all the byproducts thereof Reading their stories and seeing the strength of Flora and the children she raised is testament to tenacity and hope Faith Sandler executive director Scholarship Foundation of St Louis Blessed is the mother who inspires her children to have aspirations and shows them the necessary steps to take to make those aspirations a reality Malaika B Horne writes with a captivating style about such a mother detailing the complex journey to attain seemingly simple goals with clarity and forthrightness Blanche M Touhill PhD chancellor emerita University of Missouri St Louis

Against Empire Zillah Eisenstein,2013-07-18 In Against Empire Zillah Eisenstein extends her critique of neoliberal globalization and its capture of democratic possibilities Faced with an aggressive American empire hostage to ideological extremism and violently promoting the narrowest of its interests around the globe Eisenstein urgently looks to a global anti war movement to counter U S power Looking beyond the distortions of mainstream history Eisenstein detects the silencing of racialized sex gendered and classed ways of seeing Against Empire insists that the so called West is as much fiction as reality while the sexualized black slave trade emerges as an early form of globalization The West and western feminisms do not monopolize authorship there is a need for plural understandings of feminisms as other than western Black America India the Islamic world and Africa envision unique conceptions of what it is to be fully polyversally human Professor Eisenstein offers a rich picture of women s activism across the globe today If there is to be hope of a more peaceful more just and happier world it lies she believes in the understandings and activism of women today

Slave Narratives - Collected Works (Illustrated) Slave Narratives,2025-09-25 Slave narratives comprise a prominent tradition of American literature shaping the form and themes of some of the most celebrated and controversial writing in the country's history. The first slave narrative to become an international bestseller was the Interesting Narrative of the Life of Olaudah Equiano which introduced the slave ship through the innocent perspective of an African captive. With the rise of the abolition movement in the early nineteenth century there was a demand for hard hitting eyewitness accounts of the harsh realities of slavery. Numerous former slaves published detailed and engaging accounts of their enslavement and daring escapes to freedom. This collection provides the most notable slave narratives published on both sides of the Atlantic spanning the mid eighteenth century to the modern era. From the innovative brilliance of Henry Brown's escape in a box to Harriet Jacobs' harrowing ordeal of sexual harassment from Ellen Craft's ingenious impersonation of a white slaver to William Still's heroic accounts of the Underground Railroad from Solomon Northup's endurance through twelve years of slavery to Douglass' seminal accounts of the slavery institution these noble men and women have preserved their extraordinary tales of bravery, defiance and hope for countless generations.

Version 1 Beautifully illustrated with images relating to Slave Narrative authors. Concise introductions to all the texts. 44 separate books with individual contents tables. Rare accounts appearing for the first time in digital publishing. Images of how the books were first published giving your eReader a taste of the original texts. Excellent formatting of the texts. Easily locate the stories you want to read. Includes the complete WPA Slave Narrative Collection completed during the Great Depression preserving over 2,300 accounts available in no other collection. Ordering of texts into chronological order.
