Committee on Foreign Relations,1978 Understanding Foreign Policy Decision Making Alex Mintz,Karl DeRouen Jr,2010-02-22 Understanding Foreign Policy Decision Making presents a psychological approach to foreign policy decision making This approach focuses on the decision process dynamics and outcome The book includes a wealth of extended real world case studies and examples that are woven into the text The cases and examples which are written in an accessible style include decisions made by leaders of the United States Israel New Zealand Cuba Iceland United Kingdom and others In addition to coverage of the rational model of decision making levels of analysis of foreign policy decision making and types of decisions the book includes extensive material on alternatives to the rational choice model the marketing and framing of decisions cognitive biases and domestic cultural and international influences on decision making in international affairs Existing textbooks do not present such an approach to foreign policy decision making international relations American foreign policy and comparative foreign policy The Security of the Persian Gulf Hossein

Amirsadeghi,2011-02-25 The Persian Gulf important because of its vast energy resources emerged into the limelight of geopolitics at the time of the British Labour government e tm s policy of withdrawal from East of Suez in 1968 Before 1968 it had been recognised that the Gulf lay in the legitimate sphere of influence of Britain while the United States exerted its influence in the two pivotal littoral states of Iran and Saudi Arabia The Soviets had been gaining influence in Iraq ever since the overthrow of the monarchy in 1958 and the Chinese were also fishing for influence by their support of the Popular Front for the Liberation of the Arabian Gulf This book examines the political axes of the various super powers with Iran and the Persian Gulf and discusses the implications of these problems for the issue of security in the region War as Business

Armin Krishnan,2016-03-03 The privatization of defence assets and the outsourcing of military services from the armed forces to the private sector is an increasing trend This book approaches the issue of military privatization by linking it to the transformation of the defence industries since the early 1990s and shows the extent to which many military functions and activities ranging from military research to military consulting training to operational support services have already been outsourced in the US and in Europe This detailed study provides new and updated information on the ongoing privatization of the defence sector and offers an original theoretical explanation as to why the most modern armed forces throughout the world have come increasingly to rely on private companies for nearly everything they do Contributing to a better understanding of military privatization and its close connection to technological change the book explains the complexity of the whole phenomenon and discusses its implications for national and international security Asia-Pacific Regional

Security Assessment 2023 The International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS),2023-06-02 The Asia Pacific Regional Security Assessment examines key regional security issues relevant to the policy focused discussions of the IISS Shangri La Dialogue Asia s premier defence summit convened by the International Institute for Strategic Studies It is published and launched at the Dialogue and the issues analysed within its covers are central to discussions at the event Since February 2022 the war in Ukraine has provided a bleak backdrop for discussions about international security While the war has affected many aspects of security and defence in the Asia Pacific the region also has its own dynamics and important security related developments have occurred there since the invasion Among these China s ever growing power and increasingly assertive posture remain the leading long term challenges for the region This tenth edition of the Asia Pacific Regional Security Assessment contains an introduction and six chapters authored by IISS experts which investigate important dimensions of the regional security environment supported by maps graphs charts and tables Topics include the war in Ukraine and the Asia Pacific balance of power strained US China relations and the growing threat to Taiwan Asia Pacific naval and maritime capabilities China s Belt and Road Initiative Japanese security and defence policy and the conflict in Myanmar and the international response Authors include leading regional analysts and academics at the forefront of research and analysis James Crabtree Euan Graham Nigel Inkster Nick Childs Meia Nouwens Robert Ward Yuka Koshino Aaron Connelly and Shona Loong

The Economics of Producing Defense Yaacov Lifshitz, 2012-12-06 The Economics of Producing Defense Illustrated by the Israeli Case begins with an overview of the development of defense economics as a sub discipline of the general theory of economics and points at the new challenges it is facing in the post Cold War era It focuses then on the supply side of defense economics presenting theoretical analyses and empirical findings related to the use of various inputs manpower domestically made defense products imported arms in providing national security Most of the issues under discussion are further elucidated by examples from Israel s experience As a small economy that faces continuously severe security problems Israel s way of coping with defense economic issues may indeed forward some interesting lessons for a wider audience The principal aim of the book is to convince policy makers and the public at large of the contribution defense economics could make to more effective management of national security problems This aim is encouraged by the growing weight attached to economic considerations and consequences in producing and supplying defense as demonstrated in the detailed discussion
