All Set About With Fever Trees And Other Stories:

All Set about with Fever Trees and Other Stories Pam Durban,1995-08-01 The seven stories in Pam Durban's widely praised debut collection are tales of family of love and loss of survival and affirmation Durban's resonant prose subtly obliges her readers to experience the rush of icy water in a stream the taste of greens freshly snatched from an overgrown garden the dread weight of confusion and uncertainty In This Heat the opening story a mill worker faces the long expected loss of her teenage son when his weak heart finally gives out In the title story which concludes the collection a formidably eccentric woman abruptly leaves her daughter and granddaughter to answer a calling to do missionary work in Africa Framed between these two stories is a gathering of characters made real and consequential by Durban's touch a country singer more than a few big breaks short of stardom a preadolescent boy lovestruck over his private swimming instructor a father cut off from his children by haunting war memories and others

The New Writers of the South Charles East,1987 Stories and selections from novels by twenty writers depict the complexities of life in the modern South The Elephants Child and Other Stories Belinda Gallagher,Miles Kelly,2011 Simply retold and wonderfully illustrated this series brings together charming tales that children will enjoy Each story takes approximately 10 minutes to read How the Lion Learned to Lead and Other

Stories John Andrew Carroll,2023-05-23 It doesn't matter if you're the lowest person on the totem pole at work you are a leader Whether it's on the job within your family at church in clubs or as a friend you are called to be a leader on a daily basis In this book of African animal fables John Andrew Carroll a successful CEO who grew up surrounded by wildlife and war in Zimbabwe explores how to be a trusted and compassionate human being as you lead and serve others develop team members who are engaged enthusiastic and inspired learn grow and adapt as a leader and help others do the same These lessons and more are shared in a series of captivating short fables that feature a self-doubting lion a belligerent rhinoceros a cute and kind meerkat a curious young elephant a conceited leopard and a chattering monkey Each fable highlights a key aspect of what makes an effective leader in today's world Full of wisdom wit and simple pleasure this book is a celebration of what it means to be human in a changed and changing world The New Georgia Encyclopedia Companion to Georgia Literature

Hugh Ruppersburg,John C. Inscoe,2011-08-15 Georgia has played a formative role in the writing of America Few states have produced a more impressive array of literary figures among them Conrad Aiken Erskine Caldwell James Dickey Joel Chandler Harris Carson McCullers Flannery O'Connor Jean Toomer and Alice Walker This volume contains biographical and critical discussions of Georgia writers from the nineteenth century to the present as well as other information pertinent to Georgia literature Organized in alphabetical order by author the entries discuss each author's life and work contributions to Georgia history and culture and relevance to wider currents in regional and national literature Lists of recommended readings supplement most entries Especially important Georgia books have their own entries works of social significance such as Lillian Smith's Strange Fruit international publishing sensations like Margaret Mitchell's Gone With the Wind and crowning artistic achievements including Jean Toomer's Cane. The literary culture of the state is also covered with information on the Georgia Review and other journals, the Georgia Center for the Book which promotes authors and reading, and the Townsend Prize given in recognition of the year's best fiction. This is an essential volume for readers who want both to celebrate and learn more about Georgia's literary heritage.

Heart Pound Ruth Bolton, 2011-01-21 HEART POUND is a collection of short stories largely of fantasy and or biography. A war veteran, a baglady, an elderly gentleman, a ventriloquist, a widow, a 19th-century girl, a business woman, and other diverse characters attempt to deal with life's provocative circumstances. Ms Bolton's early inspiration was Poe's The Telltale Heart. Subsequent stimulation came from writing groups with Barbara Follansbee of New York City and New England prize-winning authors Pat Schneider, Patricia Lee Lewis, and Cynthia Kennison.

Short Story Index, 1989 Just So Stories for Little Children Rudyard Kipling, 1998-04-02 How did the camel get his hump? Why won't cats do as they are told? Who invented reading and writing? How did an inquisitive little elephant change the lives of elephants everywhere? Kipling's imagined answers to such questions draw on the beast fables he heard as a child in India, as well as on folk traditions he later collected all over the world. He plays games with language, exploring the relationships between thought, speech, and written word. He also celebrates his own joy in fatherhood. The tales were told to his own and his friends' children over many years before he wrote them down, adding poems and his own illustrations. They invite older and younger readers to share a magical experience, each contributing to the other's pleasure, but each can also enjoy them alone, as more jokes, subtexts, and exotic references emerge with every reading. This fully illustrated edition includes two extra stories and Kipling's own explanation of the title.

ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe. Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship, providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features, including expert introductions by leading authorities, helpful notes to clarify the text, up-to-date bibliographies for further study, and much more.

Stories Wanting Only to be Heard Stephen Corey, Douglas Carlson, David Ingle, 2012 Founded at the University of Georgia in 1947 and published there ever since, The Georgia Review has become one of America's most highly regarded journals of arts and letters. Never stuffy and never shallow, The Georgia Review seeks a broad audience of intellectually open and curious readers and strives to give those readers rich content that invites and sustains repeated attention and consideration. Pulitzer Prize winners and never-before-published writers are equals during the journal's manuscript evaluation process, whose goal is to identify and print stories, poems, and essays that promise to be of lasting merit. The year 2012 marks the sixty-fifth anniversary of The Georgia Review, and Stories Wanting Only to Be Heard will acknowledge that milestone by presenting a selection of the remarkable short fiction published across the decades. The collection includes the work of well-known writers, many of whom were not yet so well known when first selected for publication by The Georgia Review, and also highlights compelling work from writers whose names may not be as familiar but whose stories are equally compelling and memorable The stories collected here each one vivid distinctive and worthwhile to read stand as testament to the significance of The Georgia Review s decades of work to identify and promote writing of exceptional quality Publication of this book was made possible in part by the President s Venture Fund through generous gifts of the University of Georgia Partners
