Coconino National Forest ,2009 See America First Marguerite Shaffer,2013-08-06 In See America First Marguerite Shaffer chronicles the birth of modern American tourism between 1880 and 1940 linking tourism to the simultaneous growth of national transportation systems print media a national market and a middle class with money and time to spend on leisure Focusing on the See America First slogan and idea employed at different times by railroads guidebook publishers Western boosters and Good Roads advocates she describes both the modern marketing strategies used to promote tourism and the messages of patriotism and loyalty embedded in the tourist experience She shows how tourists as consumers participated in the search for a national identity that could assuage their anxieties about American society and culture Generously illustrated with images from advertisements guidebooks and travelogues See America First demonstrates that the promotion of tourist landscapes and the consumption of tourist experiences were central to the development of an American identity U.S. Department of Transportation Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration Register ,2001 Feminism Enchanted Yanbing Er,2025-09-16 The feminist movement has long been guided by the promise of progress for women politically economically and in personal life But we live in a time when history appears to be moving backward into a more reactionary past How might feminist thought make sense of this plight without returning to the liberal Western framework of progressive reason Yanbing Er argues that the key to this predicament lies in the capacity of the literary imagination to invigorate feminist critical practice She reveals how a literary mode of enchantment fundamentally transforms feminist theory and praxis imagining new and surprising possibilities that had once been foreclosed by dominant paradigms of progress Enchantment illuminates forms of existence that have been lost erased or obscured allowing us to encounter both feminism and the world anew Er finds incantatory power in the works of writers such as Rivers Solomon Akwaeke Emezi Ruth Ozeki and Alexis Wright who disrupt hegemonic ways of thinking by summoning otherwise unimaginable ways of being Their works collectively present an immersive and expansive feminist imaginary that makes space for marginalized histories narratives and lifeworlds Elegantly written and boldly argued Feminism Enchanted shows how poetic language conjures alternative futures for feminist thought Liberalism, Theology, and the Performative in Antebellum American Literature Patrick McDonald,2023-09-19 The 1850s United States witnessed a far reaching political social and economic crisis Symptomatic of this a wide range of narrative fiction from sentimental novels to sensational drama identifies a foundational link between liberal institutions and performative utterances Auctions trials marriages and contracts this fiction contends all depend on the self constituting authority of words and performances which anybody and everybody can appropriate and are always subject to misfiring Rather than viewing this as a liberatory and egalitarian political force however writers from Herman Melville and James Fenimore Cooper to Captain Mayne Reid and E D E N Southworth insist that such naked authority must be supplemented A broad swath of 1850s literature insists that this supplement ought to come from Christianity Anticipating thinkers like Carl Schmitt and Giorgio Agamben these works suggest that legitimate political authority depends upon its ability to represent Christian transcendence and account for revealed truth something firmly outside of speech acts and performance s purview In so doing this diverse body of fiction registers a desire to reconstitute political authority on transcendent and representable ground augmenting institutional reliance on mere words and assuaging the contemporary crises of confidence and authority *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
