Squier, 2000-11-15 Although the themes of women's complicity in and resistance to war have been part of literature from early times they have not been fully integrated into conventional conceptions of the war narrative Combining feminist literary criticism with the emerging field of feminist war theory this collection explores the role of gender as an organizing principle in the war system and reveals how literature perpetuates the ancient myth of arms and the man The volume shows how the gendered conception of war has both shaped literary texts and formed the literary canon It identifies and interrogates the conventional war text with its culturally determined split between warlike men and peaceful women and it confirms that women's role in relation to war is much more complex and complicitous than such essentializing suggests The contributors examine a wide range of familiar texts from fresh perspectives and bring new texts to light Collectively these essays range in time from the Trojan War to the nuclear age The contributors are June Jordan Lorraine Helms Patricia Francis Cholakian Jane E Schultz Margaret R Higonnet James Longenbach Laura Stempel Mumford Sharon O'Brien Jane Marcus Sara Friedrichsmeyer Susan Schweik Carol J Adams Esther Fuchs Barbara Freeman Gillian Brown Helen M Cooper Adrienne Auslander Munich and Susan Merrill Squier Women and Romance Susan Ostrov Weisser, 2001-07 Weisser English apparent effort Willa Cather could adjust her sights to any assignment and any audience And if it is astonishing that she could write so much about so many matters at so many levels it is perhaps even more astonishing that so much of it was so good Undeniably however the chief interest to the general reader and the peculiar value to the scholar of these journalistic writings reside in their manifold and crucial connections with Cather s later work and in the unparalleled insights they afford into the process by which a gifted writer becomes a great artist Primitive Love and Love-stories Henry T.
