An All-round Ministry Charles Haddon

Spurgeon, 2008 The publication of the present volume carries out a purpose which was in the mind of Mr Spurgeon many years ago It was his intention to issue in this form a selection from his Presidential Addresses at the Annual Conferences of the Pastors College The first Address here given was delivered in the year 1872 and the last in 1890 so that the series embraces many of the most memorable utterances to the members of the old College Association as well as three of the Inaugurals at the meetings of the new Evangelical Association C H Spurgeon s Final Manifesto The Greatest Fight in the World is not included in this volume as it is published separately Price 6d and 1s Mr Spurgeon always regarded the Conference week as one of the most important in the whole year and he devoted much time and thought and care and prayer to the preparation of his Addresses to the hundreds of ministers and students who then gathered together from all parts of the kingdom and from distant lands also Surrounded by his sons in the faith many of whom were his own spiritual children and all of whom delighted to call him President leader brother friend he spoke with a freedom and a homeliness which could never be excelled nor hardly equaled in any other assembly and the Addresses themselves supply abundant evidence of the solemn responsibility which he felt in speaking to such an audience and of the faithfulness with which he discharged that responsibility Though there is here the special personal appeal to his own men the subjects dealt with concern the whole Christian ministry at home and abroad using the term ministry in its widest sense as applying to all servants of the Lord Jesus Christ The clergy and ministers of all denominations home and foreign missionaries open air preachers Sunday school and Bible class teachers tract distributors and Christians of all ranks will here find much that will help them to exercise that all round ministry of which Mr Spurgeon himself was so earnest an advocate and so bright an example Prefatory note A Marvelous Ministry Tim Curnow, Erroll Hulse, 1993 Tim Curnow Erroll Hulse David Kingdon and Geoff Thomas have written seven chapters on the life and ministry of Spurgeon particularly how it would speak to the church today There are chapters on the famous Downgrade Controversy Spurgeon s involvement in politics Spurgeon s development as a preacher Spurgeon s ministry and his social concerns and several others This book gives an excellent introduction to the public ministry of the Prince of Preachers The foreword is by Dr Timothy George of the Beeson Divinity School of Samford University An All-Round Ministry: Direction, Wisdom, and Encouragement for Preachers and Pastors Charles H. C.H. Spurgeon on Spiritual Leadership Steve Miller, 2008-09-01 C H Spurgeon's passion for raising up future spiritual leaders marked his ministry Drawing on the strategies of this tremendous man of God Steve Miller presents C H Spurgeon on Spiritual Leadership for leaders interested in understanding the role of faith and conviction in forming a philosophy of spiritual leadership Miller highlights the qualities Spurgeon viewed as indispensable to servant hearted leadership Here is a comprehensive guide for the church providing help in developing leaders for today and tomorrow      An All-Round Ministry C. H. Spurgeon, 1972      One Ministry, Many Ministers Alan P.F. Sell, 2014-10-24 The heart of this book is the claim that the one church catholic comprises all who on the ground of Christ's saving work are called and gathered by God the Holy Spirit into a fellowship whose only Head is Christ himself and that all thus called are granted the high privilege of sharing in a variety of ways in the one ministry of Christ This is the vision of the Reformed churches past and present Alan Sell argues that far from being a parochial enquiry the nature of the ministry and the work and education of all the ministers are issues as relevant to the life and practice of particular local churches as they are to ecumenical discussions between the several Christian world communions      Spurgeon Keeney Dickenson, 2024-10-03 The priority a pastor places on preaching is best measured by his investment of prayer Wholehearted prayer reflects high priority and limited prayer means low priority It is tragic when sermons are mechanically written as an academic exercise with a brief invocation and benediction This book contains the tools needed to develop a pulpit ministry that is prioritized in prayer Charles Spurgeon is a worthy example of balancing theological acuity and pastoral spirituality His example as illustrated in this book will point the pastor to Christ and call him to give himself continually to prayer and the ministry of the word
