Putting Daoist Thought into Practice Devin K. Joshi, 2024-10-04 This book shows how Chinese wisdom originating many centuries ago is still highly relevant to our lives today as the Daoist classics provide insightful prescriptions on how to live a life full of happiness, contentment, and healthy longevity. They also provide guidance regarding personal ethics, sustainable economics, and achieving enlightenment. The book contains reflections on how to achieve happiness, drawing from the Liezi, a Daoist classic, and it examines Daoist ideas about nourishing life to achieve longevity and the marked similarity between these principles and people living in blue zones today with the highest concentration of centenarians. It explores Daoist views on consciousness and enlightenment in the Laozi and Zhuangzi and their close resemblance to some of the most influential new age teachings on the subject. It highlights the ethical character of a Daoist sage by drawing on the Daoist classic of the Wenzi and enumerates lessons for transitioning toward a sustainable economy from the Daodejing. Covering multiple dimensions of classical Daoist thought and their contemporary applications to human development and well-being, this text will usefully inform scholars, students, and researchers of Asian studies, religion, and philosophy, and individuals seeking self-improvement and personal wellness.

We've Scene it All Before Brian C. Johnson, 2009-01-01 A revolutionary tool for corporate and academic trainers, We've Scene It All Before harnesses the power of mainstream Hollywood film to enhance educational sessions about diversity and social justice. This resource manual offers practical guidance on how to effectively use the concept of difference as a starting point towards true inclusion. Seasoned and novice trainers will appreciate the suggested strategies and best practices on facilitating diversity dialogues, which are coupled with a set of twenty-five definitions that introduce and raise awareness of the personal and systemic nature of difference, discrimination, and power. Workshops on human relations and workplace diversity must move beyond the superficial celebration of diversity to the dismantling of systems of privilege and oppression that create environments where members of the organization are disenfranchised and disempowered. Using clips from a variety of genres of mainstream film allows the trainer to make intercultural concepts visible and offers a way for us to challenge our own values and assumptions Participants will enjoy the presentations more as they view some of their favorite films in a whole new way using this familiar medium creates a common basis for entering the discussions all the while giving us the permission to talk about serious and often controversial subjects We've Scene It All Before Using Film Clips in Diversity Awareness Training is a learning tool which will be tremendously useful in reducing resistance and increasing thoughtful cross cultural dialogue

Order in Early Chinese Excavated Texts Zhongjiang Wang,2016-04-29 Recently discovered ancient silk and bamboo manuscripts have transformed our understanding of classical Chinese thought In this book Wang Zhongjiang closely examines these texts and by parsing the complex divergence between ancient and modern Chinese records reveals early Chinese philosophy to be much richer and more complex than we ever imagined As numerous and varied cosmologies sprang up in this cradle of civilization beliefs in the predictable movements of nature merged with faith in gods and their divine punishments Slowly powerful spirits and gods were stripped of their potency as nature's constant order awakened people to the possibility of universal laws and those laws finally gave birth to an ideally conceived community objectively managed and rationally ordered

"All Authority Has Been Given To Me" Tim Lehman,2019-11-20 For much of Christian history greater focus has been paid to Jesus death than to his three years of ministry and his crucifixion has often been understood primarily as a means to salvation in heaven But retired pastor Tim Lehman contends that we've drastically missed the point by not looking closely at and learning from Jesus words and actions before his death As a result we lose out on the joy and freedom of living fully as his disciples and experiencing salvation already in this life on earth In this broad study of Matthew's Gospel Lehman challenges readers to view Jesus death in light of his life He urges us not just to believe in Jesus but to believe Jesus to take seriously all that he taught and how he lived As Lehman leads readers along a carefully laid path Christians and non Christians alike will have to rethink long held assumptions the place of violence in the Christian life the givenness of division in our modern world the meaning of atonement salvation and the kingdom of heaven and more But along the way we are sure to learn grow and hopefully come to know more deeply God's unconditional love for all
