Indo-Pacific Smart Megacity System T. M. Vinod Kumar,2023-12-18 This book is an in depth study of the Indo Pacific region for effective interventions in the megacities system First based on several criteria the region is identified as homogeneous country groupings of diversity a multi polar spatial system and as program regions of QUAD and I2U2 for action programs and investment transcending many nations but mostly the ocean space of the Indo Pacific connecting all megacities sub regions spatially and functionally Then the megacities with problems and prospects for economic integration are studied from the point of view of regional economics and international trade and finally the rural urban interface with case studies of selected countries is presented Prospects of systems of megacities and individual megacities for regional economies are designed Existing interconnections through rail air and ocean of megacity systems their capacity performance and potential are analyzed for emerging issues International trade among the megacity systems countries with emerging issues and barriers are presented The mobility of money goods and services among the systems of megacities is analyzed Rule based diplomacy and other emerging options are discussed to sustain the above calls for a study of the Security of the Indo Pacific region Finally the emerging architecture for megacity system governance is also presented Out of 21 megacities in the Indo Pacific an in depth study of a few in India and Japan in the Indo Pacific region for effective economic interventions in the megacities system at the city level was studied COVID 19 has affected most of the countries in the Indo Pacific With a contraction of GDP and a GDP growth rate negative the number below the poverty level increased Foreign Direct Investment is not forthcoming in any of these countries Job creation becomes a priority in addition to public health concerns connected with COVID 19

Security Cooperation in the Pacific Islands Joanne Wallis,Henrietta McNeill,James Batley,Anna

Powles, 2025-03-20 Wallis McNeill Batley Powles and the contributors examine the dynamics of Pacific Islands security cooperation analysing how it helps address regional security challenges amid the broader strategic competition between China and the United States that is increasingly playing out in the region Pacific Island countries do not want to become pawns in this competition but its impacts are inescapable and are creating additional security challenges Compounding these effects are climate change and COVID 19 both of which have intersected with existing traditional and non traditional security challenges facing the region In response Pacific Island leaders have vowed to pursue greater security cooperation amongst themselves and with partner states This book addresses partner states interests in the region how these interests and Pacific priorities align and if not what the possible consequences may be It also analyses successful areas of security cooperation and tackles how challenges may be improved Incorporating a range of perspectives from key leaders practitioners and scholars this is an empirically grounded analysis of security cooperation within the Pacific Islands region and by the region s major partners A vital resource for researchers and practitioners seeking to better understand Pacific Islands security collaboration and the inherent challenges it faces The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Architecture of Security in the Asia-Pacific Ronald Huisken, 2009-10-01 We cannot expect in East Asia over the foreseeable future to see the sort of conflation of sovereign states that has occurred in Europe We must anticipate that for the foreseeable future the requirement will be for the sensible management and containment of competitive instincts The establishment of a multilateral security body in East Asia that includes all the key players and which the major powers invest with the authority to tackle the shaping of the regional security order remains a critical piece of unfinished business
