An Inventory of the Ancient Monuments in Glamorgan: Volume III - Part 1b: Medieval Secular Monuments the Later Castles from 1217 to the present Royal Commission on the Ancient and Historical Monuments in Wales, 2000 Forty three castles and fortified sites here described were founded or given their most significant fabric after 1217 They include tower houses strong houses possible castles and twenty masonry castles ranging from the great Clare works at Caerphilly and Morlais to the small modestly fortified sites at Barry and Weobley and the exceptional fortified priory at Ewenny The density and variety of the medieval fortifications in Glamorgan are unrivalled and their study is enriched by an exceptional range of works on the history and records of a historic county formed by merging the lordships of Glamorgan and Gower Part 1a described the early castles and traced their role in the Norman conquest and settlement of the fertile southern lowlands down to 1217 when the Clares inherited Glamorgan In that year the Welsh had expelled the English from Gower and remained unconquered in the Glamorgan uplands Gower was soon lost again and under two redoubtable Clare lords the Glamorgan uplands were appropriated in the mid 13th century and secured in a notable programme of castle works The castle building of Earl Richard de Clare 1243-62 and his son Gilbert the Red Earl 1263-95 as they achieved this second conquest of Glamorgan foreshadowed the later campaigns of Edward I against Gwynedd At Caerphilly above all Earl Gilbert's castle deserves comparison with the great Edwardian works it introduced defensive features later to be adopted by King Edward's Savoyard master masons Gower sites considered include the impressive masonry castles at Oystermouth and Penrice A notable ornately arcaded domestic range at Swansea is the only surviving vestige of the chief castle of Gower which is tentatively described from a variety of records AH the illustrated descriptions incorporate detailed historical accounts The introductory survey outlines the later descent of Glamorgan and Gower to the end of the 15th century and along with the sectional preambles it provides general discussion of the sites

The Entrepreneurial Society of the Rhondda Valleys, 1840-1920 Richard Griffiths, 2010-07-30 This is the first significant study of the entrepreneurial society created by the Welsh coal boom most books up to now having concentrated upon the workers and the unions Using the Porth Pontypridd area as its example it looks closely at the networks of power created by the second generation middle classes of the Valleys towns and at the often hair raising business methods that they used Close examination of individuals and of family groups gives a vivid sense of the reality of the relationships and contacts and of the nature of the society in which they moved

The Small Towns of Roman Britain Barry C. Burnham, J. S. Wacher, 1990-01-01 The Small Towns of Roman Britain surveys a wide range of Roman town sites answering many questions about their character and the archaeological problems they raise The past thirty years have seen a dramatic increase in the quality of the evidence on these sites gained from fieldwork excavation and aerial archaeology Because there is almost no documentary or epigraphic material of any real value on the small towns this archaeological evidence provides a heretofore unavailable perspective Authors Barry Burnham and John Walker have organized the information in a manner that is both useful to scholars and stimulating to history buffs or walkers interested in touring these sites Each site is illustrated with a site plan and many aerial photographs are provided as well Introductory chapters provide an overview of the origins development and morphology of the towns the special religious governmental or industrial significance of many sites and the economic functions common to all A comprehensive bibliography completes the volume This is the eagerly awaited companion volume to John Wacher s watershed study The Towns of Roman Britain which was highly praised for its clean prose excellent illustrations and fascinating story a most important contribution to scholarship while remaining eminently attractive to the general reader Barry Cunliffe Times Literary Supplement The Small Towns of Roman Britain surveys a wide range of Roman town sites answering many questions about their character and the archaeological problems they raise The past thirty years have seen a dramatic increase in the quality of the evidence on these sites gained from fieldwork excavation and aerial archaeology Because there is almost no documentary or epigraphic material of any real value on the small towns this archaeological evidence provides a heretofore unavailable perspective Authors Barry Burnham and John Walker have organized the information in a manner that is both useful to scholars and stimulating to history buffs or walkers interested in touring these sites Each site is illustrated with a site plan and many aerial photographs are provided as well Introductory chapters provide an overview of the origins development and morphology of the towns the special religious governmental or industrial significance of many sites and the economic functions common to all A comprehensive bibliography completes the volume This is the eagerly awaited companion volume to John Wacher s watershed study The Towns of Roman Britain which was highly praised for its clean prose excellent illustrations and fascinating story a most important contribution to scholarship while remaining eminently attractive to the general reader Barry Cunliffe Times Literary Supplement

Architecture, Economics, and Identity in Romano-British 'small Towns' Thomas C. Rust,2006 Roman small towns were an important link between the urban civitas capitals and the rural population and offer an ideal case study for examining the extent of Roman influence permeating into the rural provinces Thomas Rust s study looks at 67 Romano British sites including Alcester Bath Cambridge Dragonby Ilchester Richborough Rochester and Whitchurch exploring the extent to which they adopted and adapted to Roman cultural influences In particular Rust traces this Romanisation through changes in building traditions especially the shift from timber to masonry from the mid 2nd to early 3rd century The study includes a gazetteer of sites and
