Kong and New Zealand Written by an array of distinguished and emerging scholars each of the case studies provides a detailed analysis of the particular cinema in question with an emphasis on the last decade considering both institutional and textual issues relevant to the national dimension of each cinema While each chapter contains an in depth analysis of the particular cinema in question the book as a whole provides the basis for a broader and more properly comparative understanding of small or minor national cinemas particularly with regard to structural constraints and possibilities the impact of globalization and internationalisation and the role played by economic and cultural factors in small nation contexts

Nightfall ushers in its own set of terrors With every external light ablaze until dawn I find solace in the illusion of visibility But every creak every rustle throws me into high alert compelling me to scour the house for signs of the looming threat The dining room becomes my vantage point a silent sentinel observing the outdoors from three angles The very shadows that were once familiar now become menacing Surprisingly I find myself longing for the weighty presence of the 357 Magnum an army relic from my days in Military Intelligence That very tool I once detested aware of the devastation it could unleash now symbolized security Its potential for destruction was a deterrent I yearned for a beacon to ward off any audacious intruders and shield my family from the unknown horrors that lay beyond our walls English in Singapore Lisa Lim,Anne Pakir,Lionel Wee,2010-06-01
